(Canadian Press) WINNIPEG, Man., Nov. 4—Wheat prices again were on the incline. In a strong finish on Winnipeg Grain Exchange today all three months for future deliveries shot up to the high marks of the day to more than recover losses suffered in yesterday's shower of profit-taking.

November future recorded a net gain of 1 3/4 cents at 70 3/8; December 2 1/8 to two cents at 70 5/8 and May 2 1/4 cents at 74 1/4 to 74 3/8.

A weak opening in the Liverpool market resulted in a spasm of early selling in the Winnipeg pit as speculators sought to rid themselves of their holdings at a profit for fear prices here would follow the Liverpool trend.

The Chicago opening, however, imparted a strengthening influence to Canadian wheat and prices gradually began to move upward, finishing in a sharp advance in a campaign of buying for southern and eastern interests.

Sir Herbert Samuel, one of those who broke away from Lloyd George ranks in the election is expected to be chosen in his place at the conference of the historic party today.

Brings Message Of Good Cheer

West Not Downhearted, Declares Archbishop McGuigan Of Regina, Who Is Revisiting His Native Province.

(Associated Press) BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 4—Bearing a message of optimism in the prospect of improved conditions in the West, the Most Rev. J. C. McGuigan, D. D., Archbishop of Regina, Metropolitan of Saskatchewan, arrived in Charlottetown on Tuesday evening on a short visit to his mother, Mrs. Annie McGuigan, his relatives and friends.

Archbishop McGuigan, who went to Edmonton with Bishop O'Leary in 1921, and who has since won outstanding distinction in his Christian ministry in Western Canada, is delighted to revisit his native Province and to note that the world-wide depression has reacted with less effect in Prince Edward Island and the Maritimes generally than on many parts of the continent.

The depression, the Archbishop states, has certainly been worse in the West than in Eastern Canada. The adverse situation in Southern Saskatchewan was intensified by successive crop failures. The people, however, are now optimistic and are bearing up magnificently under trying conditions.

(Canadian Press) MENNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 4—Contempt of court proceedings were instituted today against Mrs. Genevieve A. Clark, who gained fame two weeks ago by insisting on acquittal and deadlocking the jury of which she was the only woman member in the trial of W. B. Foshy and six associated on mail fraud charges. Judge Gunnar H. Nordbye signed an order requiring Mrs. Clark to appear in Federal court Monday to show cause why she should not be held in contempt on grounds that she once was in the employ of Foshy, had made up her mind before the trial to vote for acquittal, and had perjured herself to get on the jury. Mrs. Clark, a small, slender woman nearing middle age, held out alone against the 11 men who served with her. The jury was finally dismissed after deliberating a few hours. A new trial of the promoter and his associates was ordered for Jan. 11.

In the note, which was sent to Kenichi Yoshizawa, Japan's delegate to the League of Nations, he pointed out that the Council voted 13 to 1 ten days ago that Japan

Shared Innermost Secrets of Regina Branch of Party In Canada—Prisoners Appear Anxious.

(Canadian Press Staff Writer) TORONTO, Ont., Nov. 4—For seven long years, a shabbily clad, stockily built little German-Canadian acted as secretary of the Regina, Sask., branch of the Communist Party of Canada. For those seven years he shared the innermost secrets of the "legal" and "illegal" branches of the party, sat at the council seat, attended conventions, talked and corresponded with the leaders. Today, the same stolid little man stood in the witness box at the trial of nine alleged Communists here.

A Transformation

But this time, he had changed the ragged hand-me-downs for the scarlet and blue of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. It was the first time in ten years his comrades said, that he had worn the proud uniform of Canada's famous force. The high collar bothered him somewhat. He shuffled under the strain of answering hundreds of questions, and out of the welter of testimony he gave, emerged the following.

- 1—His name was Sergeant John Leopold, of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. 2—For seven years he had been secretary of the Regina branch of the Communist party. 3—He had won the post through hard work. 4—While a member of the party he was known, not as sergeant Leopold, but E. W. Esselwain. 5—He had entered the Communist party in search of evidence to prove that it was an unlawful association and that members of the party were parties to a seditious conspiracy.

Prisoners Perturbed

All this evidence, and more, he gave under Crown questioning. Before him sat nine prisoners, alleged to be leaders of the party in Canada. They were Tim Buck, Tom Ewen, John Boychuk, Amos T. Hill, Malcolm L. Bruce, Samuel Cohen, Na'lew Popovitch, Mike Golski and Thomas Cacle. They sat upright and whispered excitedly as the little Mountie
