REV. DR. HEARTZ—Rev. Dr. Heartz, of Amherst, veteran minister of the former Methodist Church who more than 60 years ago was pastor of the Exmouth street church in Saint John, was in the city Sunday and was the preacher in the Queen Square United church in the evening. He gave a very helpful sermon on the theme "Looking to Jesus."—St. John Telegraph Journal.

DUNSTAFFAGE—The Pastime Club met at the home of Mr. Herbert Thompson on Saturday evening April 17th. Quite a large number were present and a good time was enjoyed by all. The following program was carried out:—Contest, Manye Vessey; Reading, Ernest Foster; Contest, John Thompson; Violin Music, George Dwyer. Lunch was then served by the hostess and the remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent in games. The singing of the National Anthem brought the meeting to a close.—The "Sing Song" was held at the home of John A. Stewart on Sunday evening, a large number attended.—D.

LECTURE AT KELLY'S CROSS.

There was a "full house" at Kelly's Cross on the night of the 5th inst. to great Rev. Dr. W. E. Monaghan, who is one of the natives of this parish, which on this occasion received a rare treat in the form of a beautiful recital of his varied experiences in his recent trip to Rome and other famous centres in the Old World. Father Monaghan used no aids to memory in the shape of notes, but, as he said "could talk for a week on the trip". During the hour or more occupied by the "talk" the proverbial pin could be heard to drop, so intense was the interest and so closely did the audience stay with him in his itinerary. At the close a vote of thanks proposed by M. A. Smith and seconded by Edward Carragher was tendered the Rev. lecturer by the chairman, James P. Tait. There was, in addition to the lecture, a very interesting program of musical and literary numbers including a comedy farce, entitled "Punkin Patch" which was creditably staged by amateurs (every one making his and her debut), and two readings given very acceptably by Mr. George E. Waddell. The entertainment concluded with the National Anthem.

FUNERAL SERVICES

The remains of the late Rev. J. C. McMillan, D. D., were removed from the Sacred Heart Home yesterday morning to St. Dunstan's Cathedral where a Solemn High Mass of Requiem was assisted by Rev. J. J. McDonald, Summerside, Deacon; Rev. G. J. McEllan, Tignish, Sub Deacon; Rev. A. J. McIntyre, Master of Ceremonies, His Lordship, Bishop O'Leary, Rev. Martin Monaghan, John A. McDonald, P. Walsh, Reginald McDonald, and Joseph Gallant occupying seats in the sanctuary. The remains lay in state in the Sanctuary until 2.30 when the funeral services were held by the Right Reverend Monsignor McLean, V. G., assisted by Rev. J. J. McDonald, Rev. G. J. McEllan, Rev. A. J. McIntyre, while the Choir under the direction of Mr. W. J. Brown, Chanted the Libera, the funeral cortege leaving the Cathedral at 2.40 for the station en route to Cardigan. The pall bearers were: Messrs. Michael Moran, J. M. Hughes, Sextus McEllan, Simon P. McPhoe, W. E. Moran, and Hon. Right Rev. Monsignor McLean. Monsignor Maurice McDonald, Rev. John A. McDonald, Rev. Malpeque

The marriage of Miss Grace MacGougan Malpeque daughter of the late Mr. Robert MacGougan and Mr. Keith Donald son of the late Mr. Colin Donald, Sea View, was solemnized at high noon on Wednesday April 14th by the Rev. E. H. Ramsay, D. D., Associate pastor of Trinity United Church, Charlottetown at the officiating clergyman's residence. The young couple were attended by Miss Millicent MacNutt, Darnley cousin of the bride and Mr. Pope Beer Charlottetown. The bride was becomingly attired in a cocoa brown charming costume with squirrel trimmings and hat to match. The bride and groom returned to Malpeque by the afternoon train to the home of the bride's mother where a real reception was given them. There were in attendance the immediate relatives of the couple and their share by their presence. The evening was a pleasant one and the joy of the occasion was fully entered into by the members of the little company in attendance. The capability of the hostess in providing the necessary and daintily served and delicious repast is recognized. The young couple left on Saturday morning followed by the warmest wishes of all who have their acquaintance. There is nothing more satisfying to follow our young people along a sunny prosperous road in life, and to note with interest their progress.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. V. Dunbar left yesterday on a week's visit to St. John, N. B.

Friends of Mr. Ray Brown, formerly of New London, now of Lexington, Mass., will regret to learn that he had to undergo a serious operation for appendicitis. He is at the Symmes Hospital, Arlington, and is making a good recovery.

Are there going to be any regrets to-morrow about that good meal you're all set to stow away tonight. Better take Seigel's Syrup. Any drug store.

Splendid Concert In North River Hall

In North River Hall on Friday evening last, the delightful three act comedy "Adventures of Grandpa" was capably presented to a large audience by the North River Senior Dramatic Club.

Comedy predominated, and from the rising of the curtain to the finale the play afforded much mirth.

Cast of Characters:—
Monte Ray—Grandpa's grandson
—Mr. Bruce McKinley.
—Mr. F. Hunter—A young dancing master—Mr. Fulton Moreside.
—Miss Hammerhead—Grandpa—Mrs. Andrew McEachern.
—McCormack—Irish Cop, who saw his duty and did it—Mr. Francis Cass.
—Lucy Hunter—Tod's wife—Miss Grace Dockendorff.
—Dorothy May—Just out of College—Miss Teresa Cass.
—Mrs. Pansy Hopscotch—Fair, fat and forty—Mr. Harold Worth.
—Marie Ribeau—Girl from Paris—Mrs. Andrew McEachern.
—Kloompay—Norwegian maid—Miss Evelyn Cass.
—Stage Director—Mr. George Cass.
—Mr. Andrew McEachern gave an admirable interpretation of "Grandpa," and is entitled to much praise for his clever acting.

Mr. Bruce McKinley in the role of Monte Ray, Grandpa's grandson showed poise and natural ease, and played his part in most excellent style.

Miss Teresa Cass, playing opposite Mr. McKinley, was quite at home in the role of Dorothy May, just out of college and her performance was all the more creditable from the fact that she was called upon to substitute only a day previous.

Mrs. Andrew McEachern was very attractive in the part of Marie Ribeau, the girl from Paris, and proved herself an ideal dancing teacher winning her way into the hearts of her pupils.

Mr. Fulton Moreside, taking the part of Tod Hunter, a young dancing master, is to be commended on his clever acting.

Miss Grace Dockendorff, as Tod's wife, was a favorite, showing composure and perfect control throughout her entire part.

Mr. Francis Cass who portrayed the part of McCormack, as Irish Cop who saw his duty and did it, gave a very clever impersonation of his role, acting his part naturally and expressively.

Mr. Harold Worth, in the difficult role of Mrs. Pansy Hopscotch, made a reputation for himself as a clever comedian, and his impersonation of the newly rich Mrs. Hopscotch provided much mirth and elicited continuous applause from the audience.

Miss Evelyn Cass, effectively impersonated Kloompay, a Norwegian maid, and her acting left nothing to be desired.

The North River Orchestra rendered excellent selections throughout the evening.

Between the second and last act a vocal solo by Mr. Harold Worth was heartily encored.

Homemade candy was sold during the performance by the Women's Institute of North River. "God Save the King" sung by the audience led by the Club brought a very enjoyable evening to a close.

In Memoriam

MRS. W. E. McNEVIN.

The body of the late Mrs. W. E. McNevin, who died in Medicine Hat Hospital, Alta., accompanied by her husband, arrived in Tyne Valley, Thursday April 15th.

Mrs. McNevin was formerly Lyla Sheen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Sheen, and was widely known, having been a valued employee of Messrs. Sinclair & Stewart, Summerside.

Mrs. McNevin was 36 years of age, and lost her husband, her mother and father, one sister Eliza, with Messrs. Turners Ltd. O'Leary, and brother Nelson at home. To all of whom the sincerest sympathy is extended in their loss.

The funeral which was one of the largest ever attended in Tyne Valley, took place at the home, with a short service conducted by the Rev. Mr. Martin, assisted by Mr. Harold Dance, from which place the cortege proceeded to the Presbyterian Church where a very impressive service was held. The choir of the Presbyterian Church assisted with the music.

The pallbearers were school chums of the deceased, and were the Messrs. John Ross, Spry, Ramsay; Wilfred McDougald; Edson Williams; Cecil Forbes; and Burton Boates.

The many beautiful floral tributes testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held both here and in the West.

THE LATE OLGA McDONALD. (A Tribute.)

In the passing of Miss Olga McDonald, Montague has lost one of its most intelligent and talented young ladies. A girl of a kind and cheerful disposition, dearly beloved and highly respected. In her brief life she had made many friends, for she was a general favorite with old and young. She has left behind her a memory that will be cherished by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance; for to know Olga was to love her.

Her departure to the Great Beyond on March 17th cast a gloom of sadness over the town and surrounding country, and was a great shock to all her friends.

Although she had been ill for some time past it was thought that before long she would regain her usual health, but medical skill and skilful nursing proved of no avail, and the dear one passed away to be at rest.

She leaves to mourn a devoted mother, widow of the late Norman McDonald, and two brothers, James of Charlottetown, and Maynard of Montague; also a large circle of relatives and friends.

The funeral was held from her late home on March 19th. The services were conducted by Rev. C. E. Armstrong, assisted by Rev. John Stirling. The pallbearers were W. D. Johnston, E. J. Kerr, C. C. Thompson, George McIntyre, L. B. McElhan, and Harry McGregor.

Many and beautiful were the floral tributes, a list of which was already published in these columns, month of March. Interment took place in Lower Montague cemetery.

The flowers that are placed upon her grave,
May wither and decay,
But love for her who sleeps beneath,
Shall never fade away.

Thousands of women are enthusiastic about Bon Ami Powder. They like it because this soft, scratchless cleanser saves them time and work in a new and convenient way.

In their letters, they tell us they use Bon Ami Powder for the big cleaning jobs. Pots and pans of aluminium, copper, agate, and tin, refrigerators, bathtubs—and many other things are made spotless in a twinkling.

Of course they also use their old friend—the convenient, economical Bon Ami Cake—for windows, mirrors, painted woodwork, etc.

Bon Ami, whether Cake or Powder, is fine and delicate. It doesn't scratch off the dirt and grime, but simply blots it up with a minimum of effort on your part. And it never makes the hands red or rough.

When your boy is as big as you are, your Frost Fence will still be tight and strong

EVERY parent wants to build in a way that will be lasting and an example to his growing family. Nothing will fulfil this excellent desire more than Frost Fence erected on your farm.

The history of our growth and expansion during the past 25 years, is the best proof we can offer, of our success in giving the Canadian Farmer a satisfactory fence.

The large organization of Frost Dealers, carrying stocks for your inspection, is one big reason why fence, at to-day's prices, is one of the cheapest necessities that the farmer buys. Frost Fence has given, and continues to give, the satisfaction demanded of it, and it will be our endeavor to not only keep the reputation gained but make it even better.

As we grow older, we plan, with new ideas and new modern methods to make Frost Fence keep that youthful strength, which means years of extra service—lasting from one generation to the next.
