"TILL ME MEET" POWERFUL, TIMELY

Seldom has a picture been presented at a time when audiences everywhere are deeply and personally concerned with its basic theme, Paramount's "Till We Meet Again" is the story of an American officer in France whose life is saved by a member of the famous Maquis, a beautiful French girl.

With American soldiers fighting beside the Free French and aided by the underground network of the F. F. I., this magnificently dramatic story which arrived today at the Prince Edward Theatre, stars Ray Milland and beautiful Barbara Britton.

As the eyes of the world are focused on France and her desperate fight for freedom, the spirit behind these historically momentous days is graphically shown in 'Till We Meet Again," with portrayals of French Underground workers in their days of greatest sacrifice and peril.

Under the delicate direction of Frank Borzage, a beautiful wisp of a romance is worked into the story as the little French girl who lived in a world without men, joins the handsome strange American and, through days and nights of danger and horror, lives by his side in the guise of his peasant wife.

Included in the strong cast which brings this epochal drama to life are Lucile Watson, Walter Slezak, Konstantin Shayne and Tala Birell.

If you are a housewife, here is a tribute which you have richly earned.

To you, Madam, we want to say this. We of General Foods know how much planning and ingenuity you have had to use to keep your family happy when wanted goods have been scarce. We know the demands that hard shopping conditions have made on your determination, good humour and nervous energy.

If you are a grocer, this is an appreciative message for you, too.

We know the strain you have been under in running your grocery business well in spite of food shortages, spotty distribution and scarcity of help.

As a major factor in the industry, we ourselves have carried a responsibility. We have tried to distribute our products with fairness to all and feel that we have been reasonably successful.

• • •

But without the co-operation of housewives and grocers, and of our employees who have done their part so loyally, no such success could have been possible.

We offer you our sincere good wishes for 1945. We hope to have a continuance of your splendid co-operation. For, however well our best hopes for the future are fulfilled, the effects of the war will not speedily be overcome.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. EDISON HEANEY

On December 10th at Clinton there passed to her eternal reward, Nellie Maria Dunning, beloved wife of Edison Heaney, after a long and trying illness which was borne with singular patience and Christian fortitude. To all those who waited on her in her last months of suffering was revealed a nature of unusual sweetness and strength of character. She never murmured nor complained but upon learning that her disease was fatal she set about putting her earthly house in order and finished preparing for her heavenly Home.

On the morning of December 10th when it was evident that her time to go had come, her little ones were gathered at her bedside. She told them not to cry as she was no worse, "only tired." Soon after her weary spirit took flight.

Mrs. Heaney was the youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Dunning of Clinton and leaves to mourn besides a large circle of friends and relatives, her sorrowing husband and mother-in-law Mrs. Edith Heaney and her three children, Eric age 12, Robert age 10 and little Gloria age 7. Also her two sisters Myrtle (Mrs. Stephen Bertram) of Fredericton and Miss Mae Dunning, R.N., of Jersey City, N. Y., to all of whom is extended sincere and heartfelt sympathy.

The funeral was held from her late residence on December 12th and despite inclement weather was largely attended. Her pastor Rev. Mr. Fraser who had been so kind to her during her illness, conducted the short but beautiful service and paid fitting tribute to one who had been a vital part of the home, the church and the community for a life-time and in each place her influence for good was felt.

The following hymns which were favourites of the deceased and were chosen by her, were sung, "Forever With the Lord", "The Lord's My Shepherd", and "The Sands of Time Are Sinking." Mr. Whit Bentley of Charlottetown sang with much feeling "Sometime We'll Understand."

As the beautiful old hymns and the lovely solo were sung, many there thought of her who so many times sang His praises with voice and by instrument and of the many years that she took her place and gave of her fine talent to the church choir.

The floral offerings were beautiful—a silent tribute to the departed.

Pillow—Mother—The Family.
Crescent—A. A. Dennis
Spray—Aunt Edith, Charlie and Albert.
Spray—Brookins Family.
Wreath—Stephen, Myrtle and Family.
Spray—Florence and Horace.
Spray—Aunt Ruth, Uncle Wilbur, Aunt Bertie and Uncle Bert.
Wreath—Ethel and Reagh Bagnall.
Spray—Clinton W. I
Spray—Dr. and Mrs. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Matheson.

The pall bearers were old friends of the deceased and were as follows:—Hugh Glover, Judson Woodside, Charles Woodside, John O'Connor, Bert MacKay and Thomas Sullivan.

Many times during her months of intense suffering in the still watches of the night, she asked her nurse, Mrs. Crossman to read the following Poem to her and from it she seemed to draw strength. She would smile and say "It is beautiful." It was read at the funeral service by request by her pastor.

"The hills ahead look steep and high,
And often we behold them with a sigh,
But as we near them, level grows the road,
We find on every slope, with every load,
The climb is not so steep, the top so far?
The hills look harder than they are.
There never comes a hill—a task — a day,
But as we near it, easier grows the way."

She was laid to rest in the Margate Cemetery and to those whose lives touched hers she has left blessed memories which time cannot erase, and in their gardens of remembrances, her name shall ever be fragrant and beautiful.

MR. DANIEL J. CARMICHAEL

On Sunday, November 26th, there passed peacefully away, Mr. Daniel J Carmichael of Fairville, in his 78th year. For some months previous he did not enjoy his usual good health altho he was up and about his home every day. He was taken suddenly ill the day previous to his death. He was attended by his physician who saw that the end was near. His pastor Rt. Rev. Mons. M. McDonald administered Extreme Unction and a few moments later his spirit passed away.

The late Mr. Carmichael was noted for his bounteous hospitality, and was supported by his wife who possesses the same good qualities which make an ideal home, where all classes and creeds were welcome.

Naturally an excellent entertainer to both young and old, he was always a welcome visitor among his numerous friends who will cherish his memory and pray that his reward may be great.

Endowed by Almighty God with musical talent and possessing a rich medium baritone voice he sang his first service in his parish church, Vernon River, on Christmas morning 1892, and continued to give constant, faithful and intelligent service for forty-six years. We hope and pray he is now privileged to join with the myriads of Angels in singing endless hymns of joy and glory in the visible presence of his Creator.

He leaves to mourn his passing his wife (nee Teresa Campbell) two daughters and two sons, Margaret (Mrs. J. Daze), Montreal, Hilda, (Mrs. J. Ennis) Greenfield); Duncan, R.C.N.V.R., Halifax; John in homestead; also an adopted son and daughter, Harold Woodbury and Mary McDonald and one sister Mrs. John Praught, Alberry Plains. One sister Martha (Mrs. John Bradley) and two brothers Charles and Robert predeceased him a few years ago.

His funeral to St. Joachims Church, Vernon River on Wednesday, 29th was very largely attended, notwithstanding the almost impassable condition of roads.

High Mass of Requiem was celebrated by the Pastor, Rt. Rev. Mons. M. McDonald, the choir was assisted by Mr. M. E. Power, Fort Augustus.

Pall bearers were: Messrs. Duncan Carmichael, Louis J. Reid, John Whelan, Leo Wood, Herman Gill, Regi Walsh.

May his soul rest in peace.

Over 80 Mass Cards received and many letters from sympathetic friends in Province, Canada and U. S. 1-4-1i.

MRS. JAMES MITCHELL

On November 17, 1944, there passed peacefully away at Cornwall, Mrs. James Mitchell in her eighty-fifth year. The deceased had enjoyed good health until a short time before her death, when age began to leave its imprint and her health began to fail until on the above mentioned date God called her to His Eternal Home.

Possessing a kind and cheerful disposition, she endeared herself to all who had the privilege of her acquaintance. Her kindly deeds and the hospitality of her home merited for her a wide circle of friends who will ever cherish the memory of one who was a faithful friend.

A member of the Clyde River Presbyterian Church, she was a devout Christian woman and was always ready to do her share for the welfare of Christianity.

The late Mrs. Mitchell (Hannah MacFadyen) was born at Kingston, a daughter of the late Archibald and Mrs. MacFadyen. After her marriage to James Mitchell she lived for many years in North Wiltshire where she and her husband were a well-beloved couple. Later they moved to Cornwall and since the death of her husband some twenty-four years ago, she made her home with her only daughter, Mrs. Mackieson Vickerson of Cornwall by whom she was tenderly cared and by whom she will be sorely missed. Besides her daughter, she leaves to mourn two sisters, Mrs. William Auld, Charlottetown and Mrs. Johnstone Mann, Kensington.

The funeral was held on Sunday, November 19th. A short service was held at the Cutcliffe Funeral Home. The remains were then conveyed to the Clyde River Presbyterian Church where the funeral service was held. The service was conducted by Rev. G. C. Webster, assisted by Rev. J. S. Skinner. A large number of mourners and friends paid silent tribute to a loved one gone to rest. The hymns sung were: "The Lord's My Shepherd," "Abide With Me" and "Forever With the Lord."

Interment was in the Clyde River Presbyterian cemetery.

The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Bertram and Ira Auld, John MacNevin, Frederick Beer, Millar MacFadyen and Roscoe MacDonald.
