Last evening the students of the Union Commercial College, were treated to a masterly address by J. P. Gordon of Moore and McLeod, City. The subject was "Advertising."

Be sure and see the farewell of Kramer and Massey tonight at New Wonderland. Such music as Mr. Massey draws from the clarinet is seldom heard, and tonight is the last opportunity to hear him.

Do not send communications to individual members of staff. Everything should be addressed "The Charlottetown Guardian, Charlottetown, P. E. I.," and on the left hand corner of the envelope should be "Advertising," "Subscription," "Editorial," or "Tour Editor," according to the contents.

The P. and B. steamer Harlaw which was at Channel, Newfoundland, was to sail from there this week for the sealing grounds. The Harlaw will cruise around the Gulf of St. Lawrence, between Newfoundland, Prince Edward Island and the coast of Labrador, in search of the furry denizens of the deep.

Miss Katie Beckwith head milliner for S. A. McDonald who has been visiting at her home in Halifax for the past few weeks left there on Monday last to attend the great Millinery opening in New York. She will get all the latest ideas and will also visit the markets and procure all the new novelties for the incoming season.

No one should forget the grand Concert at Emerald on St. Patrick's night under the auspices of the Benevolent Irish Society. The Elocution Class of St. Dunstan's College as well as city talent will take part and the oration of the evening will be delivered by P. P. Hughes of St. Dunstan's College. A special train will run from Cape Traverse to Emerald returning after the concert.

The moving picture show and entertainment for the scholars of the First Methodist Church Sunday School and their friends last night, was a grand success. The school-room was crowded, and everybody seemed to enjoy themselves. The solo by Miss Hazel Bremner and the reading by Miss Hortense Phillips received rapturous accolades, while the picture operated by Walter Burke with his excellent machine, brought forth sounds of applause.

The St. John Telegraph says the Baptist ministers of St. John have passed a resolution against Sunday funerals. Also the Methodist ministers met Tuesday in Centenary church parlors. Good reports were received from all the churches. Dr. Flanders reported special services on Sunday. Rev. S. Howard received nine members into his church. Rev. Neil McLaughlin had good results from special services, about fifty or sixty having decided to live a Christian life. The above gentlemen are well known in this City.

The little folks of St. James church Mission Band excelled themselves at their pleasing entertainment last evening. There were about sixteen pieces on the program, consisting of songs, recitations, and choruses and each little tot in her own inimitable way charmed the audience and many encores were in order. The talk by Rev. Geo. E. Ross on Demerara, was a treat equally enjoyed by young and old and as the children of St. James Church are helping support a missionary there, they were highly interested and greatly enjoyed the beautiful clear pictures and stories told. The ladies who so carefully trained the wee ones to do their several parts, are to be congratulated on the success of the efforts.

At the races at Corran Ban ice last Monday the Free-for-all was won by J. J. Lacey's promising mare Daisy, cleaning out the field in straight heats. Nancy, owned by Theodore Ellis, won second place and Greybird, owned by Vic. Hudson, third. It was nice going but nothing exciting. The 2.40 class was won by J. W. McDonald's handsome youngster, who was only entered for this race, with Daisy a close second. The last heat of this race was of the neck and neck order and caused great excitement. J. A. Martin's chestnut finished third. Lee Bessory's flyer took sick in the first heat and was withdrawn. It took five heats to decide a three minute class and it was a race from start to finish between Nancy and Greybird. In the last heat Greybird pushed the Donaldston mare throughout passing her on the stretch and finishing in the lead by half a length. The other entries were owned by Ben Watts and Eddy Ready. Mr. Watts' beautiful chestnut finishing a good third. Daisy has never raced before and wonders are expected of her. Mr. Lacey, it is understood refused an offer of $175.00 for her Monday. Naturally he expects a much higher price. The race was well conducted by M. Ready and R. McKinnon. The Judge was Thos. M. Horgan of Dalvay. James P. Dougan ably acted as starter. Exam.

Ronald McDonald, Mount Stewart, has returned home from British Columbia.

Wallace and Mrs. Hill, St. John, who are visiting in this Province return home on Monday next.

The Hillsboro river ice presented a pretty appearance yesterday with the many skaters and ice boats speeding along.

S. A. McDonald's have received large shipments of Spring Goods including dress goods, silks, prints, linens, small wear, hats, clothing and full assortment of all lines. The public are requested to call and inspect the new 1909 lines.

The family of the late John Jenkins, City, whose death was referred to in yesterday's paper, is as follows: P. M. and John in New Glasgow, Kenneth, North Sydney; N. J. and Benjamin, Mt. Albion and Mrs. Kenneth McDonald, Covehead, Mrs. A. M. Lane, Milburn and Mrs. Jas. C. McLean, West River.

Twenty three of the best known lobster fishermen of Rustico have formed an association and have asked for a fishing licence from Ottawa. It is understood from a reliable source that their request has been granted and in future they will not be controlled by large packing institutions. There are many startling rumors afloat as to the way these fishermen have been used during the past winter which compelled them to take the above steps.

The late Mrs. Lewis Moore of Milburn, Lot 40, who passed away recently, was a daughter of the late Joseph and Mary Ann Copp of Milton and was much esteemed by those who knew her best. Ever ready to sympathize with and help those in trouble she won the deep gratitude of all. She leaves to mourn a husband, three sisters, Mrs. Henry Webb of Chesterville, Maine, Mrs. George Younker of Milton, Mrs. George Clarke of North Wiltshire, and two brothers John of Peabody, Mass and Joseph of Chelsea, Mass, and also a large circle of relatives and friends.

On March fourth the farmers of Gowam Brae and vicinity were treated to a very instructive address, by Prof. Ross of the Department of Agriculture, on the subject of good seeds. Mr. Ross spoke very strongly on the result of sowing the largest and plumpest grain free from weed seeds. He clearly showed that the large and plump seed would produce four bushels more per acre. On the following day a seed judging class was held and was largely attended. A sample of all the different weed seeds found in this province were presented, and by the use of magnifying glasses were identified. On the same evening, in the Rollo Bay hall, the Professor lectured on Dairying which was much appreciated by a large audience. Could the Government permit him to devote all his time to this work of helping farmers in these ways, it would be invaluable to them. Res.

The death of Mrs. Peter McKenna, occurred at Newton Cross, on Tuesday, March 2nd, in the 60th year of her age. The deceased had been in ill-health for a number of years, and about two weeks ago, she contracted a severe cold, which terminated fatally, despite medical assistance and the kind attention of relations and friends. Her life was that of a good and true, Christian woman. Though always of a modest and retiring disposition, yet her kindness, amiability and consideration for others won her the esteem and good will of all. Her absence will be felt in the community where her influence was ever for good, and especially in the family circle, which will long cherish her memory. She was attended in her last hours by her pastor, Rev. J. A. Gaudet, and she died consoled by the rites of the Catholic Church, of which she had been a faithful and pious member. Her funeral took place on Thursday, March 4th, to St. Michael's Cemetery, Jona. At the Church, a Requiem Mass was sung by Rev. Joseph Gallant and the choir was assisted by Revs. Theodore Gallant and J. A. Gaudet. The pall bearers were J. Power, J. Rooney, W. Power, M. McKenna, J. Finlay and T. Power. She leaves to mourn their loss, besides her husband, a family of ten children--Rev. Wm. McKenna of Nebraska, James at Newton Cross, Mrs. John Power of Elliotvale, Charles, Georgina, and John in Boston; Frank in St. Dunstan's College, and Rose, Anne and Laura at home.

Miss Angie Dorion and Miss M. Murnaghan left last night for New York and other Canadian millinery centers to select stock for the firm of James Paton & Co. 3-12d2i.
