Extensive Search Made For Daring Kidnappers.

ARCADIA, Calif., May 10. — The fullest force of the law, including Department of Justice agents acting upon instructions from Washington, rushed tonight into the search for the kidnappers of William F. Gettle as the family of the oil millionaire proclaimed a willingness to pay "any reasonable ransom demand."

So far as is known, no ransom demand has been made by the two gunmen who invaded Gettle's luxurious estate and snatched him after a midnight swimming party.

The family's ransom offer accompanied by the announced desire to deal directly with the kidnappers, was made by Ernest E. Noon, Beverly Hills lawyer.

Worked Smoothly

The leaders of the search, carried on by every law enforcement agency in southern California, said the abduction had all the earmarks of "big time" snatchers. The manner in which the two masked, armed men did the job so smoothly and deliberately was one factor in this belief.

After a swim in the pool of the Gettle's newly acquired estate, all members of the party except Gettle and James P. Wolf, Westwood furniture dealer, retired to the house. Host and guest went to the recreation hall to change from their bathing clothes. Wolf tells the story from there on as follows:

"Put 'Em Up"

Footsteps were heard on the walk outside and a soft voice said, "put 'em up, gentlemen."

Looking up, Gettle and Wolf saw two young men, masked with handkerchiefs and armed with pistols.

The gunmen ordered Gettle and Wolf to continue their conversation as they marched them past the swimming pool to the east wall of the estate, 100 yards away. Wolf thought it was a holdup and tossed his purse into the shrubbery nearby. The gunmen said nothing until the seven-foot stone wall, surmounted by barbed wire was reached.

Then one of the masked men announced:

"This is not heist (holdup)—it is a snatch."

Against the wall was a step-ladder—one which had been seen on the grounds several days before. Caretakers thought it belonged there. The gunmen took Wolf's and Gettle's neckties and bound their hands, then strengthened the bonds with adhesive tape. Both were gagged.

They tied Wolf to a tree and carried Gettle, who weighs about 200 pounds, up the step-ladder and dropped him over the wall. Wolf heard him groan as he hit the ground on the other side.

One of the kidnappers turned to Wolf and said: "Stay where you are for an hour or we'll kill you."

The gunmen dropped over the wall and Wolf heard an automobile start and move away.

Desperately the furniture dealer struggled with his bonds and finally freed himself. Half an hour later he appeared at the house, the tape still holding his mouth shut, and told what had happened.

Gettle, 46 years old, is reputedly a millionaire many times over, he built his fortune from the oil fields of Oklahoma and California, withdrew from the speculative activities before the crash of 1929 and retired to southern California.

ASCENSION DAY

Montreal Plans Slum Drive

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

MONTREAL, May 10. — A new slum-clearing and housing plan calling for expenditure of $104,000,000 which would tie life insurance to housing and, it is claimed, banish unemployment while raising annual city revenue, is being studied by the executive committee of the City of Montreal at the suggestion of Mayor Camillien Houde, it was learned today.

The new plan is that of James A. Armstrong, local engineer; preliminary financing would call for subscription of $10,000 each by 10 public-spirited citizens to obtain letters patent, charters and secure the necessary options on land.

Development of workers' housing developments, demolition of all slums and insanitary factory and commercial properties, a rent restriction and provision for financing repairs and remodelling are embraced in the plan.

N.S. SHIP HELD IN BOSTON

BOSTON, May 10.—The Canadian motorship Amacitia, seized in 1932 with a large liquor cargo and released on a $26,100 bond, was prevented from clearing the port of Boston today shortly after her engineer had been placed under arrest.

The craft, seized in New Bedford Harbor Nov. 1, 1932, was prevented from leaving port by U. S. Attorney Francis J. W. Ford, who said he was not satisfied with the bond which had been given by the vessel's former skipper, William R. Trenholm, of Halifax, N. S.

Walter Shepard of Halifax, engineer who had been sought for more than a year on an indictment charging rum smuggling, was arrested as he prepared to leave for Pictou, N. S.

The Amacitia was built in 1932 at a cost of $100,000. She allegedly had more than 3,500 cases of liquor on board when seized five years ago.

The boat had just returned from a lobster catch today when her new skipper, Captain Martin Frampton, was informed she would not be granted permission to leave. Officials said they had been unable to collect on an original bond given by a New York corporation which became insolvent and that a new bond had been called for more than a year ago.

GERMANY RE-OPENS ARMS QUESTION

Special Envoy Seeks to Elicit Support Of Britain On Arms Equity Plan.

By Harold P. Braman,
Associated Press Staff Writer
(By Guardian's Special Wire)

LONDON, May 10.—Eleventh-hour German efforts to win British support for Chancellor Adolf Hitler's rearmament policies were said in reliable circles to have failed today.

General Joachim Von Ribbentrop, Hitler's personal investigator and negotiator on arms problems, had a half-hour conference at the Foreign Office, but did not succeed in obtaining promises from Sir John Simon, the foreign Secretary, or Anthony Eden, Lord Privy Seal, on any angle of the disarmament question.

No Promise Made

Likewise, it was authoritatively stated, the general failed to exact a promise that Britain would not oppose moves of certain other powers at Geneva to have the League of Nations Council take a new stand against rearmament by the Reich.

Neither the Foreign Office nor General Von Ribbentrop issued statements, but in reliable circles it was said that the German Envoy's lengthy exposition of German desires for arms equality aroused little enthusiasm, although British officials apparently were glad to know the latest German views.

General Ribbentrop's visit caused a considerable stir in diplomatic circles, and a number of diplomats inquired regarding the nature of the call. Among other visitors at the Foreign Office was Ambassador Dino Grandi of Italy, but officials declined to say whether the Italian discussed disarmament.

Special Envoy

Sir John officially received General Ribbentrop in the latter's capacity as Chancellor Hitler's new special disarmament commissioner and apparently considered the German as Hitler's official personal representative.

German diplomats here, however, did not participate. Only Ribbentrop's personal aide accompanied him to the Foreign Office.

British officials afterwards declined to discuss the matter at length, but indicated that Sir John and Captain Eden were "on the recieving end—merely listening."

On leaving the conference the General said he will "remain in London a few days longer," but he did not reveal the nature of today's conversation or his future plans.

It was learned officially that he did not ask for further conferences with the Foreign Secretary.

(Arthur Henderson, British chairman of the World Disarmament Conference, conferred with Foreign Minister Louis Barthou of France in Paris today, but got no concession which was considered likely to save the coming conference from failure. The French were said in a Paris dispatch to be standing firm on the platform that German rearmament can not be countenanced.)

National Gov't. Not To Contest By-election

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)

HEMSWORTH, Yorkshire, England, May 10—The Hemsworth Conservative Association tonight decided not to contest a coming by-election necessitated by the death of Gabriel Price, Labor member of the House of Commons on the ground that the "life of the present parliament is not likely to be of long duration."

The Association decided to devote its energy to preparing for the next general election when it hopes to place a candidate in the field. Nomination day is next Thursday and the only prospective candidate is George Arthur Griffith who has been adopted by the divisional Labor party.

$7,000 Fire At Cape George

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

CAPE GEORGE, N. S., May 10—Fanned by a 40-mile gale, fire raced today through two houses and three barns in this fishing village, threatening other buildings before volunteer fire fighters brought it under control.

The flames broke out in Smith Ballantyne's home while the men of the village were tending their lobster traps, and it spread swiftly. The adjoining home of Alexander McInnis caught fire and burned down, and sparks spread to the barns.

Summoned from their boats, the villagers hastily formed bucket brigades and after about three hours work managed to stem the fire's advance, though a dozen houses narrowly escaped destruction.

Damage was estimated at about $7,000.

EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS AT SOURIS

Plans Under Way For Holding Congress On Aug. 14-15.

The third Eucharistic Congress of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Charlottetown will be held this year, August 14 and 15, at Souris.

Last year the Congress met at St. Andrews, and on the previous year at Miscouche, the 1932 Congress being the first of its kind to be held in this Province.

On both previous occasions the Congress was very largely attended, and proved of great inspirational value. This year, it is expected, there will be still greater interest and enthusiasm. It is probable that prominent members of the Roman Catholic clergy from mainland provinces will be in attendance, but the arrangements in this regard have not yet been completed.

Acadia Coal Co. Head Appeals To Maritimes

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

HALIFAX, May 10—An appeal to the Maritimes in general to aid the Acadia Coal Company, fighting now for "its very industrial existence," was voiced tonight by F. H. M. Jones, General Manager of the Eastern Trust Company.

The Trust Company is one of the receiver-liquidators of the Nova Scotia Steel and coal Company, which operates Acadia's three collieries in Pictou County. They are about to re-open following settlement of a wage deadlock that tied them up since March 1.

A great volume of business was lost during the idle time, Mr. Jones declared, and now the slack summer period was approaching. There was prospect only for limited quantities of business in Upper Canada, and consequently the company must turn to the Maritimes.

DISPERSE UNEMPLOYED

Police Rout Demonstrators With Barrage of Tear Gas.

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

WICHITA, Kas., May 10. — Four companies of national guardsmen bore down upon a meeting of 400 unemployed demonstrators today and dispersed them with tear gas.

Acting under orders of Gov. Alf M. Landon, the guardsmen had sought to prevent a recurrence of clashes Wednesday in which the demonstrators, protesting against wage scales on work relief projects, beat and stabbed policemen.

Police took into custody 58 men and three women for questioning. Other police were searching for 20 men named in warrants charging them with criminal syndicalism. John Wood, county attorney, said these warrants were issued on the basis of purported statements that the man had declared they would destroy the old Federal building here "stone by stone" and that they had threatened to seize 31,000 sacks of flour stored at a relief bureau.

The mobilization was viewed in some quarters as confirmation of reports that previous disturbances here had been precipitated by paid agitators.

Meanwhile, at Oklahoma City, a fire department hose company was called to the court house to disperse a crowd of nearly 500 unemployed who attempted to storm the office of R. V. Boxer, county relief clerk.

Token Payments Not Recognized In Johnson Act

New Legislation Prevents Credit To Debtor Nation.

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

WASHINGTON, May 10—Word came tonight from authoritative quarters that debtor nations making token payments on their war debt installments next June 5 will not be given guarantees by President Roosevelt that they are not to be considered in default.

These officials said the President had decided that under a strict interpretation of the Johnson Act he could not give any nation which makes a partial payment on its debt official assurance that they will be exempted from its provisions.

Made Enquiries

Envoys of France, Italy, Belgium and Czechoslovakia — who have made inquiries at the State Department during the last three days—have been given that explanation of the present status of war debts.

Great Britain, Italy, Czechoslovakia, Lithuania and Latvia made token payments on the last due date, Dec. 15, and were assured by the President they were not then considered in default.

Passage of the Johnson Act, which prohibits any citizen from extending credit to any nation in default on its debt, caused President Roosevelt to seek an official opinion from Attorney General Homer S. Cummings. In that opinion Cummings held that the five-token payment paying nations were not in default, "at present."

The President has decided, on the basis of that interpretation of the act, authoritative sources explained, that he does not have any authority to give further official guarantees that nations which do not pay their debt installments in full will not come within the provisions of the Johnson Act.

MAKES PLEA TO KIDNAPPERS

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)

TUCSON, Ariz., May 10—Asserting he has received no assurance that his kidnapped daughter will be returned safely, Fernando Robles, father of six-year-old June Robles, today appealed to the abductors to send him new instructions for making a contact.

He promised there would be "no double crossing, no spies, no officers and no entrapment", and at the same time asked the "people and newspapers of the United States" to allow him to pursue negotiations without interference or publicity regarding his moves until he is assured the child is safe.

In his appeal, Robles said he had been able to raise only $10,000 of the $15,000 demanded by the kidnappers when they stole June April 25.

Amicable Adjustment Re War Debts Anticipated

(C.P.-A.P. Cables)
(By Guardian's Special Wire)

LONDON, May 10.—Strong hints were heard here tonight that Great Britain expects a last minute solution of the United States war debt problem as a result of decisions by President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Belief was expressed that Mr. Roosevelt, by emphasizing that Washington stands for collection of the obligations due June 5, but will grant hearings to nations seeking reduced payments, paved the way for moves of some sort that would permit a new debt arrangement.

"Great Britain," one authority said, "is certain that some sort of amicable adjustment will be made before June 5. Britain is eager to discuss any proposal Mr. Roosevelt may have to offer."

Britain maintains her position is different from that of any other debtor. She points out she has as much owing her as she owes the United States and has been willing for years to drop her own collections if the United States will do the same.

Official advices, it was said, had not been received here tonight from Washington regarding President Roosevelt's latest statements. Any decisions will have to be studied at some length when official notices are received, it was pointed out.

A token payment, some circles said, may be sent to the United States in June, regardless of whether negotiations looking toward a complete settlement have been started by that time.

Was Shanghied Claims Insull

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

CHICAGO, May 10. — Prisoner Samuel Insull, once more denied an exit from the county jail for less than $200,000 will answer the United States Government's charge of mail frauds tomorrow with the charge that he was "shanghaied" from the Greek freighter Maiotis.

Floyd E. Thompson, Insull's attorney, announced this as the Insull forces laid one more seige to the jail, lost, and began efforts to bail Insull out at the government's figure — $200,000.

"Mr. Insull will ask for an explanation of his status," said Thompson. "Before he pleads guilty or not guilty to the government's charges."

Austrian Premier Escapes Two Assassination Attempts

(C.P.-Havas)
(By Guardian's Special Wire)

VIENNA, May 10.—Austria's diminutive Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss proved his nerve today when he ignored two violent attempts on his life and addressed a crowd of 20,000 at Salzburg.

Time bombs containing over 10 pounds of dynamite were discovered by the police planted near the aerodrome at which the Chancellor was expected. The charge was said to have been great enough to completely wreck the aerodrome.

Vice-Chancellor Ernst Von Stahremberg and numerous government figures were at the aerodrome, and the discovery was made just before the arrival of the Chancellor.

The wrecking of the train on which conspirators expected Dollfuss was averted by the discovery early this morning that several yards of rail had been removed from the Central Austrian railroad.

The unperturbed Chancellor denounced terrorists attempts to the holiday crowd in which mingled many women picturesquely attired in shawls and alpine headdress with ribbons carrying the words, "Long Live Dollfuss."

Prince Starhemberg also spoke stressing Austria's readiness for peace with Germany, if her independence were safeguarded.

"German Austria must remain Austrian and does not want to become Prussian at any price," asserted the Vice-Chancellor.
