BARN STRUCK BY LIGHTNING—O'Leary and district was visited by a very severe thunder and lightning storm with torrential rains on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 20th. There were several heavy and vivid flashes of lightning one of which struck the new barn of Mr. Basil Gallant of Carleton Lot six, about five miles from O'Leary and tore a large hole in it, but fortunately the barn did not catch fire. The flash scattered some lumber and buried the sow and some young pigs but they were not hurt, this correspondent was informed. All in all, it was a very narrow escape.—O.

TRINITY TRAIL RANGERS met in the boys room in Epworth Hall this week under the leadership of Mr. Louis Beseau. The devotions were based on the third article of the Trail Rangers code. "A trail ranger is friendly, a brother to all, irrespective of their race, creed or color." After the initiation ceremony took place the boys began their Pathfinder degree and all badges were discussed. A period of recreation consisting of a game of soccer was enjoyed before the meeting.—S.
