—DEBATE AT INDIAN RIVER—The fourth of a series of debates conducted by the Holy Name Society of Indian River was held on February 11th, with the usual good attendance. Mr. Allan Murphy acted as chairman. The subject for discussion was "Resolved that the fishing industry offers more possibilities for a young man than farming." Speakers on the Pro side were Messrs. Brendon Driscoll, Sydney Heckbert, Thomas Tuplin, Patrick Noonan, Alban McLellan and Mrs. Wm. McDonald, and for the Con side, Messrs. Stephen Gillis, John Murphy, Bernard McLellan, Aeneas McLellan, Ronald McLellan and Mrs. James Pendergast. The judges, Messrs. Fred Ready, Alonzo Cameron and Mrs. Wm. Hickey gave their decision in favor of the con side. Rev. R. F. McDonald gave a short adddress and expressed the opinion that this was the most enthusiastic debate of the series. He commented favorably on the alacrity with which the speakers rose and expressed themselves, — clearly and oratorically. The next debate will be held on Tuesday, February 18th. The subject for discussion will be: "Resolved that it is more profitable to feed what is produced on the farm than to sell it." Speakers in favor of the resolution: Messrs. Bernard McLellan, Alfred Higgins, Allan Murphy, Thomas Tuplin, Ronald McLellan, John A. McDonald. Con, Messrs. Sydney Heckbert, Stephen Gillis, John Murphy, Aeneas McLellan, James Pendergast, Leslie Ramsay.

Ellerslie and Vicinity

Miss Lillian Morrison, Ellerslie, has returned home after spending a few weeks with her aunt at Malpeque.

Mrs. Edmund Burleigh is spending a few days in Summerside with her brother who is in Prince County Hospital.

Mrs. George E. Jelly, Ellerslie, who entered the P. C. Hospital on Friday, Feb. 7, underwent an operation Saturday morning, and is doing nicely.

Much sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yeo, Port Hill, in the sudden death of their infant daughter.

A very interesting game of hockey was played in Tyne Valley rink on Saturday night, Feb. 8 when the Ellerslie girls played their first game with the Tyne Valley girls, score being 1-1.

After the girls game the Ellerslie Nevadas played Tyne Valley Old Smugglers, score 2-5 in favor of Nevadas.

The regular meeting of the Chancel Guild of St. John's Church, Ellerslie was held at the home of Mrs. P. Williams, Ellerslie, on Monday, February 10.

A fast and interesting game of hockey was played at McNeill's Mills rink on Monday night, February 10 between the Ellerslie and Port Hill teams, each side tried in vain to break a "bounding tie" but were unsuccessful, score 3-3.

The regular meeting of the A. Y. P. A. Young People's Society of St. John's Church, Ellerslie, was held on Monday night, February 10 at the home of Mrs. Robert England.

Many friends will regret to learn of the illness of Mr. Alvin Phillips, Ellerslie, who was taken to P. C. Hospital on Friday, Feb. 7, to undergo an operation for appendicitis —E

Estimates Re Maritime Freight Rates Act Cut

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

MONCTON, Feb. 12—The basis of estimate in connection with the reduction of $240,000 in the Maritime Freight Rates Act estimates contained in the federal estimates announced at Ottawa on Tuesday, does not differ from former years, Rand Matheson, Manager of the Transportation Commission on the Maritime Board of Trade, explained here tonight following receipt of a telegram from Col. V. I. Smart, Deputy Minister of Railways and Canals.

In reply to Mr. Matheson's request for a clarifying explanation of the reduction, the deputy minister sent the following telegram:

"Decrease in the estimates of the Maritime Freight Rates Act is due to the amount asked for last year based upon estimate of traffic which did not materialize, so that the actual amount required due to traffic in 1935 was less than the amount asked for in the estimate. This year's estimate is based upon traffic for the year 1936, a slightly greater than last year's actual but less than the traffic estimate for 1935. Note that increase of traffic means increase of the amount required to pay 20 per cent deduction. Basis of estimate does not differ from that of former years."

Commenting on the Maritime Freight Rates Act, Mr. Matheson explained that "according to the annual report of the Department of Railways and Canals, recently issued, payments resulting from the twenty per cent reduction in the tolls from January 1, 1927, to March 31, 1935, amounted to $19,-815,523.06. Of this amount the Canadian National Railways received $14,352,439.94 and the other railways in selected territory, $5,463,-083.12.

"It is interesting to note," Mr. Matheson added, "that on page 18 of the department's report the following statement is made: 'Commencing with this year, the deficit of the Canadian National Railways eastern lines (excepting the subsidy covering twenty per cent reduction in freight rates) has been included with the deficit of the balance of the system. Formerly it was paid under authority of the Maritime Freight Rates Act of 1927.'"

Consequently the estimates referred to under the Maritime Freight Rates Act do not include the estimated deficit of the C.N.R. eastern lines, Mr. Matheson said.

Nerves Got Him In Tennis Play

(By The Canadian Press)

MELBOURNE, Feb. 12 — Nerve strain in big-time tennis is being discussed in tennis circles here following an incident in which Vivian McGrath, exponent of the two-handed backhand shot, was the central figure. McGrath abandoned a match against Harry Hopman in the fifth set when Hopman led 9-8 declaring he could not go on.

W. V. Armstrong, president of the New South Wales Tennis Association, who was umpiring, charged McGrath with lack of sportsmanship. McGrath maintained he was not fit and when he retired he was physically incapable of further play.

BRUDENELL WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The February meeting of the Brudenell Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Russell McGregor, with eight members and one visitor present.

Meeting opened with Creed, followed by the roll call, which was answered by "My Pet Superstition." The minutes of last meeting were read and adopted.

The Sick Committee reported having visited the sick, and the school committee reported having purchased cocoa and sugar for the school children.

Correspondence, including letters from the Anti-Tuberculosis League and the Library Committee was then read.

Two members were appointed to interview Montague Hospital Auxiliary to find out what is most needed at the hospital.

Questionnaires on Child Welfare, Agriculture, and Canadian Industries, were filled in. Mrs. Harold Nicholson and Miss Myrtle Nicholson were appointed on the program committee. Next place of meeting, Mrs. Harold Nicholson.

The meeting then adjourned and the hostess, assisted by Miss Myrtle Nicholson, served a delicious lunch.

NORTH TRYON W. I.

The monthly meeting of the North Tryon Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Wilfred Inman on Tuesday evening, January 21st. The meeting opened by singing one verse of "Blest Be The Tie That Binds" in memory of the death of our late King. This was followed by repeating 'A Club Women's Creed." The roll call was responded to by telling "What I Like Most In Men." The minutes of last meeting were read, adopted and signed by the President.

The Sick Committee reported having visited and given fruit to the sick in the district. The School Committee stated that the teacher would like story books for the primary pupils.

New Sick Committee for next month: Mrs. Everett Ives and Miss Doris Warren.

Letters of thanks for fruit and Christmas treats were read by the Secretary, also a letter regarding maintaining the Carnegie Library. A brief discussion followed and the Secretary was asked to write the local M. P. with regard to this matter. The meeting closed by singing the National Anthem. The hostess then served a very delicious lunch.

WOLF FROZEN STIFF DISCOVERED IN TRAP

PETERBOROUGH, Ont., Feb. 11—The 100-pound carcass of a timber wolf stood rigid today in the home of Fred Hull, who lives at the mouth of Jack's Creek, at the head of Stoney Lake. It was gradually thawing out.

Hull set a trap for the wolf after finding the half-eaten body of a deer in the woods. When he approached the trap yesterday, armed only with a small trapping hatchet, he saw the wolf. It had one foot in the trap and sat on its haunches.

Hull had never seen a wolf so composed and silent so he decided to start something. He threw his hatchet at the animal. The weapon rebounded from the carcass with a clang and Hull found the animal frozen as hard as a stone.

CUMBERLAND UNITED CHURCH PRESBYTERY MEETING

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

AMHERST, N. S., Feb. 12—The Cumberland Presbytery of the United Church of Canada today decided to support the nomination of Rev. J. W. Bartlett of Fredericton and formerly of Sydney and Amherst as president of this year's Maritime conference.

The Presbytery also indicated its support of Rev. Dr. Clarence Mackinnon of Pine Hill Divinity Hall, Halifax, as Moderator of the General Assembly and Rev. W. F. Partridge of Sackville as editor of the church publication, The New Outlook.

short speeches were made by several of the successful and defeated candidates. Coun. A. A. Hennessey, representative of Ward 1, led off the speech-making, thanking the people of the Ward for electing him by acclamation and congratulating the Mayor and councillors-elect.

Mayor-elect Turner was the next speaker. After thanking the people for their support, he assured them that he would endeavour to carry out any election promises made and would do his best in the next two years to put Charlottetown on the map, financially and otherwise.

Councillor VanIderstine thanked the electors of Ward Three for electing him by acclamation and said he would feel obliged to do even better in the future than he had in the past.

Mr. B. R. Holman, unsuccessful candidate in the mayoralty contest, congratulated his opponent, Mr. Turner, on his election. He felt there would be a good civic government for the next two years as there were some excellent men elected yesterday and previously by acclamation. He wished the new council every success. He had served on the council for eight years and was glad to have been of service to the city for that time. He thanked the press for their fairness throughout the campaign.

Mr. McLeod, councillor-elect for Ward Five, thanked the people for the support they had given him. He pointed out how very close the vote had been in that Ward.

Mr. MacDougall, former councillor for Ward Five and defeated in yesterday's contest, congratulated the mayor and councillors-elect and trusted that all promises would be carried out in the next two years. Dr. Blanchard, defeated in Ward Five by eight votes, spoke briefly thanking the people for the excellent support they had given him.

O'DONNELL TRIAL READY FOR JURY

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

TORONTO, Feb. 12.—Amid tense drama, last evidence for and against Harry O'Donnell was set down today on the records of his trial for the ravine murder of Ruth Taylor.

Final testimony sharpened the cleavage between defence and prosecution over one of the trial's most vital points—the question of whether hairs from O'Donnell's clothing came from the slain stenographer's blue sweater. And last-minute manoeuvreing by both sides emphasized the importance of the evidence on the 25-year-old prisoner's life.

Without calling O'Donnell, defence lawyers attempted an explanation of the hairs on his clothes through evidence that his wife was wearing a blue woollen bed jacket when he embraced her in a maternity hospital the day before Ruth was ravished and killed in an east end ravine. Less than 10 minutes later, the defence's case closed abruptly with the story of the embrace, told by O'Donnell's sister Margaret, unshaken in cross-examination.

But the prosecution swiftly challenged it. Calling for a recess, Crown Counsel J. C. McRuer, K.C., reopened his case and produced Mrs. Bessie Back, operator of the private hospital, who swore Mrs. O'Donnell was not wearing a jacket last Nov. 3, the day before the murder and the day after the birth of the young couple's first boy. Nor had Mrs. O'Donnell worn a sweater in hospital any time up to her husband's arrest two days after the killing, she testified.

And to her evidence was added that of Prof. Joslyn Rogers, provincial analyst, who declared his scientific findings showed conclusively that the hairs on O'Donnell's clothes could not have come from the jacket. Earlier in the trial, the analyst had sworn that hairs from O'Donnell's clothes were indistinguishable from those on the sweater worn by the 20-year-old stenographer the night her skull was crushed in.

The hairs were expected to be the focal point of more of tomorrow's argument by opposing counsel. Defence Counsel Frank Regan, K.C., will first address the jury in the morning, to be followed by Mr. McRuer and Mr. Justice Nicol Jeffrey. The case may be in the jury's hands by late evening.

Granites Are Eliminated By Nationals

The second game between Borden Nationals and Kensington Granites —in the McLean League series—was played in Kensington Rink on Monday night, Feb. 10th. The game was a decisive victory for Borden. The score was 5-1, giving the round of home and home games to Borden by a score of 9-2.

The game was real fast—the fastest ever played in the rink—and was replete with thrills and spills from the first whistle. The Kensington boys strove mightily, but the collective speed of the Borden aggregation was too much for them. In this contest, it was a case of "the race belonging to the swift." On occasions when a hiatus in play occurred and a Borden man grabbed the puck, the whole team flew like a covey of Hungarian partridges—converging on their opponents' goal with nerve-racking effect on Kensington players and hopeful fans.

The refereeing by Don McPherson and Irving Jay was severe and precise — without vacillation or doubt. Considering the high nervous tension of players and fans it was a triumph of the hockey arbiters' hard position to fill satisfactorily. The aggregate time spent by players in "hoosegow" was considerable. In fairness to the Granites, it may be said that they were selected from teams of the North Shore League at short notice, and had little, if any, practice together. We opine that if the Borden team keeps away from the "primrose path" and does not "hunger and thirst after the flesh pots of Egypt," they will be serious contenders for the McLean League Cup for 1936.

Kensington—Goal, B. Champion; defence, B. Craig, W. Duggan, O. Darrach; forwards, A. Bernard, E. McKay, R. Heckbert, H. Champion, F. Craig, I. Darrach; Coach, Geo. Webster; Manager, W. L. Delaney.

Borden—Goal, G. "Pinky" Peters; defence, V. McWilliams and Tom Paquet; centre, Oscar Campbell and Ed. Campbell; left wing, Lloyd Inman and L. McAleer; right wing, Clint Howatt and El. McInnis; Manager, Roy Smallwood.

Referees—McPherson and Jay.
Score—Borden, 5; Kensington, 1.
Total for the round—Borden, 9; Kensington, 2.

DRAMATIC

not far off, proceeded with all speed towards the stricken craft but messaged it could not reach her until 6.30 A.S.T.

The American coast guard service had despatched the cutter Cayuga to the Fauci's assistance but she could not reach the scene for 24 hours.

It was when the distressed craft was signalling its urgent message that its engine rooms were filling with water that the Canadian trawler, hitherto unreported sailed into view.

Almost immediately Captain McHugh gave the command to abandon ship. The men were transferred to the tossing Lemberg with difficulty for the sea was rolling heavily.

"Gertrude M. Fauci abandoned, approximate position 78 miles south east, half east from Halifax lightship, in sinking condition."

As the rescue ship turned toward this port C. H. Hosterman, agent for the Department of Marine, began arrangements for looking after the American trawler's crew, expected to arrive early tomorrow morning.

The wind shifted to north west, however, and as the sea subsided Captain Samuelsson notified Halifax he had changed his course and would transfer the men to the United States cutter for return to Boston.

Additional Sport

Island Boys Starring With U. S. Clubs

The following are accounts of two games played in the Eastern United States Amateur League, in which loop several former Charlottetiwn hockeyists are now performing. Currie, Squarebriggs and Steele all figured in the scoring of the games which are here reproduced.

The Hershey Bears are tops again in the Eastern Amateur Hockey League.

A 2 to 1 decision in an overtime brawl gave the Bears the league lead here last night. The Baltimore Orioles were the victim.

Chucky Currie and Gus Mancuso put on a two-man show in the overtime to take the decision in a rip snorting finale.

Currie snared the goal after accepting a lateral pass from Mancuso at 6:46 of the overtime.

The two teams battled to a Mexican stand-off in the first period. They played clean hockey in this period. Only one penalty was imposed. It went to Tutten.

Mancuso was the man who scored the first goal. It came at 11:16 of the second period. Currie passed him the disc for the score past Harwood.

Squarebriggs scored for Baltimore in the last period on a pass from Lee Buckles and Steele.

CURRIE SCORES PENALTY SHOT

The Hershey Bears by defeating the Atlantic City Sea Gulls in a rough, tough tussle, by a score of 2 to 1, Saturday, took a firmer grip on first place. The game was played before 4,000 people, which forced the opening of the upper balcony.

A total of seventeen penalties were called, four players received cuts and one penalty shot was converted to make it one of the weirdest games of the season.

The game started cautiously. The second period was the wild one. At 10:40 Gordie Waite bounded a shot off a Hershey skate into the net, and immediately the Bears went on the offensive. The game immediately roughened up, through several trips, and the roughness was climaxed when Tut Tuten and Mel Slater engaged in a scrap to set the fans howling. From the middle of the period on there were at least three men in the box at all times, and at two distinct intervals six men graced the hoosegow.

At 10:46 Henry Lauzon had a break, but just as he was about to shoot, Ty Anderson tripped him, and the Bears received a free poke at the Gull castle. Harry Currie was selected by Herb Mitchell to even the score and he turned the trick. He burned the shot low, and it bounded off the pipe, hit Hunter's leg and rolled over the line.

The audience was just settling in its seats for the third period when Hank Lauzon counted on a rebound of a shot by Harry Frost, which Ted Hunter could not control. After this the Bears went strictly on the defensive.

The hard action of the third period produced two injuries, one a bad gash above Tut Tuten's eye, which made blood spurt; the other a cut over Vince Papika's ear. The earlier part of the game showed Herbie Foster receiving a cut over the eye and various minor injuries which required medical attention.

Gagnon and Hunter both played fine games in the nets, Gagnon having 27 saves and Hunter 14.
