Nurses From All Over World Gather In Montreal Next July

MONTREAL, P. Q. March 26—(By The Canadian Press)—Plans for the Congress of the International Council of Nurses to be held in Montreal July 8 to 13 are rapidly maturing, and a large attendance from all parts of the world is anticipated.

Among the professional associations for women, the International Council of Nurses is by far the largest in the world, having a membership of 132,000 among whom are included only some hundreds of male nurses.

Affiliated with the International Council are 19 national associations. The International Council also has correspondence with nurses, organizations and governments in 28 additional countries.

The International Council of Nurses is the oldest of all international associations for professional workers, having been founded in 1889. In 1893 when Mrs. Bedford Fenwick, as delegate from the Royal British Nurses' Association, founded in 1887 attended the Congress of Representative Women in Chicago, she was entrusted by the founder of the International Council of Women with carrying an invitation to British women to take part in the council's organization.

When the International Council of Women met in London in 1899, a group of British nurses, stimulated by Mrs. Fenwick and other leaders, requested space in the programme for a nursing sub-section. Following a meeting of this sub-section, at the which a number of foreign nurses representing 10 nations were present, it was proposed that an International Council of Nurses be organized. This proposal was accepted unanimously, and a constitution adopted in 1900.

The first congress of the council was held in Buffalo, N. Y., in 1901. In 1904 the congress and first regular meeting of the grand council met in Berlin. A conference was held in Paris in 1907, and in 1909 a congress and the second regular meeting of the grand council was held in London. A congress and the third regular meeting of the grand council was held in Cologne in 1912. There were no meetings during the World War, but in 1923 a meeting of the executive committee was held in Copenhagen. A congress and fifth regular meeting was held in Helsingfors in 1925, and in 1927 a conference and meeting of the board of directors was held in Geneva. The forthcoming congress in Montreal includes the sixth regular meeting of the grand council.

Miss Nina M. Gage, of China, is the present president of the council. Miss Clara D. Noyes, of the United States is first vice-president, and Jean I. Gunn of Canada, second vice-president. The treasurer is Miss E. M. Musson of Great Britain, and the secretary Miss Christiane Reimann.

An idea of how completely the work of the International Council of Nurses covers the world may be obtained from the following membership of the 19 affiliated national associations; of whom it may be said, he "walked humbly with His God." The floral offerings included, Pillow, family; wreaths, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Lane; Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Phillips, Mrs. A. M. Lane and Harry; Messrs. William and Earl Phillips; Spray, W. M. S.; Crescent, pupils of Bunbury School.

In Memoriam

SILAS RITCHIE LANE

Silas Ritchie Lane, son of William and Priella Lane of Mt. Mellick was born sixty years ago. He remained on the homestead until 1902, when he purchased a farm at Cross Roads near Charlottetown. As he was a capable workman, he built a splendid residence there. In 1908 he married Miss Gertrude Phillips, who made him an ideal partner in every respect. Mr. Lane through industry and enterprise succeeded in building up a valuable property, and at the same time won the unstinted admiration of all who knew him by his upright life and noble character. He was naturally a man of retiring disposition, kindly and thoughtful. All his life he was vitally interested in the Church and his Master's Kingdom. As a tribute to his sterling character he was made an elder of the United Church.

Six years ago his health became impaired and although he struggled bravely, he was compelled to sell the farm and retire to Bunbury. Here he lived for a year and a half. Gradually his strength failed under the merciless onslaught of disease. In spite of much suffering, he manifested a patience and cheerfulness, characteristic of the Christian. It was a benediction to visit him. At length on March 3rd, 1929, he fell asleep in Jesus.

He leaves to mourn, a widow and two daughters, viz.—Erma at Winchester, Mass., and Mayme at Wmchester, Mass., and Mayme at Wmchester, Mass., and Mayme at Wmchester, Mass.

A large company gathered at the funeral service, which was conducted by his Pastor, F. H. Littlejohns, assisted by Rev. R. H. Lindsay. By request the hymns sung included "Lead Kindly Light," "Rock of Ages," and "Swiftly and tenderly Jesus is calling." The pallbearers were, Solomon Mutch, Perley Mutch, John McDonald, Herbert Mason, Mr. Molyneux and Duncan Stewart.

At the Clifton Cemetery there was laid to rest the mortal remains of one

CHRISTOPHER BRADLEY

The death occurred in this city very suddenly at an early hour on the morning of February 26th of Christopher Bradley formerly of Fort Augustus, at the comparatively early age of 57 years.

The deceased had been ill about a week with a severe cold and was considered very much improved, when (at almost a moment's notice) he took a weak turn and passed to the great beyond.

He was born in Frenchfort and after his early education he moved to Fort Augustus from whence he decided to make his home in this city.

His was a genial and friendly disposition and it was always a pleasure to meet him. Wherever there was sickness or need of help Christopher was always ready to lend a helping hand. His home was ever open to the traveller and the one in need of rest, and many friends will remember with pleasure the happy hours spent under his roof.

He leaves to mourn his irreplaceable loss his widow who was so suddenly deprived of her companion his sister, Mrs. Plus McKenna, Fort Augustus, and one brother, Daniel, in Massachusetts.

His funeral took place from his late home in Charlottetown to Fort Augustus Cemetery, and despite the cold morning was largely attended. Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Croken, after which all that was mortal of a good kind Christian soul was tenderly laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery.

The pallbearers were: Messrs Peter Holland, Augustus Laverty, Frank Kelly, Joseph Fisher, Patrick Kelly, and Philip Smith. R. I. P.

The following tributes were received.
Wreath—L. P. U.
Mass Cards—Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Holland, James McEwen, Mr. J. A. McDonald, Mary A. McDonald, Miss Maggie McKenna, Miss Maude Trainor, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Trainor, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hermans, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Martin, Mrs. Frank Loughran, Miss Minnie Trainor, Capt. and Mrs. Rosch, Ivan McEwen, Jamaica Plain, Mr. and Mrs. M. Callaghan, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. McInnis, Mrs. Peter

EARL A. SINNOTT
The death occurred in Charlottetown on Tuesday Jan. 15 of Earl Alphonse Sinnott, aged 7 years, beloved son of Michael Sinnott and the late Angeline Cumiskey.

Earl was a bright lovable child, who endeared himself to all who knew him. Since his mother's death four years ago he lived with his grandfather, John D. Sinnott, his uncle Joseph Sinnott and wife Morell Rear.
About five months ago he was stricken with kidney disease and during the last three weeks was under the care of Dr. Ledwell in Charlottetown, but despite all that kind nursing and loving care could do his
