Hopes were held out for his recovery, but God willed otherwise, for notwithstanding all that medical skill and kind and loving nursing could do, on the date mentioned above he was called to Heaven. He was seventy-two years of age and was the youngest of a family of three sons of the late James Nunn and his wife, Maria Locke. He and two brothers, Cephas and John, predeceased him. The trustees have been greatly encouraged and with the princely gift of $500 from Lieutenant Governor DeBlois as a start have already in sight approximately one half of the amount needed. Several subscriptions have come in by mail and it is hoped there will be many more of these as every section of the province will reap the benefit of the installation of this X-ray unit. A lead lined room for this apparatus was provided when the new hospital was built but the trustees did not feel justified in borrowing the additional amount which its purchase would have involved.
