Alice Faye At "Capitol"

Opening today at the Capitol Theatre is the brilliant musical comedy, "You're a Sweetheart," the popular Alice Faye, with a big cast of selected players and specialty acts.

It's distinctly different. It's ultra smart. It's clever. It's uproariously funny. It has plenty of plot. You don't have to believe it. The plot makes fun of itself. It is packed with diversified specialties: tuneful, memorable songs. And yet this abundance of variety is packed so neatly, so perfectly into its length that you will wonder how it was possible to show it all in one evening.

The reason, no doubt, is the cast. The star, Alice Faye, delivers what is no doubt the best picture of her career in "You're a Sweetheart." Her acting and her dancing stand out even in the brilliant performances of the exceptional cast which surrounds her. Miss Faye never was more beautiful and she never was so well photographed.

Second is George Murphy. George's smoothness personified, in his acting, dancing and singing. His best picture to date. And Ken Murray, Andy Devine, Bill Gargan, Frank Jenks, Dave Oliver, Charles Winninger, and William Hunt, among others, fit smoothly and perfectly into the streamlined whole, making possible the fast and effortless tempo of the production. "You're a Sweetheart" establishes a smart atmosphere and a pulse-beating tempo from the very opening and keeps it mounting steadily in tempo to the very finish. A trick hit never succeeded so fully completed in screen musical offerings.

You'll find "You're a Sweetheart" the answer to your prayers as far as musical comedies are concerned. It's crammed with delightful music.

Nourishing part of the city.

There was no official comment on protests by Britain and the United States. On Saturday, however, Donat Stamburkian, a well informed source—a designation usually given to official opinion—indicated the denunciation of air attacks on civilians would not alter Japanese tactics in China.

CITY HOSPITAL

Those who heard him felt they would not have missed the opportunity for a great deal. He will be heard again each night this week at the bazaar and has a very fine repertoire each appearance. Prof. Kendall was accompanied by Right Rev. Monsignor McLellan speaking at the official opening referred to the great work the hospital was doing for suffering humanity and paid tribute to the people of Charlottetown for their generosity in supporting their hospital. The Reverend speaker also commended the hope citizens and people of the Province generally would again assist the City Hospital through the bazaar as they had done on three former years.

Hon. Dr. MacMillan pointed out that the City Hospital ranked as a first class institution by the American College of Surgeons, the outstanding authority on this continent for rating hospitals. He referred to the $18,000.00 charitable work the hospital carried on last year and the adverse effect depression years were having on the finances of the organization. The Doctor paid tribute to the efficient work of the nursing staff of the hospital.

In the absence of Bishop O'Sullivan he thanked the people for their generosity in the past. During the evening the various booths, where are to be found interesting games, home cooking, ice cream, refreshments, etc., were well patronized. A feature this year are artistically decorated booths where grant prizes on display.

Winner of the door prize Saturday night was Mr. Ray Dunn, 206 Dorchester Street, Charlottetown. The prize was a beautiful walnut mantle clock donated by Mr. S. T. Green.

This evening the bazaar will again be in full swing with a full program. A large attendance is assured, the hard-working committee in charge of arrangements declared over the week end.

Tri-Power Naval Agreement Reached

LONDON, June 5 (CP Havaas)—A three-power agreement raising naval tonnage limitation to 45,000 tons is expected to be announced in the House of Commons in about 10 days, it was indicated in reliable quarters tonight.

The agreement was reported reached among Great Britain, France and the United States at a meeting last Thursday attended by representatives of Paris and Washington with officials.

The raising of the tonnage would be in conformity with the "escalator clause" of the 1936 naval treaty.

"Sky Deserts" Claimed Sequel Of Cosmic Rays

NEW YORK, June 5 — A new theory which says there are great deserts in the sky, where matter shrivels up and blows away was formulated today by a world-famous scientist to explain the mystery of cosmic rays.

He is the arid stretches of the universe theorized Dr. Robert Millikan, of the California Institute of Technology, which give birth to the so-called "sky deserts" that bombard the earth. The "sky deserts" he beyond the stars, according to his concept. They are so barren that little if anything lives there.

On them, Dr. Millikan believes, life is impossible. They are so barren that little if anything lives there. The earth's bleached bones remain to tell the story, in the sky deserts only the cosmic rays are left and they fly off in all directions.

From this far-off birthplace the mysterious particles come crashing into the earth. They are so powerful, banging into atoms en masse and dashing them to bits.

Dr. Millikan's theory, based on experiments in which he has been working with one of Albert Einstein's famous equations, says that the particles are so powerful that they can penetrate the earth's atmosphere and produce cosmic radiation through the annihilation of atoms.

U. S. Socialist Is Routed From Park

NEWARK, June 5 (AP)—City Commissioner Joseph Byrne Jr., declared tonight Norman Thomas, Socialist leader who was barred from the park, would not be granted a permit to try outdoor speech making in Newark again.

Thomas, driven from Military Park Saturday night by about 100 men and a blaring brass band after his platform was smashed from under him, had demanded in a telegram to Mayor Meyer C. Heintz that he be "granted proceeding for another meeting at the park."

The director said Thomas attempted his speech last night under a routine permit granted the Essex County Socialist party. The three-times Socialist candidate for president was howled down by a mob of about 100 men who wore overseas caps and carried United States flags and placards assailing "red" rule. A shouting demonstration which sent one person to the hospital and resulted in four arrests.

Two Charged In Fake Hospital Sweep

BOSTON, June 4—Two New York men today heard a United States Government attorney charge they never intended to "pay off" in a $500,000 sweepstakes they allegedly offered to promote to aid a Quebec hospital.

Assistant United States Attorney Jackson J. Holtz told a Federal jury that Maurice Barach, of Albany, and Roy Hamlin, of Glen Falls, had publicized friends and relatives of the alleged sponsors of the sweepstakes as prize-winners.

One $400 winner, Holtz said was listed as "Greta Garbo".

As the trial opened, Joseph Gagne, of Rochester, N. Y., indicted with Barach and Hamlin, pleaded guilty to two counts of using the mails in a scheme to defraud.

Edwin J. Currier, of Montreal, the first witness, testified he printed the tickets and was paid with a $2,000 cheque but never received an additional $7,000 due him.

Federal agents had charged $5,000,000 tickets were printed and that thousands of them were sold at $1 each in New England.

Currier said he talked with Dr. Robert Pisset, of St. Paul's Hospital, Ste. Anne de Beauséjour, Quebec, about the printing. Pisset with four other Canadians, was indicted with the three New York men. The Government failed to extradite them, however.

HALIFAX, June 5 (CP)—Two men died in hospital here over the weekend from injuries received in two different dynamite blasts.

Reuben Cole, 70-year-old resident of Boutiller's Point, Halifax County, was fatally hurt when a charge of dynamite exploded prematurely on a farm near there Friday. Peter Reid, 37, a native of Norway who has been in Canada about 10 years, was the second. He was terribly injured in a blast on a highway paving project at Grand Lake, near here Saturday.

Preparations Underway For Road - paving

The two-year highway construction program in this province will soon be in full swing.

One plant has been erected at Vernon River where there is about an acre and a half of machinery, 15 cars including crusher, asphalt mixers and other equipment. This plant will serve for the work which is being done along the forty-nine road.

The asphalt will be mix'd at Vernon and the gravel will be crushed here. Gravel is being hauled from Surrey by trucks some of which are being used for the construction of base between the cross roads and Pownall, the sub-grading having been completed in that section.

During the year will be done from the cross roads to Pownall and sub-grading from the latter point to Vernon River. Laying of asphalt was expected to begin Tuesday.

Sub-grading has been finished from Montague to Stewart's Corner. The road from the latter point has been machined but not gravelled. It was expected that paving would be completed at Montague to Stewart's Corner and westward to Summerside this year.

The plant at Bedford on the St. Peter's road has almost been completed and work will likely begin in about a week's time. This year it was proposed to pave from Brockley Point road to Bedford and from Morell west to St. Andrew's a distance of about six miles. The section from Bedford to St. Andrew's will be sub-graded in preparation for paving next year.

In Prince County, the section from Inverness School West has received some preparatory work. The plant is already partially erected and the balance will arrive some time this week. The section from Summerside to Inverness is not yet started, but some work will be done there within a few days.

While paving is being carried out on the Lot Forty-nine road, the through traffic as far as possible will be diverted to Lot Forty-eight road, which the government proposes to put in good condition.

Maintenance throughout the province has been carried out but it has been interrupted somewhat by the recent dry weather. On the south side of the river there are about 150 men and 50 trucks at work.

It will establish very definitely with the cooperation of veterans' organizations, Ford said, "that an individual can give from a relatively small piece of land if he properly works it." A group of American Legionnaires have taken an interest in the present undertaking at Desborough and the forty-five farmers have named their community "Camp Legion."

RELIGIOUS SERVICES

ST. JAMES CHURCH

The necessity for faith and patience in living the Christian life as exemplified by Jesus Christ was stressed at the morning service of St. James Presbyterian Church by the Rev. T. Owen Hughes, B.A. The Minister speaking from the text St. Matthew 11:5, dwelt on the simplicity of Christ's earthly life. His unbounded love and interest in every human being be he rich or poor, great or lowly. The Minister pointed out the power of the mercy of God in the souls of men.

At the evening service the Rev. Mr. Hughes delivered an inspiring sermon from the text Genesis 1:1, "In the beginning God..."

The music at the morning service consisted of a solo "Fear Not (Handel)," by Miss Marguerite Cudmore, and the anthem "If Ye Love Me Keep My Commandments" (Stimpe).

At the evening service a duet, "Grant Us Thy Peace" (Verdi) was rendered by Mrs. J. A. Lawson and Mrs. N. D. MacLean.

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH

At the morning service in Trinity Church Rev. A. E. MacKenzie spoke on the subject: "Pentecost Power," using as his text words in Acts 1, verse 8: "Ye shall receive power after that, the Holy Ghost is come upon you."

After explaining the meaning of Pentecost as the name given to a solemn festival of the Jews, so called because celebrated fifty days after the second day of the Passover, and saying that now it means the day commemorating the descent of the Holy Spirit on the Apostles at Pentecost, Mr. MacKenzie quoted Dr. E. Stanley Jones as follows: "There was a time when the Christian church celebrated Pentecost, the anniversary of the coming of the Holy Spirit, more than did Christmas, the anniversary of the birth of Christ. Now Pentecost has largely dropped out. Did we find it easier to celebrate the birth of Christ than to celebrate Pentecost? Was it easier to comprehend the message of the world than it was for us to go with His message into the world? Did it cost less to give ourselves at Pentecost? Christmas is the festival of God with us—Pentecost is the festival of God in us?"

Pentecost is the birthday of the Christian Church. If Pentecost was necessary for the birth of the Church, is it not supremely necessary for its continued life?"

The speaker went on to suggest how we might prepare ourselves for the reception of the Holy Spirit to the relationship between the Holy Spirit and the Immanence of God, and to declare that it was important to realize that the Holy Spirit was available to all who were willing to give up their lives to Christ.

At the evening worship Rev. Mr. Miller preached on "The Church and Pentecost" from the text "Then return ye to Jerusalem from the Mount called Olivet, and when they were come in they went up into an upper room, the unity of the church, the church waiting on the Holy Spirit, the church waiting on the God-Controlled and God-guided church."

The choir gave a fine rendition of the anthem "I will Lift Up Mine Eyes" by J. Clarke Whitford. Miss Margaret Starnes sang "This is My Faith" and Mr. A. R. Kendall, L.R.A.M. presided at the organ.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH

Speaking at the morning service, the Rev. Harvey L. Denton, B. Th. B. D., took as his theme "Making Missions Matter." More than thirteen centuries ago Augustine and forty companions came to the rough islands where most of our forefathers dwelt in paganism, with the great programme of "conquering the world with a story" and so for us, they were the pioneers in making missions matter. To them we owe a debt that we can hardly repay.

Through the ages there have been followers like Carey, Mary Slessor, Livingstone, Grenfell whose ideal has been making missions matter.

There are still scores of people in all churches who look with little interest on this, so great a task. We shall make missions matter if through knowing all the facts, and realizing the need and responsibility we shall revitalize our interest. We shall make missions matter when we are seized of the value and greatness of the work that has been and is being done. We shall make missions matter when we have a definite conviction that through knowing all the facts, and realizing the need and responsibility we shall revitalize our interest in our lives and in our giving.

Miss Pearl Burns, contralto gave a beautiful rendering of "By the Waters of Babylon."

At the evening service Mr. Denton delivered an eloquent sermon on "One Man's Faith." The evening anthem was "Dudley Buck's 'O Be Joyful,' Miss V. M. Campbell sang effectively "The Old Rugged Cross."

The ordinance of the Lord's Supper was observed at the evening service.

The Church School had its

DETROIT, June 4—On a site of some 300 acres of land in near-by Dearborn, not far from the farm on which he was born nearly three-quarters of a century ago, Henry Ford has under way a "back-to-the-land" project which he hopes may become nationwide in scope and furnish the impetus for an "out-of-the-depression" movement in the United States.

"This is no mere experiment," Ford said today, shading his eyes with his hand to look far across the acres of small plants pushing up through soil cultivated by nearly three score needy youths. E. B. Ford said, the result of many experimental efforts carried on under his direction over a long period. There are wheat and beans and potatoes; radishes and melons—"every crop that will grow in this region."

Mr. Ford will establish very definitely with the cooperation of veterans' organizations, Ford said, "that an individual can give from a relatively small piece of land if he properly works it." A group of American Legionnaires have taken an interest in the present undertaking at Desborough and the forty-five farmers have named their community "Camp Legion."
