

DOMINION DAY ENTERTAINMENT AT VERNON RIVER

Well Diversified and Pleading.

On the evening of July 1st, the four-act comedy drama entitled "Lena Rivers" was staged to a capacity audience in the C. M. B. A. Hall at Vernon River, under the auspices of the Teachers' Club of Ugg.

From the opening remarks by the president of the Club, Mr. Alex. Matheson, to the singing of the National Anthem, not one dull moment punctuated an evening overflowing with entertainment of a high class order.

The story was particularly appealing in its old New England and Southern atmosphere, and an admirable vehicle for the display of the talents, and that grace which characterized the different performers.

Lena, the heroine of the story, was impersonated by Miss Ethel Hynes, teacher at Vernon River. Her splendid interpretation, natural movements and graceful stage movements were pleasing features of Miss Hynes' very important role.

As teachers in our school you have done faithful and efficient work. You have also given an active and valuable support to every measure tending to advance the welfare of the community. It is a matter of deep regret that young people of your ability and splendid character to find it necessary to leave this Province for another country.

Mr. Cecil J. Devereaux and Miss Emma Holmes, who conducted the East Royalty school for the past two years, were tendered a farewell reception by the Ladies of the East Royalty Institute, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McNevin, on the evening of Thursday, July 8th.

FAREWELL RECEPTION.

Mr. Cecil J. Devereaux and Miss Emma Holmes, who conducted the East Royalty school for the past two years, were tendered a farewell reception by the Ladies of the East Royalty Institute, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McNevin, on the evening of Thursday, July 8th.

A vote of thanks was tendered the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. McNevin, for the excellent way in which they conducted the evening entertainment. The following is the address:

To Mr. Cecil J. Devereaux and Miss Emma Holmes, Dear Friends,—As you are soon to leave this province for the United States, we, the members of the Women's Institute and Ratopey of East Royalty school district, take this opportunity of bidding you farewell and expressing appreciation of your worth and work while in our midst.

A NOTED PREACHER TO BE AW SACKVILLE.

Dr. F. W. Norwood of the City Temple, London, England is a very enthusiastic supporter of the League of Nations Union. He plans to be in Canada the greater part of the summer, and in October will begin an extensive campaign under its auspices. His itinerary has not yet been completed but he will be in Sackville at the Summer Conference between August 16th and 27th. Everyone who possibly can should plan to hear this preacher of world wide fame.

CALEDONIA.

The Communion services will be held at the Caledonia Presbyterian Church on Sunday, July 18th, at 11 o'clock. Preparatory services will be held on Thursday, Friday and Saturday mornings at 11 o'clock and on Thursday and Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. And Thanksgiving services will be held on Sunday evening at seven and Monday morning at 11 o'clock. The Rev. Bruce Muir from the St. James Church, Charlottetown will preach on Thursday evening and Friday morning. Mr. Howie, student pastor of Belfast on Friday evening and Mr. Staver will conduct the services on Saturday morning and dispense the Sacrament on Sunday morning. Mr. McDowell, the student pastor at Caledonia will lead the thanksgiving services. All are welcome.

GIRL'S CAMP

The Girl's Camp at Canoe Cove under the auspices of the P. E. I. Girl's Work Board is set up ready for the arrival of the forty seven girls registered. Miss Marjorie Trotter, Maritime Girls' Work Secretary who is to serve as camp director, arrived in Charlottetown Monday night, as the guest of Mrs. W. M. Rowe, and has gone on to the camp with the staff of officers. Victoria day will be observed on Wednesday, the 21st, from 2:45 p. m. and it is hoped that many relatives and friends will visit the camp that day, when a program of dramatics and sports will be given between two and five. Friends are urged to respect the camp program which is fully organized and would be interfered with by the presence of visitors on other than the regular visitors' day.

MINARD'S "KING OF PAIN" LINIMENT

She doesn't know how you do it!

You feel a little embarrassed and sorry for her. She looks so admiring and helpless, so envious, and so—so—ineffective!

Her clothes are always so bad, poor little thing. And she pays too much for them. Her home is furnished with all the wrong things. She seems to have a genius for wasting money. When she goes out to buy anything, soap or silverware, or lingerie or lamps, she's sure to turn up with something nobody ever heard of before and doesn't want to hear of again.

She is that eager, but not very bright, little woman who, "my dear, doesn't ever read advertisements." Who doesn't know what to buy, or where to find it, or what to pay for it. Who doesn't know values and can't compare them. Who doesn't know that when a new style, or a new convenience, or a new anything arrives, one sees it first in the advertisements.

One really gets a little vexed with her— But let's not waste too much time on her. It's about time for you, dear lady, to have your daily look through the advertisements.

Tell your friends not to overlook the advertisements.
