—HARD TO PLEASE.—A little incident worthy of mention took place at Wellington last Saturday morning. An aged citizen who was waiting for the train that should take him to the government poorhouse, was prevailed upon by a friend to enter the store of Arsenault & Gaudet and select a cap for himself, for which the friend agreed to pay what ever the cost. But after having the full assortment of caps displayed before him, and tried about a dozen or more, he refused to take any of them. He was hard to please. — M.

—BUTTER PLANT QUESTION.—The question of the day now in Egmont Bay is "how many shares did you take or are you going to take in the Fox Investment?" But another question which is taking up the attention of the people, is the advisability of erecting a butter plant the site of which would probably be at Wellington. A great many people of Egmont Bay, Mt. Carmel, and Wellington would be in favor of such a scheme while many especially of Egmont Bay are of a different opinion. It is quite probable that should such a step be taken, it would be more or less detrimental to the cheese factory at Abrams Village. Some who are in favor of it, but who would not like that the cheese factory shut down, suggest that it be hauled at Wellington. The question is being agitated with great interest, and rightly so, as it is one of the highest importance. — M.

—CAFERRY NOTES.—On Friday evening, Jan. 30th, a very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McMillan, Carleton, when they opened their doors to a merry group of young people, who, knowing the reputation of the home for a good time, came from far and to enjoy themselves. The chief amusements of the evening were games of various kinds and dancing which were kept up until a late hour in the morning when all were sorry to see the approach of dawn. The tables certainly lacked nothing in quantity or quality, and were under the personal supervision of Mrs. McMillan who waited on them with much pleasure in her grand style. Violin music was furnished by Mr. Thomas Campbell of Clermont, assisted by Mr. John McKenna, of Bedouque. Miss Mary Dazwell accompanied them on the organ, rendering excellent music. Solos rendered by Mr. Bernard May and Mr. Thos. McCabe of Covehead, further aided to the enjoyment of the guests. A hearty vote of thanks was extended by all to Mr. and Mrs. McMillan for the kind and hospitable manner in which they were treated, after which the jolly crowd dispersed to their homes with the wish on their lips that they would soon meet again to spend another such evening.—V.

—ENJOYABLE EVENING.—On Feb. 2nd an enjoyable night was spent at the home of Mr. Joseph Poirier, Urbanville. It was a great surprise to the old couple to see sleigh loads of people arriving at their house. But as soon as they understood the situation, they cordially extended hearty reception to all. Their large mansion was placed at the disposal of the guests who enjoyed themselves in various ways. Certain parties preferred to have a game of whist, others who thought this was too quiet betook to music dancing. A special feature of the night was a step dance by the old gentleman Mr. Poirier, others worthy of mention are violin playing by Mr. Alfred Richard and Mr. Peter Gallant. Organ solos by Mrs. Poirier and Miss Edna Arsenault also various songs, etc. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Benoit Arsenault, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Arsenault, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Richard, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Arsenault, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gallant, Mr. and Mrs. Calixte Arsenault, Mr. and Mrs. Hercules Gaudet, St. Nicholas. At a late hour the crowd dispersed but not before Mr. John F. Arsenault in a few well chosen words had expressed the gratitude of all, by conveying the vote of thanks of the guests to Mr. and Mrs. Poirier for their generous hospitality. — M.
