The Glace Bay Gazette an enterprising journal which has been published semi-weekly for some time has entered the broader field of the daily paper and henceforth will publish an issue each day except Sunday.

The World Almanac and Encyclopedia for 1904 is to hand. Previous issues of this standard book of reference have been excellent. This is the best of the series. If there is any better almanac extant it has not come this way.

The funeral of the late W. M. Coffin takes place this afternoon at 2.30 p. m. from his late residence on the corner of Grafton and Hillsboro streets, to People's Cemetery. The pall-bearers will be T. Z. Taylor, W. T. Huggan, S. C. Nash, N. Rattenbury, W. H. Aitken, J. T. MacKenzie.

In a letter received from J. R. Thompson Esq., President of the Earlham Land Company, Earlham, Iowa, states that the mercury registered 20 below zero twice during the last week in January. Mr. Thompson visited the city last summer and was the guest of John L. Thompson, Station Master.

It is learned that the sudden death of the late Willie D. McLean which occurred in Nelson B. C., on the 15th of January, was caused by his being suddenly crushed under falling logs. The deceased young man was in the 23rd year of his age and son of Hugh McLean, Albion Cross. His remains were brought home and interred in the Dundas Presbyterian cemetery on Monday last.

The Canadian Magazine for February is one of the best of this excellent serial. It is now a magazine for Canadians to be proud of. The current number contains 100 pages of well-written articles of special interest to the Canadian people. Among the leading topics discussed are: The Treaty-Making Power, by Prof. Goldwin Smith; Comments on the Alaskan Boundary, by F. C. Wade; The Fight for North America, by A. G. Bradley. The illustrations are admirable as they always are.

Among the many floral tributes in memory of the late Nelson Musick were the following:—From the Highland Brigade, a cross; from St. George Lodge, two pots of plants; from Masters John and Thomas Fullerton, a bouquet; from Vernon Mugford and Duncan Robinson, a pot of plants; from Mrs. Thomas Plokar, a bouquet, from E. N. Younker, a bouquet; from Benjamin Bremner, a cross; from Miss LePage and pupils, a bouquet; from the clerks of Carter & Co. Limited, a crescent; from the Abegweit Club, a wreath; from the Bing Club, a cross; from Comrades No. 1 Co. 8th Reg., a cross; from Isaac and Mrs. Carter, a wreath; from Isaac and Mrs. Lane, a wreath; a pot of plants from the Y. S. Mr. and Mrs. Musick also desire to thank their many friends for their sympathy in their trouble.

MAKE PEACE WITH YOUR STOMACH.

You Are Certain to Lose if You Attempt the Use of Force and Violence.

You cannot force your stomach to do work that it is unable and unwilling to do. It has been tried time and time again with always the same result. The stomach is a good and faithful servant but when pushed beyond the limit it rebels. Some stomachs will stand much more abuse than others, but every stomach has its limit; and when that limit is reached, it is a very dangerous and unwise proceeding to attempt to force it into doing further work. The sensible and reasonable course is to employ a substitute to carry on the work of digestion and give the stomach an opportunity to recuperate and regain its lost strength.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the only perfect substitute to take up and carry on the work of tired, worn-out stomachs. They are natural and easy in their work and cause no disturbance in the digestive organs. They contain all of the essential elements that make up the gastric juice and other digestive fluids and will digest any food that a strong, healthy stomach will, and do it in the same time and in the same way. They work independently of surrounding conditions and the fact that the stomach is weak or diseased does not influence them at all in their useful and effective work. They will digest food just as well in a glass jar or bottle as they will in a stomach. You can see that for yourself by putting one of them into a jar with a square meal and some water to enable it to work.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, by thus relieving the stomach of its work, enable that organ to rest and recuperate and regain its health and strength. The process is perfectly natural and plain. Nature will heal the stomach just as she heals a wound or a broken limb, if she is not interfered with and is permitted to do her work in her own way. All interference is prevented by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are for sale by druggists everywhere at 50c a box and if you are afflicted with dyspepsia, one box will make you feel 50 times better. You will forget you have a stomach and rejoice in the forgetfulness. No druggist would be so short sighted as to try to get along without Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets for they are so popular and are so well known for the good they have done and the happiness they have caused that any druggist caught without them would lose the confidence of his customers and be regarded as below the standard. His business would suffer as a result and his patrons would go to other stores and buy their other drugs there as well as their Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.
