

Detroit Tigers Split Twin Bill With Yankees At N. Y. Over Week-End

By The Canadian Press
Outfielder Pat Mullin got off the bench Sunday to slam three homers and lead Detroit Tigers to a 12-4 victory over New York Yankees and a split in a twin bill. The Yanks, still leading the American League by a comfortable margin, won the opener 6-2.

More than 60,000 Yankee Stadium fans saw the Tigers knock out Yankee ace Vic Raschi and hang the record defeat of the season on the right-hander. Lee Grissom started for Detroit but he was relieved in the third by Freddie Hutchinson.

Mullin, who had not connected for a four-master until today, became the first American League to wallop three circuit blows in a single game this year and drove in five runs as the Berzals ended Raschi's seven-game winning streak.

Raschi hurled the first two rounds, giving the Tigers six runs on seven of their 14 hits. Mullin in the line-up only because of Johnny Groth's batting slump which carried through the opener, his first homer with one on in the first.

Tommy Henrich touched Marvin Grissom, making his first start for two Yankee tallies in the first with his 16th homer.

Cleveland Indians, behind the five-hit pitching of Steve Gromek, produced two 10th-inning runs to beat Washington Senators 3-1.

Gronke, who held the Senators to only one hit in the last five innings, edged Sid Hudson in a pitching duel.

Hudson invited trouble when he walked Ray Boone to open the 10th. Mickey Vernon sacrificed and Larry Doby was purposely passed. Joe Gordon flied out, but Ken Keltner shot a single past third-baseman Sherry Robertson to score Boone. Bob Kennedy then doubled off second-baseman Al Kozar's glove to score Doby.

For the fourth time in as many games, Boston Red Sox whipped St. Louis, this time by a 5-3 score as left-hander Chuck Stobbs scored his second major league decision.

All of the Browns' runs came on homers. Willy Platt batted his third of the season in the sixth with the batsy empty to give the visitors a temporary 1-1 tie, and Sperm Lollar slammed his fourth of the campaign in the ninth with a mate aboard.

The Sox wrapped up the game in the sixth when they scored three runs as Matt Batts doubled home two of them.

In the four game series they scored 45 runs and made 66 hits against the Browns.

Chicago White Sox split a doubleheader with Philadelphia, winning the second game 3-0 after the A's came from behind in the opener to clinch a 4-2 victory.

Willy Moses slammed a pinch-hit double in the eighth inning of the first game to drive in three runs.

Vics And Kinsmen Scheduled To Play Tonight

Tonight the Vics and Kinsmen tangle in a postponed game of the Junior League. The game tonight was made possible when the weatherman failed to behave for the two Junior teams during the past week.

For the Vics their hurler will likely be Junior MacLeod, while Garth Crockett will likely be on the mound for the third place Kinsmen crew. MacLeod has a loss chalked up to him as he lost a four-hit ball game to the leading K. of C. team in his initial outing. Crockett has a 1-1 record as he beat the Knights and then lost to the same team.

Tonight's game should be a natural as the Vics walloped the Kinsmen in their last meeting. The Vics will be out to make it three in a row over the last place team in the League while the Kinsmen will be out to score their first win of the season over the Victoria squad.

If old "Jups" Fluvius is on good behaviour the game will get under way at 6:45 and a large crowd is expected to sit in on the encounter.

SPORTING NEWS

THE GUARDIAN, CHARLOTTETOWN JUNE 27, 1949

The rainy weather that hampered all phases of outdoor sport all week, continued on over the weekend to plague the activities planned in baseball, tennis, tennis, etc. and made it an unattractive one for sporting fans as well as for those planning visits to the seashore or a quiet Sunday in the country.

Local golfers were the only ones to run off their competitions as planned, when they turned out to the Belvedere Course on Saturday afternoon to complete their third and final round of the MacKinnon Cup play, despite the unfavourable weather conditions. Don MacMillan came through the winner with a total of 22 points on the three-stage competition, with Doug Pierce and Don MacDonald placing second and third respectively with 19 and 17.

In baseball locally, the Junior (11) scheduled for Memorial Field between the Victorias and the Kinsmen on Sunday afternoon was postponed until tonight, while in the senior ranks the twin-bill in the Island Baseball League scheduled for Summerside yesterday was also postponed. This makes the second postponement of the senior clashes which would have featured the Curran and Briggs and R.C.A.F. squads in the first tilt and Abbes and the C and B nine in the second. It was not decided last night whether the Island League will follow its regular schedule at Summerside Wednesday and play the postponed tilts at a later date or vice versa. The regular schedule calls for Curran and Briggs at R.C.A.F. and Abbes at R.C.A.F.

Although local race fans were looking forward to a big night Saturday when six fast classes were scheduled to go to the wire in Provincial Exhibition Association and the Charlottetown Driving Park, this too had to be shelved on account of the weather. The event which was scheduled for Saturday night and despite the present disappointment of the fans, they will see probably an even bigger and better card of racing then, with local horse owners getting the benefit of a few extra days of training with their speedy champions. The Saturday afternoon matinee race card at Sunny Acres at Springfield was also rained out until Wednesday.

In tennis circles, although there were no scheduled matches planned, the large number of enthusiasts who turn out regularly at the various club courts during the week-end were also robbed of their favourite pastime and had to settle for other activities for the time being.

"Jersey Joe Walcott, beaten by Ezzard Charles in the N.B.A.'s version of the world's heavy-weight championship last Wednesday night, can quit any time now," quotes Ivan (Hamilton Spectator) Miller in his recent comments on the scrap.

Quoting Miller further he states: "Ofhand, we can think of few fighters who have had the breaks that fell to Walcott, never a great fighter, and when Jersey Joe came out of last night's battle complaining that Charles defeated him with 'snaky punches' he demonstrated he is no longer deserving of those breaks for which many a fighter would give his left arm."

"Jersey Joe took a lot of hay out of that fight. His squawks were retelling the referee and others and, from all accounts, it appears that Charles simply defeated him on merit through the late rounds after Walcott had missed his chances for an early knockout."

"It ill becomes a defeated fighter to pass the buck, or sibli himself for failure to make a good showing. Walcott didn't have to show too much to beat a fighter of Charles' calibre, but he couldn't dig up that much and when beaten, he could at least have taken the defeat gracefully, as well as his end of the purse, which indicated he was probably overpaid."

"In any event, Charles is now the N.B.A. champion, but he is a long way removed from his predecessor and future fights of that description will probably draw a lot less than Wednesday night's scrap."

Brooklyn Dodgers Win From Floundering Pirates

(Canadian Press)
Aided by 10-rin outburst in the seventh, the hot-as-the-weather Brooklyn Dodgers Sunday trampled the floundering Pirates 15-3 in the first game of a scheduled National League doubleheader. The second game, delayed 42 minutes by rain was called at the end of the third because of Pennsylvania's Sunday curfew. The Dodgers were ahead 5-4.

The largest crowd of the season—39,548—sweltered in humid 91-degree heat that was unrelieved by the intermittent showers.

Red Munger pitched his first shutout of the season and slammed out the first home run of his major-league career to give St. Louis Cardinals a 2-0 victory over Boston.

New York salvaged the final contest of a three-game series when they defeated Chicago Cubs 6-2. Dave Koslo went the route for the Giants, allowing seven hits for his third victory. All of the Giants save Bobby Thomson cut in on an 11-hit attack on Dutch Leonard, Walt Tubel and Bob Muncieff.

Johnny Mize singled across the first New York run in the third and then doubled and scored on Sid Gordon's single in the fifth. Three errors mixed with only one hit staked the Giants two more runs in the sixth and they concluded with another pair off Muncieff in the ninth.

Cincinnati Reds swept a double header from the onrushing Philadelphia Phils 4-3 in 10 innings and 5-4 in 10. Howells' pinch-hit double won the opener for the Reds and Herman Wehmeier, giving Cincinnati its first complete pitching performance in seven games, set the ninth an invitation to win the nightcap.

Don MacMillan Wins MacKinnon Cup Competition

As the result of the third and final stage of the MacKinnon Cup competitions of the Charlottetown Golf Club held at the Belvedere links on Saturday afternoon, Don MacMillan copped off the title with a total of 22 points on the three-stage tourney. Doug Pierce placed second with 19, Don MacDonald third with 17 and Harry MacInnis fourth with 15 points.

Don MacMillan shot a 85 in the final round to give him a net 74 to win out for top honors with three points over his nearest competitor in the three-stage event.

Amherst Enters Maritime Senior Hockey League

MONCTON, N.B., June 26—(CP)—Amherst Ramblers, last year in the Central Senior Hockey League, Saturday were granted a franchise in the Maritime Senior Hockey League at a league meeting here.

Addition of Amherst transforms the loop into a five-team circuit but there is still a possibility that Dartmouth, which was not represented at the meeting, may drop out of the running unless they have their own rink completed in time.

Other clubs represented at the meeting were Saint John Beavers, Moncton Hawks and Halifax St. Mary's, defending titlist.

Dartmouth may attempt to secure other ice if its own rink, which it is planning to begin this summer, is not completed in time for the 1949-50 season. Last year it operated out of the Halifax Forum but it was said the two-team drag on Halifax made it impractical to continue.

The next meeting, slated for some time in August, will be held at Amherst.

Rochon Singles Tennis Champ Of Ontario

TORONTO, June 26—(CP)—Henri Rochon of Montreal, today is the singles tennis champion of Ontario.

He won the title as he defeated fellow-Montrealer Jack Spencer today 6-4, 6-2, yesterday in the finals of the Ontario tennis championships.

Spencer was unseeded in the tournament but his showing may give him an invitation to the Canadian Davis Cup trials.

The women's singles title went to Pat Macken, also of Montreal. Miss Macken, still under doctor's care after collapsing on the court Friday, from heat and exhaustion, was extended to defeat fellow club-member Elaine Filides, 6-4, 3-6, 6-4.

The women's doubles events from Mrs. Louise Brown and Dorothy Hurst of Toronto 6-4, 4-6, 10-8.

Rochon joined forces with George Robinson of Montreal to take the men's doubles over Beau Summers and Mel Jones of Toronto 6-4, 7-5, 6-3.

Elaine Filides combined with Jim Foy, Montreal, to nose out Mrs. Louise Brown and Don Platt of Toronto for the mixed doubles honors.

Sport Briefs

TOKYO, June 26—(AP)—Japan's swimming ace, Konoshin Furuhashi, claimed an 800-meter freestyle record of 9 minutes, 45.6 seconds today.

The recognized world's record in nine minutes, 50.9 seconds set by Bill Smith of Honolulu in 1941.

Furuhashi was clocked in 9 minutes, 45.6 seconds, June 14, but could make no record claim because Japan was not then admitted to the International Amateur Swimming Federation.

NEWARK, N. J., June 26—(AP)—The Newark "Star-Ledger" announced Saturday it is dropping Newark Bears baseball team from the International League standing on its sports pages "because they obviously do not belong in triple A competition."

The newspaper said the Bears "are 1-2 games out of first place and have an excellent chance to lose 100 games before the season is completed."

Arkansas Golfer Wins Canadian Open Ch'ship

By W. R. WHEATLEY
TORONTO, June 26—(CP)—Dutch Harrison, the smiling giant from Arkansas, won the Canadian open golf championship Saturday by the simple process of monotonously clipping strokes off par. Harrison, who admits his front name is Ernest and proudly calls Little Rock his home, shot 271 for the 72 holes over Toronto's St. George's course.

Harrison was an easy winner of the $2,000 top prize money and the Seagram gold cup.

For the full distance, he was 17 strokes under par and four better than Jim Ferrier of Chicago. Ferrer, with a course-record 65 on his last round, finished with 275 for second prize money of $1,400.

The best display by a Canadian was that of Bill Kerr of Montreal who ended up in a three-way tie at 277 for third place and won low-score honors among Canadians by an eight-stroke margin.

Kerr put the final touches to a consistent sub-par display with a sensational eagle three at the 480-yard par-five 17th hole.

Low amateur honors went to Nick Welock of Detroit, whose home course is the Essex County Club at Windsor, Ont. Welock 40 finished in 287. He was seven strokes ahead of his nearest amateur rival, Gerry Kesselring, now 23, is a former Canadian junior champion.

Bracketed with Kerr at 277 were Fred Hawkins of Antioch, Ill., and Jim Turnesa of Elmford, N.Y.

Dick Metz of Virginia Beach, Va., closest to Harrison by three strokes at the start of the final round, couldn't match Big Dutch's tied with Skip Alexander of Lexington, N.C.

Metz, a pre-tournament favorite who obliged by firing three successive rounds of 69, went to the ninth hole Saturday before catching his first birdie of the last round.

He messed up his third shot at the long 17th by misjudging the lie of his ball.

Jim Barber of Los Angeles finished with 278, one stroke better than Chuck Congdon of Tacoma, Wash., the defending champion.

St. George's layout of 6,643 yards tossed one sun-parched fairway after another at the west coast professional, used to far more luxuriant growth on his between-green tours.

Harrison, 39 years old and long a reformed southpaw, fired from the starboard side for four par-busting rounds of 66, 67, 71 and 67.

Working on a three-stroke margin Saturday, Harrison calmly shot a four-under-par 31 on the first nine and was practically home free.

Joe O'Brien Drives Indian Land Fast Mile At Westbury

WESTBURY, N.Y., June 26—(AP)—Indian Land Saturday night came within four-fifths of a second of matching the track record in winning the $5,000 Ohio mile pace in 2:01 4-5.

The record of 2:01 flat is held by Direct Express.

Indian Land was taken out in front at the first turn by driver Joe O'Brien and sent across the wire a length in front of Gratton McKillo, Jimmy Creed was third. The winner paid $11.50, $3.50 and $3.50.
