Navy Defeats 'Y' 5-4 In Sudden Death Game For City League Hockey Title

A goal by MacDonald in the closing seconds of the game gave the Navy top honours in the City Hockey League. Battling to a one all tie in the first period the Navy collected one goal in the second canto and shared six goals in the final period to give them a 5-4 decision over the Y.M.C.A. in a city league game at the Forum last night.

Starting off at a fast clip the play saw the Navy pressing hard in the opening minutes when Fraser Muir defenseman was sent to the cooler for tripping followed by "Plum" MacDonald of the Y. However the Y opened the scoring by Kane who drilled a low shot into the open corner of the net on a pass from Squarebriggs. The Navy came back in great style when MacAdam plotted a high one in from the Y blueline. From this point on the Navy pressed hard only to have their efforts thwarted by Cudmore the young Y netminder.

The play see-sawed back and forth during the second session until Gallant snapped up a pass from MacAdam in a goal mouth scramble and made no mistake on his low shot. For the remainder of the period it was all the Navy could do to hang on to their one goal lead. Twice in a row Pud Whitlock came right in only to be robbed in the goal mouth by the Navy defence.

The game was gaining in momentum in the last period as the Y netted two quick goals in the first four minutes Stewart getting the first one on a pass from Pud Whitlock and Kane beating Whelan with a low shot after breaking away at centre. At this point the Y team were forcing the Navy squad back but a sudden reverse came as McDougall of the Navy capitalized on a break and Gallant followed up with another counter for the Tars to put them ahead until Carmichael snared a pass from Whitlock to put his team on even terms again. The two teams continued to battle on even terms and overtime looked imminent when McDonald fast stick-handler of the Navy put his team ahead just seven seconds before the final whistle.

SAINT JOHN, N.B., March 16 — (CP) — Saint John High School won the New Brunswick Juvenile hockey crown this afternoon by scoring a 5-3 win over the Dalhousie Superior School team in the deciding game of a home-and-home series. The two teams battled to a 2-all draw at Dalhousie last Saturday in the opening game.

The Saint John team will meet the Charlottetown Juveniles in a two-game, Maritime semi-final series. It is expected that these two games will be played in Saint John this week-end. The first probably will be played Friday night and the second Saturday afternoon.

Junior Royals Leave Today For Sydney

The Charlottetown Junior Royals, N.B.-P.E.I. Junior Hockey champions leave here this morning for Sydney. They will play the Bruins, Nova Scotia champions for the Maritime title there Thursday night.

The Royals will ice substantially the same lineup they used here in the opening encounter of the two-game total goal series here last week which ended in a 4-4 draw.

One player, Nicolle, who scored four of the Royals goals Friday night may not make the trip, it was learned. In the event he does not go he will be replaced by E. Bagnall.

One official of the club said the Royals will have to "play like h--- if we are to see any more hockey here this season."

But the team itself seemed determined to bring back the Maritime crown which they held three years in succession at one time.

Bruins Smother Rangers 11-5

BOSTON, March 16 — (AP) — Boston Bruins, the second playoff berth clinched, completed the regular National Hockey League season by overwhelming the lowly New York Rangers 11-5 tonight before an 8,885 crowd at the Boston Gardens. It was the last of the Bruins' four-game series for the benefit of the Red Cross, the total receipts of which were $47,204.

Veteran Bill Cowley was held to two goals and an assist, for a total of 72 points to date which put him in a first-place tie with Doug Bentley of Chicago, who has another game to go.

Herb Cain, one of Cowley's wingers, paced the Bruins with three goals, as Demarco and Don Gallinger collected two each and the others went to Ossie Aubuchon and Yank Boyd.

For Rangers, Grant Warwick scored two goals and Bob Kirkpatrick, Clint Smith and Ott Heller got the others.

Middleton Bombers Win South Shore Championship

On Thursday March 11th, the Middleton Bombers won the Simmons and MacFarlane Cup, emblematic of the South Shore Hockey Championship, by defeating the Freetown Maple Leafs 7-2, in the fifth game of a best of five final series. Approximately 600 fans, a record for Bedeque Rink were in attendance, to give a story book finish to a league that gained steadily in popularity, after being organized under rather uncertain conditions.

The Leafs took a one goal lead in an evenly played first period, as Gardiner slapped in a goal mouth pass from Simmons. The Bombers took over in the second frame, and McKenna, Oatway and R. Bradshaw each counted while the Leafs failed to score. The Leafs received the only three penalties of the game in this period, Simmons, Clow and Gardiner all getting the nod within the space of about four minutes. In the final session the Leafs began ganging in an effort to wipe off a two goal deficit, but these tactics proved a boomerang, as the Bombers broke loose to post four more counters, before Freetown completed the scoring by notching their second goal. A. DesRoches mercury footed wingman shot a brace for the Bombers and Bradshaw and Muttart added two more for good measure. Somers, Leaf Centreman had the last say in affairs, by firing in a pass from Gardiner.

The Bombers, paced by the standout performances of Muttart and A. DesRoches, played heads-up hockey, and once they secured the lead in the second period there was no stopping them. The Leafs fought gamely till the final bell. Gardiner turned in a great game, figuring in both Freetown goals while Clow, husky defenceman sparked numerous Leaf rushes in a vain attempt to save the day.

Line-ups:—

Middleton, Goal, Noonan;; Defence, Oatway, Sobey, Cameron; Forwards, Muttart, A. DesRoches, R. Bradshaw, M. Bradshaw, M. DesRoches, McKenna.

Freetown, Goal, Campbell; Defence, Clow, Stavert; Forwards, Mayne, Somers, Simmons, Gardiner, Drummond, Stetson, Hill.

Saint John Beavers Are Eliminated

SAINT JOHN, N.B., March 16 — (CP)— Pictou Shipyards eliminated Saint John Beavers from the Maritime Hockey play-offs here tonight by defeating them 5 to 3 in the fifth game of a best three in five game semi-final series.

Pictou won the first two games on home ice, took the third game here last Saturday night, but a protest by Beavers was allowed and a fourth game last night resulted in a Saint John win.

The Nova Scotia team will now meet Halifax R.C.A.F. team in an all-Nova Scotia Maritime final.

Shipyard, who have been juggling their players for weeks came up with another prize packet tonight in the person of "Flash" Price who performed during the regular season with New Glasgow Bombers.

The little centre man who refereed the first four games of the series between Beavers and Shipyards was injected into the Pictou lineup as a replacement for the injured Bert Steele who had previously been replaced twice by Topshee.

Although outplayed most of the way, Pictou managed to take advantage of all the breaks and led by the starry "Kink" MacDonald who scored three goals, they kept ahead of Beavers all the way.

Shipyards whipped in the first goal and never lost the lead. Price and Schrieber registered the other Pictou goals. Lynch, Butler and Keating were the Saint John marksmen.

"Sonny" MacDonald, the goalie Pictou alternated with a net-minder from Truro in earlier playdown games was the man who defeated Beavers tonight. He stopped five times as many shots as Giggey in the Saint John nets, and his cool play under fire stamped him as the hero of the game. Time and again he came out of his net to clear loose pucks with Saint John forwards boring in on him.

Star of the game, however, was little Joe Causineau, Saint John kid winger. He played a powerful offensive game and stopped more Pictou attacks than all the rest of the Saint John team.

Sydney Bruins Prepare For Big Battle

SYDNEY, N.S., March 16—(CP) —Sydney Bruins, Nova Scotia Junior hockey champions, raced through a stiff workout at the Forum here today in preparation for their battle Thursday when they stack up against Charlottetown Royals for the Maritime Junior Crown.

Coach Jo Joseph said there would be few changes in the lineup from the team which held the N.B.-P.E.I. titlists to a 4-4 tie in Charlottetown in the first game of the total-goal series last Friday.

One of the season's top crowds is expected to sit in on the deciding contest at Bruin's home ice here Thursday.

CLEVELAND, March 16 —(AP)— Cleve and Barons blanked Providence Reds 3-0 in the first game of their best of three series in the opening round of the American Hockey League play-offs before 4,780 fans here tonight.
