

SAVED HIS SON

From Constitutional Decline.

So many cases like this are coming to our attention for the benefit of fathers and mothers of weak, sickly ailing children in this vicinity we publish the following letter:— Mr. Richard Rush of Columbus, Ind., says: "I believe I am indebted to the value medicinal properties of Vinol for the health of my little son Dale. He had a severe attack of whooping cough and measles, which affected his lungs and general constitution. We tried several other remedies without benefit, then commenced using Vinol and I take pleasure in acknowledging my confidence in its restorative and reconstructive virtues, for my little son is the picture of health now, all due to the use of Vinol. This is because the child needed the strengthening cod liver elements and the tonic iron that Vinol contains. No oil, delicious taste. Children love it. We give back your money if Vinol does not do all we claim. E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore.

N. B. AND P. E. I. SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

MONCTON, Nov. 7.—This morning's session of the N. B. and P. E. I. Sunday School Association opened in the school room of the First Baptist Church of this city at 9 o'clock with an attendance of about 200.

Miss Mary Foster Bryner, of Chicago, gave a thirty minute conference on Story Telling. The four principal points in story telling are:—A short beginning; Action, Leading to a climax, and a short satisfactory ending. She recommended to the delegates a little book called "Story and Story Telling" by Prof. St. John.

Mrs. Bryner's morning talks are very much enjoyed by the delegates at the convention.

At 9.30 o'clock the meeting in the church was opened by Rev. Mr. Stolt of St. John, who conducted a short devotional and song service.

At 9.55 the minutes of the last two sessions were read and adopted. The report of the Superintendent of Education was submitted by Rev. J. B. Ganong, of Haverlock, as follows:—

I regard it a great pleasure and privilege, that in the Providence of God we are permitted to meet again in our annual convention. It was with great reluctance that I accepted the management of this work, at our last convention. The work is of such a character, that best results can be obtained only by personal contact with pastors and churches. This, of course, is impossible for one already more than busy with a multitude of other duties. What has been accomplished has been done chiefly through correspondence, the co-operation of our Field Secretary and others here and there who take an interest in this work.

The importance and value of this department is beginning to be more widely recognized than ever before, and it is most encouraging to note the splendid progress that is being made in the better training of our teachers.

SAYS JUNE TO BE MONTH OF SUICIDES.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—June is the suicide's favorite month, according to statistics prepared by Dr. S. H. Woodrow, pastor of the First Congregational church.

Dr. Woodrow declares that self-destruction almost never occurs in time of war or great public disaster. "Four men killed themselves of love, where one woman takes her life for the same reason," he asserts. And he adds, "It proves woman's good sense."

Dr. Woodrow says the remedy is a return to simpler living and advocated laws prohibiting all but police and members of the army and navy from owning or carrying weapons.

The Kidneys Are To Blame

WHEN A WOMAN'S BACK IS NOT STRONG.

Women are coming to understand that weak, lame and aching backs from which they suffer are due to wrong action of the kidneys.

The kidneys are overtaxed, given more work than they can possibly do—then they cry out in protest through the pain in the back.

When the back aches and pains it is almost impossible to do her housework, for every move and turn means pain.

On the first sign of backache Doan's Kidney Pills should be taken so as to avoid this suffering.

Mrs. Harvey W. Brownell, Northport, N.S., writes:—"I now take pleasure in writing you, stating the benefit I received by using Doan's Kidney Pills. About a year ago I was terribly afflicted with lame back, and was so bad at times I could not sweep my own floor. While looking through B. B. Almanac, I saw Doan's Kidney Pills were a great kidney remedy, so I bought a box or two. After using five boxes I was completely cured, and I am very thankful to have found so speedy a cure."

Price, 50 cents a box, 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. When ordering direct, specify "Doan's."

MARINE OFFICER MAKES INQUIRY

QUEBEC, Nov. 7.—The C. N. R. steamer Royal George is still on the rocks a mile east of Port St. Lawrence, on the north side of the south channel with five hundred steerage passengers and members of the crew aboard. The condition of the steamer is unchanged, with No. 2 hold full of water.

TAFT IS GOING BACK TO LAW.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 6.—President Taft will return to law when he leaves the White House, on March 4. He will come back here to his hometown, he said today and practice just enough law to make a living for himself and family.

Asked if he would be a candidate for a nomination by his party in 1916 President Taft replied: "Do you mean a contest between me and Wilson?"

He declared the Roosevelt vote would wreck the Republican party and that he would devote his energies to seeing that those who sought to return to the G. O. P. should show works meet for repentance, although not naming Colonel Roosevelt, President Taft declared the Bull Moose party to be the result of a few months of fomented enthusiasm.

The President's greatest aim, he said, would be to preserve the life of constitutional government. The Bull Moose party, he intimated, had served to tear apart the safeguards of liberty.

President Taft was smiling in the face of overwhelming defeat. He was under less strain than any member of the family party at the home of Charles P. Taft when the details of the Wilson landslide came in. Four years ago, in the same house, he received the news of his election.

PEOPLE'S THEATRE TONIGHT

A Sensational Three Reel Drama of the Sea, Containing one of the Most Thrilling Dynamite Explosions Imaginable, "The Wreck of The Aurora."

The plot revolves upon the financial difficulties of a large ship owner, it is further complicated by his son being in love with the daughter of the Captain of the "Aurora," which vessel is owned by the young man's father. The ship owner desires his son to marry a wealthy widow, in order to avert a financial crisis, but the son has already obligated himself, which puts that matter practically out of the question. The father's only resort lies in forgery, which he hopes to cover and make good before it can come to light.

In this action he makes a mistake, as the forgery very soon becomes known, and he is confronted by the banking authorities. At this point the son proves his loyalty to the family name by confessing the forgery, and assuming the responsibility, he is found guilty on his own confession, and sentenced to a term in prison.

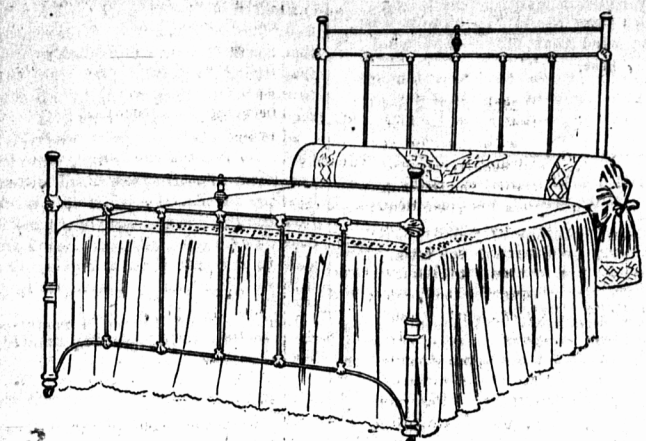

Shortly after this the father in desperation decides to send his vessel the "Aurora," on a voyage, and while enroute to have it sunk in order that he may collect the insurance money. The captain however refuses to sail with the vessel because of its unseaworthy condition, and resigns. The vessel owner then goes along the wharf and engages an unscrupulous sailor to captain the craft agreeing to give him 20 per cent of the insurance money.

The son at this time obtains a conditional pardon, the terms being that he leave the country, his ship as first mate to the "Aurora," his father's own vessel, the captain sustains fatal injuries and is buried at sea, the command of the ship automatically falls to the convict son, this of course means a miscarriage of the owners plans, but he is determined not to be thwarted. On the night that the vessel is due home a terrible storm is raging, the owner employs a crooked character to place a stick of dynamite in the lighthouse to the purpose that his own vessel be wrecked.

The vessel is wrecked in the storm, the life saving crew get into action, the ship owner learns that the lighthouse is wrecked and the vessel as well, but he also learns that his son is on the ship, this is more than he can bear, and he becomes a suicide. But the son is saved, and returns home safely, where his name is soon cleared of the charge of forgery and shortly after he marries the captain's daughter.

HEAVY DEMAND FOR WHEAT. OTTAWA, Nov. 6.—The weekly report of the Department of Trade and Commerce contains figures which go to show that the demand for wheat this year will be unusually heavy. Great Britain alone will need to import 25,000,000 bushels more than she did last year, the harvest having been a failure. Germany, the Netherlands, Italy, Spain, and Portugal, Scandinavia and Switzerland all will need more wheat this year than last and the total of additional requirements amounts up to 92,000,000 bushels for the wheat producing countries to supply. LURED FOUR TO DEATH. MONTREAL, Nov. 6.—Montreal has rarely been privileged to entertain so distinguished a visitor as Dr. H. B. Craig of Manchester, England, who arrived from the West on his way home from an extensive pleasure trip. Dr. Craig is the sole remaining member of that famous party of five young Englishmen who conveyed the mummy of the Priestess of Amen-Ra from Egypt to England in the fall of 1884. He alone has managed to escape the hoodoo which has pursued those who have had anything to do with the faithful relic of ancient Egypt. The story that Dr. Craig told The Herald was of the kind to sustain belief in them. Magazines and newspapers have exhausted their imaginative powers in describing the mummy and its history but none of them have given an accurate account of the fate of the original party. Two brothers of mine were senior members he said. One of these was accidentally shot before the boat reached England, the other was crippled for life in a runaway. The third member of the party was an American by the name of Brown, who met a long series of financial reverses and died broke-hearted just three years after transporting the mummy. As for those who had to do with the mummy in England, there is nothing but one long tale of disaster. The man who drove the cart that conveyed the mummy to the museum died mysteriously on the following day, and another who helped carry it into the museum had both his legs cut off in a carriage accident. The first man to photograph the dead object fell and broke his machine and, hurt his face dangerously and to cap the climax the newspaper man that wrote about it was drowned the next week. Now all this may be mere coincidence, but I am inclined to believe differently because I have read the matter and I don't actually have seen it. I think that there is a haunting the strange condition has it that the Priestess was a mystic who enjoyed ordinary powers of second sight.
