QUALITY AND PURITY

We are very particular about the purity of our drugs but we are even more careful to see that the drugs we use in dispensing are of the highest quality—nothing doubtful finds a place on our shelves.
 Worth remembering when your physician hands you a prescription to get filled.

JAPANESE DESTROYER USUKUMO.

The torpedo-boat destroyer Usukumo is an excellent representative of the Japanese torpedo craft which have been accomplishing such wonders during the present war, particularly in their repeated daring attacks on Port Arthur. These little vessels have taught the world a new lesson as to the possibilities of torpedo warfare.

CUTICURA

Soap, Ointment and Pills
 the World's Greatest Skin Cures.

Complete Treatment for Every Humour, from Pimples to Scrofula

WHEN ALL ELSE FAILS

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of the scalp, as in scalded head; the facial disfigurement, as in pimples and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants and the anxiety of worn-out parents, as in milk crust, tetter and salt rheum, all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills are such stands proven beyond all doubt. No statement is made regarding them that is not justified by the strongest evidence. The purity and sweetness, the power to afford immediate relief, the certainty of speedy and permanent cure, the absolute safety and great economy, have made them the standard skin cures and humour remedies of the civilized world.

The grandest testimonial that can be offered the Cuticura remedies is their world-wide sale, due to the personal recommendations of those who have used them. From a small beginning in the simplest form, against prejudice and opposition, against moated hosts, countless rivals, and trade indifference, Cuticura remedies have become the greatest curatives of their time, and, in fact, of all time, for nowhere in the history of medicine is to be found another approaching them in popularity and sale. In every clime and with every people they have met with the same reception. The confines of the earth are the only limits to their growth. They have conquered the world.

Cuticura Resolvent, liquid and in the form of Chocolate Coated Pills, Cuticura Ointment and Cuticura Soap are sold throughout the world. Agents: London, 27, Charterhouse St.; Paris, 2, Rue de la Harpe; Australia, N. S. W., Sydney; Boston, 127, Columbus Ave.; Foster Drug & Chemical Co., Sole Importers.

BUNYAN RELIC.

Original Warrant which committed him to Bedford Jail.

On April 23, 1661, there took place the coronation of Charles II., and as a mark of royal clemency prisoners for every offence short of felony were that day released, those awaiting trial dismissed at discretion.

On the 243rd anniversary of that day—a day on which John Bunyan would have been released from Bedford jail after his first three weeks' confinement had it not been for the perversity of the authorities, who chose to regard him as a legal conviction, rendering it necessary that a pardon should be sued for—there will be offered for sale at Sotheby's, London, the original warrant under which, in 1674, he was for a third time incarcerated, although, owing to the intervention of the Bishop of Lincoln, in whose diocese Bedford then was, for a period of six months only.

The warrant, signed by thirteen J. P.'s—six baronets and seven esquires—is addressed to the constables of Bedford, and charges Bunyan with having preached or taught at a conventicle meeting or assembly, under the color or pretence of the exercise of religion, in manner other than according to the liturgy or practice of the Church of England. Nonconformity is somewhat freer nowadays!

Rarities by the "tinker" who strove to mend men's souls as well as kettles and pans" are to-day the object of extraordinarily eager competition in the sale-rooms. It is worthy of note that apart from important monuments of early printing, such as the Fust and Schoeffer Psalter of 1459, a copy of which on vellum brought in 1884 £4,950, the highest amount ever paid at auction for a book, and examples by our own Caxton, no printed work save one has realized anything like as much under the hammer as "The Pilgrim's Progress."

It has a wider circulation than any book except the Bible, has been translated into 104 languages, and in 1901 the Nash copy of the first edition, Part I., with the perhaps unique frontispiece of Bunyan dreaming, realized £1,475, as compared with an issue value of 1s. 6d.

As has been said, one other work only, apart from those printed in the fifteenth century, has realized as much at auction. This is the First Folio edition of Shakespeare, whose "record" is £1,720.

The sale of the Bunyan warrant promises to be one of the most interesting auction-room events of 1904.—London News.

Fagin's Kitchen.

At the bottom of Great Saffron Hill, London, is situated what at one time was one of the most hideous and dangerous slums. It is part of a ruinous old tenement, exactly answering to the description of the infamous den to which the Artful Dodger led Oliver Twist as a new pal for a visit to "Greenland." The den had several ominous looking staircases leading into dark and ill-smelling passages and had plenty of cupboards available for thieves' booty.

From the outhouses any of the light-fingered gentry could easily have dropped into the street, while the adjacent house, condemned by the London City Council, was easily accessible. The last named tenement, formerly a haunt for vagrants, with all the conveniences of a thieves' kitchen, had associations of the worst kind and has not come under the ban of the London Parliament a moment too soon.

Fagin was a real character, named Isaac Touch, who, when raided by the police, was found to possess a peck measure of watches. He had the name of being a confederate in worse crimes than training young thieves and buying stolen property.

NO EXTORTION IN ST. LOUIS

Liberal Accommodations at Moderate Rates Assured by the Administration.

The management of the St. Louis World's Fair is determined that visitors to the great Exposition shall enjoy ample accommodations at reasonable rates, hence under its auspices an enormous hotel called The Inside Inn has been erected inside the grounds of the Exposition.

This splendid hotel is three stories high, 400 feet wide and 800 feet long. It contains spacious parlors, reading rooms and reception rooms. Its dining room and restaurant seats 2,500 people at a time and it contains 2,257 sleeping apartments. All visitors to this hotel enjoy the same service and the same excellent table; the range of prices being determined simply by the location and size of the rooms. The hotel is run on both the European and American plans and rates vary from $1.50 to $5.50 per day, European, and from $3.00 to $7.00, American, including admission.

The Inside Inn is under the personal supervision and management of Mr. E. M. Sadler, the well-known restaurateur of Buffalo, which fact alone guarantees the high quality of the cuisine and service.

The comfort and convenience thus afforded visitors in not having to go outside the grounds or of incurring the trouble and crushing of street cars and suburban railway service cannot be over-estimated. Once a visitor is registered at The Inside Inn no further admission fee to the Exposition is charged, and after a tiring morning or afternoon one can readily return to their room, wash and rest up, refresh themselves with a first-class meal and then turn out and enjoy the pleasures of the evening in the Exposition grounds.

The enormous capacity of The Inside Inn assures good accommodations for all, no matter when or in what numbers they come—but those who prefer to reserve their rooms in advance can do so now.

Full details of rates and reservations can be had by sending a postal card to The Inside Inn, care of Administration Bldg., World's Fair Grounds, St. Louis.

OIL FOR THE BODY

You can't lose an atom without feeling it. The body is like an engine, a watch, a machine; must be kept in good order to run right.

That's the reason Scott's Emulsion is so successful in all wasting diseases. It feeds, nourishes and strengthens when ordinary food won't.

Doctors say Scott's Emulsion is the best nourishment for those who are not as well as they should be—young or old.
