the 13th instant, to a fairly large audience. The cast was well chosen, particularly that of Pa. (Mr. Lewis Cairns), who was always going about minus shoes, etc., and that of Ma, (Miss Grace Deacon), who was always scolding Pa for his carelessness.

The Provincial Temperance Convention in Charlottetown was well attended by those interested from the country districts. The meetings were both helpful and inspirational.

Among those from Wilmot who attended the Quarterly Session, of the Grand Division, Sons of Temperance, in Middleton on the 7th instant, were Messrs. J. A. Jardine, R. B. MacCaul, Benj. F. Fillman and G. E. Huestis.

MURRAY HARBOR NORTH

At the time of writing, we regret to say that Mrs. Ben Richards continues very poorly and there is no hope held out for her recovery by the attending physicians.

The morning of Ascension Day brought a bouncing baby boy to Mr. and Mrs. Harold McKerron, on the Beach Road.

Miss Christina Currie, of Toronto, arrived on Thursday last for house-keeper to her father, the Rev. F. Watson Currie at the Manse here. Miss Currie is a regularly resigned Deaconess in the Presbyterian Church in Canada and spent seven years as Missionary in Korea, leaving there when the field passed over to the United Church of Canada, as home duties required her presence.

Llewellyn, who died on Sabbath, the 10th inst., was largely attended by the residents of this section.

Mr. and Mrs. William MacLaren, of the Whim Road attended the funeral of the late Samuel Llewellyn on Wednesday of last week.

A number of our farmers have got from 5 to 25 acres of grain sown, but the recent rains have held up the teams for a few days.

The carcass of a splendid heifer of 2 or 3 years, was washed upon the shore of the Gulf on Friday of last week, probably from Nova Scotia.

A number of our electors were at the Convention at Georgetown on Saturday and report the meeting a great success. Mr. Cartney J. McClure has been appointed census commissioner for this district and expects to be going promptly on June 1st. We are expecting this district will show an increase in population and no great amount of unemployment.

WILMOT VALLEY

Mr. Frank Jardine has traded in his car and purchased a Ford Coach.

Mr. John W. Hogg has become the owner of a new Pontiac Sedan.

We regret that Mrs. Edward Clark is rather poorly again, but hope that she will soon recover from her little set-back.

Mrs. T. J. Humphrey, is also somewhat indisposed at the present time, but her many friends are hoping she will soon be her usual self once more.

We are glad to know that Mr. Harry Waugh is about on the job again. We are all glad of this.

Rev. J. W. A. Nicholson taught the Bible Class in the Wilmot Valley Sunday School on the 10th instant. There were nineteen present and all enjoyed the splendid manner in which the lesson principle was dealt with.

The aim of the Wilmot Sunday School for 1931 as regards numbers is 50. So far we have got to 37. Will you help us to reach the other 13 which we want.

While the spring appears to be rather a backward one yet the seeding and planting goes on. A heavy rain somewhat retarded operations, but this was needed and will cause things to grow very rapidly should some warmer weather be our portion.

The following were in attendance at Searletown on Tuesday evening, May 12th to see the Middleton Division of the Sons of Temperance stage their play "Between two lines."
