MILLER BROS 123 Kent St Charlottetown

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

On the afternoon of Dec. 3rd a well attended meeting of the Long River congregation assembled in the church to say farewell to Rev. A. D. and Mrs. Sterling, prior to their leaving for Scotsburn, N. S.

Rev. John Murray opened the meeting with devotional exercises, after which he spoke of the translation of Mr. Sterling to another field of labor. He was followed by Rev. E. J. Rattee, John Johnstone and Samuel Bernard, who all spoke highly of the good work done by the retiring pastor.

The chairman then called on C. S. McKay to read the address, which follows. At the proper time William Ramsay, treasurer of the congregation, came forward and presented Mr. Sterling with a well filled purse.

Mr. Sterling, the ladies of Long River also presented her with a purse. Reverend and Dear Sir:—On the eve of your departure from our midst to take up the work of your chosen profession in a neighboring Province, we, the members and adherents of Long River section of the congregation take this opportunity of expressing our regret at the loss we realize we are sustaining by your removal and our warmest wishes for the past six years had bound us together as pastor and people.

By your removal the temperance cause in this place is losing one of its enthusiastic workers. The interest you have manifested along these lines for the better enforcement of our laws and the stamping out of this giant evil which has long been the curse of our land will long be remembered by those who have the temperance cause at heart.

In a word, you have been willing to take an active part in everything which had for its object the upbuilding of the community and the good of humanity.

To you, Mrs. Sterling and the other members of your family, we extend our best wishes and bid a kind farewell, and trust that in your new field of labor you may enjoy a full measure of usefulness, success and happiness.

Be assured that you carry with you our prayers that in the future, as in the past, your efforts for the extension of the Redeemer's Kingdom may be richly rewarded. And when life's work is ended may the souls you have won for the Master through faithful service shine as bright stars in your crown; and at last may you receive the "Well done, good and faithful servant, thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

In conclusion, we kindly ask you to accept this gift as a small token of the esteem with which we shall ever regard you.

Signed—John Johnstone, William Ramsay, Andrew McLeod, Jas. Gillespie, members of session; George McLeod, Wellington Paynter, Samuel Bernard, in behalf of Board of Managers. $21,000 FOR THE STRIKERS AT SPRINGHILL

AMHERST, Dec. 16.—M. J. Butler, manager of the Dominion Coal and Iron and Steel company, and Hector McInnis, the newly elected vice-president of Cumberland Coal and Railway company, who are now inspecting the Springhill properties, went to Parrsboro today to view the terminal facilities of the company at that point. They returned to Springhill this afternoon.

The strikers anticipated that Mr. Butler would ask for a conference with the men, but so far as the Herald can learn has given no indication of a desire to meet them.

A cheque for $21,000 arrived in Springhill this week from the headquarters of the U. M. W., in Indianapolis and as rather a peculiar coincidence a double indemnity order was issued on the same day by this week as the polling took place for election of executive officers. For over a week past, picketings have been going on in a most active and demonstrative fashion. Hundreds of men and many women will line the sides of the streets and jeer and hoot at the strikebreakers. Arrests are being made daily, some of the parties tried before the magistrate in Springhill, while others are brought to Amherst. The feeling in town is growing more bitter and more intense and difficult to understand how present conditions can continue longer without more serious trouble arising.

We feel we cannot allow you to depart without conveying to you in some manner our appreciation of the valuable services you have rendered and the work you have so nobly performed during your pastorate in this portion of the Master's vineyard.

In the high and noble calling which you have chosen as your life-work you have been faithful in the discharge of duty and in a marked degree you have, by precept as well as by example, set forth a high standard of Christian living.

In the pulpit you have always been fearless in declaring the whole counsel of God. Your sermons have been of a high order, forceful and edifying—well calculated to promote the spiritual welfare of those over whom you labored in the Lord. That your work has been owned and blessed by God is evidenced by the fact that scores of our people have been led to a higher and better life and many are active workers in the Church of Jesus Christ.

By your removal the temperance cause in this place is losing one of its enthusiastic workers. The interest you have manifested along these lines for the better enforcement of our laws and the stamping out of this giant evil which has long been the curse of our land will long be remembered by those who have the temperance cause at heart.
