FOUR MEN PICKED UP.—The C. G. S. Aramora arrived in port Saturday morning after supplying the Belle Isle lights and picking up the Magdalen Islands buoys. Owing to stormy weather the steamer was detained about ten days at Kirpon, Nfld., in the Belle Isle Straits. While at Kirpon four Newfoundlanders, attempting to board the Aramora in a rough sea, were thrown overboard from their dory and were picked up by the crew of the Aramora. The water was so chilly that they were quite benumbed and two of the men were unconscious when picked up. It was necessary to lower a surf boat to make the rescue and only the promptness of the crew of the Aramora saved the party. After securing dry clothes from the Government steamer the Newfoundlanders returned to shore, none the worse of their adventure. The Aramora is now at the Marine wharf, awaiting further orders.

Returning to harbour the ship struck Cerberus Rock off the Arichat coast. After striking the rock the schooner rolled down losing practically all the deckload of pork, butter and vegetables. The vessel slid off the rock and quickly settled in the water to the decks. The crew of four men were picked up by the steamer from a boat and the vessel was towed into Arichat. The steamer Robert G. Cann has been detained at Mulgrave blowing down the boiler preparatory to winter work and was able to reach the schooner to save it from total wreck.

The Annual Re-union of the 11th C. F. A. Brigade Ammunition Column was held last evening in the Armouries. There were some twenty members of this unit present, with Col. D. A. MacKinnon presiding. This, the fourth annual Armistice anniversary celebration of the Column was perhaps the most successful yet staged. A particularly pleasing feature was the report of the committee who were in charge of the "Old Comrades Benefit Dance." The report showed the dance to have been a great success, with a considerable balance on hand after all expenses had been paid. This entire surplus, it was announced, will be used for the benefit of the families of ex-members of the column who have died since the Armistice. The committee expressed their hearty appreciation of the whole-hearted support of the citizens of Charlottetown, who alone made possible the social and financial success of the dance. In particular they expressed their thanks to His Honor Lieutenant Governor MacKinnon for his courtesy, and to the Guardian and Patriot, and the management of the Prince Edward Theatre, for the generous assistance in bringing the event to the notice of the public.

Col. MacKinnon in his remarks spoke of the remarkable esprit-de-corps which characterized the unit, and of the splendid individual work of the unit while scattered throughout the batteries of the 3rd Division. In his very interesting reminiscences he took his old comrades back through the dark days which preceded the Armistice, from the pleasant experiences

WALL HAD LOST HOPE WHEN HELP ARRIVED

"When I got rid of indigestion I got rid of what I thought was heart trouble, too," recently declared E. J. Wall, well known merchant tailor, of 61 King Square, St. John, N. B., in telling of the benefits he has derived from the Tanlac treatment. "My stomach had troubled me for seven years, so long it seemed like I would never get well. At times gas pains, heart palpitation and smothering spells got so severe I simply felt like I was going to part this life. My nerves got so unstrung I could hardly wait on a customer, and many a night I never closed my eyes in sleep. "My wife used Tanlac with such fine results that I tried it, too, and four bottles made a new man of me. I eat everything, sleep like a child, have gained eight pounds and feel fine. You can't beat Tanlac." Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37 million bottles sold. Take Tanlac Vegetable Pills.

In Halifax through the less pleasant adventures at Ypres, The Somme, Vimy Ridge, Passchendaele, Amiens, Arras, Cambrai to the crowning adventure of November the eleventh five years ago. The tumultuous and prolonged applause testified to the popularity of the speaker in Frasee or Flanders were recalled. Following the Colonel's address a silent toast was drunk to the comrades who did not return. The evening was filled with reminiscences as the boys renewed old acquaintances and reviewed old experiences. Laughter at the adventures with the mules, or in the estaminet giving way to silent retrospection, as, in the telling of the story, the name of some comrade now sleeping in Frasee or Flanders were recalled. Re-unions of such men, who have seen war, know its horrors, and appreciate its terrible cost in tried and true friends should do much to prevent further wars, but at the same time we venture to predict that should war be the only solution, the 11th Brigade Ammunition Column will hold no more re-unions until they return after the signing of the next armistice. This association is an asset to the community and Col. MacKinnon and his comrades are to be congratulated on their very efficient organization.
