AID FOR ORPHANAGES.—The Provincial Government has promised a grant of $500 for each of the Island Orphanages. This with $150 from the city council will prove quite a boon towards those worthy objects.

P. E. I. FOXES IN OREGON.—The first fox farm as a business enterprise in eastern Oregon is being started by P. A. Snyder, says the Oakland Maple Leaf. He has secured a special use permit to launch the enterprise near Dixie Mountain, northeast of Prairie City. He is now erecting buildings and fences, and will start with three pairs of genuine black foxes from Prince Edward Island.

LOT OF FINE CATTLE.—Recently Mr. Andrew McInnis, Earncliffe, and one of the leading young farmers in East Queens, sold to Mr. E. Wheatley, City, ten fat cattle that weighed over nine hundred pounds, and for which Mr. McInnis received the snug sum of six hundred and fifty-three dollars. Earncliffe is only a small district, but it possesses an enviable reputation for the quantity and quality of the cattle it produces.

SUCCESSFUL ISLANDER.—Says the Maple Leaf of Oakland, Cal., This office had the pleasure of a visit recently from Hugh Daly, a native of Summerside, P. E. Island. Mr. Daly left home thirty-five years ago, coming to the Pacific Coast, where he has resided ever since, making his home for many years in Seattle. He is married and has a daughter attending the High School in that city. Hugh had seen much of the Pacific's rugged coast, from Mexico to the Arctic Circle, spent several years in Alaska and British Columbia, and from his present robust appearance, health and strength must have been his constant companions. In his travels Mr. Daly met many people from the Maritime Provinces, but very few from his old home town. Mr. Daly is mate of the S. S. Elfin Thomson, owned by the Pacific Cold Storage Co., of Tacoma.

PRINCE EDWARD THEATRE.—The headliner at the Prince Edward Theatre yesterday was the big five-reel Morosco production featuring Edna Godrich, as Edna Coleman, in a society drama with lawn-party scenes staged in the most remarkable private gardens in America; gardens that are world famous and which are visited each year by thousands of tourists—the new Morosco-Paragon photoplay "The House of Edna" is without doubt one of the most elegant and finished Morosco films ever produced. Edna Godrich in the starring part portrays a most unusual role—the society girl of great beauty, who mars her appearance and suffers trying humiliation that the soul might secure its triumph. The British Gazette furnishes some decidedly interesting glimpses of scenes and activities in the war centres, which are well worth seeing. For those who like thrill there is abundance of it in the latest adventure of "Grant, the Police Reporter," while for the comedy lover, "Cupid's Puppet" supplies a big bunch of laughs. This programme is repeated at today's shows.

SERG. WEEKS' MEDAL AWARDS.—Miss Dorothy Weeks received a few days ago from the Records Office, London, England, the military medal won by her brother, Sergt. Ernest S. Weeks, of the Signalling Corps. Sergt. Weeks was one of the first six Prince Edward Islanders to volunteer for the front, leaving here in August, 1914, for Vancour. He has been in France two years on February 11th; all the time in the danger zone. He won the military medal for bravery in the field, and has since been awarded a military bar to the medal for further conspicuous gallantry. Sergt. Weeks is yet in his teens, being only seventeen when he left Charlottetown. He is a well set young man, however, and stands six feet two inches. He has been offered a commission in the British regular forces on more than one occasion, but he declined preferring to remain with the boys with whom he crossed to France. The medal is about the size of a silver dollar, bears the bust of King George on one side and on the other the words, "For Bravery in the Field" surmounted by a crown and the monogram G. R., the whole surrounded by laurel leaves. Round the edge Sergt. Weeks' name and number are given. His father, Major Weeks, and the other members of the family have a right to be proud of the honors won by the young scion on the battlefields of Europe, and the province has a reflected glory in the honor.

RACES ON SATURDAY.—There will be horse racing on the Pinette ice on Saturday, February 17th, at one p. m., if ice is favorable.

READING.—Mr. E. D. Shaw will give a reading from Drummond at the concert in the Pro-Cathedral Friday, February 16th. Remember the date. 4438, 2.15M11.

HIGH TEA.—The annual high tea in Notre Dame Academy last evening proved a great success. There was a large attendance and everyone present enjoyed to the utmost the dainties provided. The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion with the flags of the Allies and the pillars draped in red, white and blue.

CAPES SERVICE.—There was crossing both ways at the Capes yesterday. Boats left Tormentine at 7.19 a.m. with 41 sacks of mail arriving at Cape Traverse at 10.50. The boats left this side at 2 p.m., taking five sacks. The mail from Cape Traverse arrived in the city by the regular afternoon train.

NOW THE 104th.—Private letters received last night tell of the formal amalgamation of the 105th P. E. Island Regiment with the 104th. As foreseen in previous correspondence the new name of the Battalion is the 104th and all letters addressed to members of the old 105th should now be addressed to the former, the soldiers still retaining their old regimental numbers. Of the officers given positions in the new regiment apart from the Col. Innes who is in command, the only other mentioned definitely is Capt. Allan McLeod who is in command of A Co., 104th.

WEDDING BELLS.—A quiet, but pretty wedding took place at the Bonaventure Church, Tracadie, Monday morning, February 5th. The contracting parties were Miss Millicent Ready, organist, St. Bonaventure's, and Mr. John J. McInnis, both of Tracadie Parish. The bride looked charmingly graceful in a dress of white georgette with veil set with orange blossoms. The bridesmaid wore a blue suit with hat to match. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Wm. McGrath, of Cove Head, cousin of the bride. The wedding march was played by the bride's mother, Mrs. John F. Trainor, of York, in her usual grand style. The choir was led by Mr. C. A. McDonald, of Charlottetown, with Mr. Norman J. McDonald, of Grand Tracadie, presided at the organ. The marriage ceremony was performed by the pastor, Father McIntyre, who also sang the mass and gave the nuptial benediction. After a luncheon was served at the Parochial House to the bridal party together with the members of the choir and a few immediate friends, after which all drove to the home of Mr. McInnis where a sumptuous dinner was served to a large number of friends and relatives. The pastor, Father McIntyre was present and spoke in flowing terms of the sparkling qualities of both bride and groom. In the afternoon a number of friends accompanied the newly wedded to the home of the bride's mother at York, where the evening was spent in music and song. The numerous and valuable presents including abunantial cheques, attested to the popularity of the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. McInnis left by the mail special Sunday night for New Glasgow, N. S., where Mr. McInnis holds a lucrative position. On the eve of Mr. and Mrs. McInnis' wedding the choir over which Mrs. McInnis had acceptably presided for the past two years called on her at the Parochial residence and read the following address and presented her with a beautiful Morris chair. The following is the address: "To Miss Millicent Ready—Hearing with sincere regret that you were about to resign your charge as organist and director of our choir, we, the undersigned members thereof, beg to tender to you our warmest appreciation of your earnest endeavours on behalf of St. Bonaventure's choir for the past two years. Your musical talent, your rare ability and tact as teacher together with your prudent management has brought our choir to its present good standing. The many amiable qualities of mind and heart that we have ever recognized in your most exemplary Christian life, have endeared you to our choir and rendered you a worthy example to our parish in general, to which you have shall be a distinct loss. But be assured, dear Miss Ready, that although you are severing your connections with our choir for the present our intimate relations in the past has knit a bond of love and friendship between us that defies time or space to sever. It is our earnest hope, therefore, that ere long you shall return to our midst and fill again that important role for which you are so eminently fitted as musical director of our choir. In conclusion, we again beg to assure you, you have our best wishes and we pray heaven's choicest blessings may ever be with you and yours to the happy sphere of wedded bliss. As a slight token of our high esteem we ask you to kindly accept the accompanying gift not so much for its intrinsic value as an earnest of devoted and grateful hearts. Signed on behalf of St. Bonaventure's Choir, Tracadie, P. E. I."

ARRIVED SAFELY.—Mrs. David Sutherland of this city has received a cable announcing the safe arrival in Liverpool of her son Mr. William Sutherland, who goes to London to take a position in the Bank of Montreal.

SOME ANXIETY FELT.—Some concern is felt regarding the schooner Mary F. Fleming, long overdue from Charlottetown, P. E. I., to New York with potatoes. Since the vessel left the Down East port on Dec. 4, all trace of her has been lost. It is not improbable that the schooner has been put into some port along the Maine coast for shelter, and no report has been made of her, says the Boston Post.

EARNSLIFFE RED CROSS.—At their last meeting the members made up a large box of comforts for the boys in France. It has been sent to Private Frank Doyle for distribution, and contained amongst other things, cigars, cigarettes, soap, writing paper and envelopes, fudge and smoking tobacco. The members who have not contributed to this box will be making up another one at their next meeting.—Q.

WEDDING BELLS.—The marriage of Miss Sadie McDonald, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald McDonald, of Bethel, P. E. I., to Mr. Albert Stewart, of Peake's Station, was solemnized at the Morrell House, Charlottetown, on February 7th. Rev. D. McLean officiated. The bride, who was attired in a suit of blue velvet, with hat to match, was attended by her sister, Miss Laura J. McDonald, and the groom was supported by Mr. George Austin McDonald. The Wedding March was played by Miss L. Dunn. After the ceremony the happy couple left for their home in Peake's Station, amidst showers of rice and the good wishes of their many friends.

SUCCESSFUL SOCIAL.—A very successful and enjoyable social and entertainment was held on Tuesday night at the Peake's Station. The program included well-rendered vocal numbers by Miss Dorothy Sutherland, Miss Mamie Ross, Miss Maud Thorne, Mr. Charles Earle, and Mr. Edwin Saunders; and splendid readings by Miss Coleman and Mrs. J. P. Hooper. Miss Lillian Earle was accompanied. Excellent addresses were delivered by Judge Hazard and Mr. Percy Pope, Rev. Mr. Davison, pastor of the Methodist church, was chairman. The auction of baskets was conducted by Messrs. Benj. Carter, S. A. Macdonald and B. Brodie and good prices were realized. The very substantial sum of $122 was realized from the affair.

IONA NOTES.—Messrs Owen McKenna, Vernon and Dennis Rooney, Cherry Valley, spent Sunday in Iona.

—Messrs Andrew McKenna and Joseph Rooney paid a short visit to Iona Sunday. Misses Florence McClelland and Maud McGarry returned home Saturday after spending their vacation with friends in the city.

—The school is progressing favorably under the skillful management of Mamie Trainor.—The farmers of this vicinity are busily engaged, since the recent snow fall of snow, hauling home their firewood and fencing material.—Open air skating on McKenna's pond is attended by large numbers of our young people.—The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roche will be pleased to know that they moved into their new home in Iona Centre.—Miss Margaret McCabe returned to her home Saturday week. Her many friends will regret to hear that she had to give up her studies at Prince of Wales College owing to ill health.

MOORE and McLEOD LIMITED

J. WELLINGTON MACINNIS.

The remains of J. Wellington MacInnis, station agent at Murray Harbour, who died in the General Hospital, Toronto, at the age of thirty-five years, were interred in the Presbyterian Cemetery at St. Peter's Bay on Sunday, February 11th.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. J. M. McLeod, in Mr. E. McCallum's house, brother-in-law of the deceased, whither the body was taken on its arrival at St. Peter's.

The late Mr. MacInnis was a son of Mr. M. MacInnis, now of Vancouver, formerly of St. Peter's, and was station master in Murray Harbour for several years. He is survived by his wife and a family of seven young children, who have the sincere sympathy of the community in their sore bereavement.

MRS. GEORGE ANDERSON.

There passed away at Cable Head West, on February 6th, a highly respected Christian woman, Mrs. George Anderson, aged 75 years. She bore her long illness with Christian resignation and patience, and was lovingly cared for by her daughters in her sickness. She was a woman of more than ordinary intelligence, and possessed a clear and accurate knowledge of the Bible, which was her daily delight.

Her husband predeceased her over five years ago. She is survived by one son, Alexander, on the homestead, and three daughters, Mrs. George Coffin, St. Peter's Bay, and the Misses Esther and Grace, at home, and one sister Mrs. Rose, East Point.

The funeral service was conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. M. McLeod, and the remains were laid aside her husband in the cemetery at Midgell. "Her children arise up and call her blessed."

WALTER O. BRUCE.

The sad intelligence of the death of Walter O. Bruce was read some days ago by his mother, Mrs. Jas. Bruce, Red Point by wire from Ottawa. He had on several occasions endeavored to enlist in the 105th unit at Souris but failed to pass the examination for an infantry man. Nothing daunted however he paid his own way to Charlottetown where he was successful in enlisting in the Royal Naval division leaving with that unit for Halifax, from which port he sailed on the 13th of January for England. Like many another brave young chap from our land, he never had an opportunity of meeting the enemy as he had hoped. Having contracted spinal meningitis previous to, or upon going on board his ship, he took ill on Monday and succumbed to the dread malady on Thursday afternoon, the 15th. The funeral service was held on Friday morning, when the remains were laid to rest beneath the green billows of the Atlantic, and almost in sight of old England's shores. His invalid mother, brothers and sisters mourn his death. He died a hero's death just as much as if he had been killed fighting in the greatest naval battle in history. He died as he would have willed, serving the country he loved, a glorious example to those who up to now have failed to see their duty. A prime favorite with the boys he will be missed among his circle of friends.

Children Had Eczema Doctors Failed to Cure

TWO LETTERS WHICH PROVE THE EFFICIENCY OF DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT AS A CURE FOR ECZEMA.

Fortunate are the mothers who know the virtues of Dr. Chase's Ointment for use after the bath to relieve itching and chafing and to thereby prevent eczema and similar skin disease.

Mrs. W. L. Barnes, Timmins, Ont., writes:—"I want to tell you about the case of my little boy, who had been afflicted with eczema had been child treated by their own family physician, but the little one got no better. They tried several remedies, but they all proved useless in this case. Upon the advice of a neighbor they got Dr. Chase's Ointment, and before the first box was used the child was completely cured. I can also recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to suffering friends who I know will be glad to learn of something to relieve their nervous trouble. IN MEMORIAM

MRS. THOMAS FLYNN.

One of the land marks of Charlottetown passed peacefully away yesterday to her long rest in the person of Mary Hennessey, widow of the late Thomas Flynn, having attained the remarkable age of one hundred years. Born in this city in the year 1817, she was a most interesting woman to talk to and was greatly loved by her immediate family and friends who will miss her kindly greeting and good advice. She leaves to mourn three sons, two daughters, eight grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren, who will always cherish her memory. The funeral takes place on Friday morning, at 9.45 to St. Dunstan's Cathedral, thence to the R. C. cemetery, where interment will take place.
