SATURDAY the 13th inst was the date of the holding of the annual picnic of Refuge Division No. 201, Fredericton. Four other divisions—Hunter River, Union, Pearly Stream, and Stanley were invited. The place chosen was Campbellton Shore, a short distance from the thriving village of Stanley. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather quite a large number gathered, and a pleasant time was spent. The Sisters did their part well in preparing a sumptuous repast which was most highly enjoyed and duly appreciated. We would not forget to extend our gratitude to Mr. H. McKie, who so kindly gave us his beautiful field, and in many other ways helped to make our picnic enjoyable. Campbellton is by all appearance one of the most prosperous farming districts of the North side of our snug little Island.—ONE FROM REFUGE.

He told them that the Prince of Wales' set had recently adopted the idea from the French, and that all London was rapidly taking up the custom. Mr. White sets the pace for Americans over there.
