BOILS ALL OVER HIS FACE AND NECK

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS DID FOR HIM WHAT FOUR DOCTORS FAILED TO DO

KEEWATIN, ONT., July 19th, 1905.

MESSRS. THE T. MILBURN CO., LTD., TORONTO, ONT.,

DEAR SIRS:—I am writing to let you know what Burdock Blood Bitters has done for me. I am a young man, twenty years old, and a year ago last March I began to feel dull and sick, and was greatly troubled with boils coming out on my face and neck, mostly on the latter. I would no sooner get rid of one than I would have, perhaps, two or three more appear.

I had four doctors trying to cure me but they had very little success. They would stop them for a month or six weeks and then they would be as bad as ever again.

Almost every patent medicine, advertised to cure boils, I could get hold of, I tried, but still without success. At last one day, last spring, someone happened to say; "why not try taking Burdock Blood Bitters for the blood?" I was willing to try anything and immediately sent for a bottle, but at the time was doubtful if it would be of any use. However, I used that bottle and while I was taking it I began to feel better, although I still kept having a few boils but not nearly such bad ones. I did not miss any work, while otherwise, I used to miss, sometimes, a week out of every month. I kept on taking the medicine until I had taken six bottles, and needless to say, I was not sorry I did so when I tell you I have not had a boil appear for the past three months. Everybody was surprised when they heard that Burdock Blood Bitters had done for me what four doctors failed to do. If any sufferers are afflicted with boils, I would strongly advise them to use B.B.B. It makes you feel like a new man. I always keep a bottle in the house now, as I think it is a medicine that should be in every household.

Yours truly,
HENRY A. SMITH.

ADVERTISING IS BROAD.

Advertising in itself means publicity and publicity is a very broad and comprehensive term. It does not mean simply a word whispered to a favored few. It is, rather, synonymous with a general, broadcast declaration, and the broader the scope of the announcement, the better the advertising. No occupied space that directs attention along given and desired lines can be reasonably regarded as wasted; nor can any funds expended to this end be adjudged extravagance.—American Medical Journal

EMBROIDERED LINEN WAISTS

Some of the large stores are showing prepared waists of white embroidered linen, The material though fine is somewhat less so than last season. There is a broad plumetis device surrounding the entire front of the waist. There is also some kind of adornment for the cuffs and collar. They are selling at the absurd price of $2.25 to 5.50 and needless to say their success is enormous. These waists are sellers. There is 3 yards of 36 inch linen in the waist length and it is extremely dressy in appearance.

IF YOU ONLY KNEW

When your well stocked store was going to burn down, you could wait to insure until the week before, but

When It is Destroyed

You are too late. Remember the old adage, "There is no time like the present," and no insurance like ours.
