IMPORTANT READING MATTER SELECTED FROM THIS WEEK'S NEWS FOR THE GUARDIAN'S SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY.

The death occurred at Savage Harbor Friday of Donald Morrison, father of Rev Dr James Morrison, of Vernon River, and formerly of Charlottetown. The deceased was a gentleman of sterling character and held in high esteem in the community. He has two sons in the ministry, Rev. Dr. Morrison in Vernon River and Rev. Dr Morrison in California.

—The death occurred in the Boston City Hospital several days ago, of James A. Gain, aged 40 years, a native of Lot. 11, P. E. Island. He went to Boston twenty-two years ago and visited his old home three years ago. In social and fraternal bodies, deceased was very prominent, perhaps the largest of these was St. Patrick's Total Abstinence and Literary Society, a subordinate branch of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of America. The Intercolonial Club, composed of Canadians, of which he was a member, sent a standing wreath of flowers.

The splendid operating table donated by the late lamented Dr. F. F. Kelly, has been added to the surgical equipment of the Charlottetown Hospital. The table is the best appointed and most up-to-date operating table that is manufactured. It contains all the modern improvements and all the facilities for doing difficult surgical work. It will prove a most valuable addition to the excellent surgical equipment of this fine institution, and is thoroughly appreciated by both the medical men and the Superioress and Sisters in charge of the institution.

The half-yearly examination took place in the school on Wednesday, the fourth of the present month. The pupils were examined by their teacher, Miss Sadie McPherson, on the following branches:—reading, spelling, writing arithmetic, grammar and geography. They showed by their reading that they had a perfect knowledge of their punctuation, which shows good training in school. Their spelling for children so young in years, was very good, as was also their grammar and geography, which is evidence of the great pains their teacher has taken with them. The trustees were all present and showed by their remarks that they were well pleased with the teacher's method of teaching, and the advancement of the school in general. The visitors present considered the scholars had improved very much since the last examination, which shows that the teacher has for her first school made a decided success of her work. At the close of the examination, the scholars gave a number of recitations which were recited very satisfactorily. The teacher and trustees treated them to a large supply of candy and nuts, which made the children glad they were there.

On The Verge Of A Breakdown

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills the Only Hope for Weakened Nervous People.

This warning will be read by thousands of people who only just succeed in getting through the day's work without a breakdown. If you feel always tired out, have but little appetite, and a poor digestion, cannot sleep well, suffer from headaches, backaches and nervousness, it may mean that you are on the verge of a serious breakdown.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure weak nervous, troubled men and women because of their direct action on the blood. Every dose of these Pills helps to make new, rich blood, which tones the vital organs, strengthens the nerves and brings renewed health and strength. Mr. Geo. Johnson, of Lequille, N.S., suffered for some years as a result of overwork and strain, but found no help for his condition until he began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Mr. Johnson says:—"while working on a railway handling heavy ties I hurt my back and had to give up work. Later I was able to do light work, but for about six years I suffered from dreadful pains in the back and down my legs. This condition became aggravated by indigestion and chronic constipation, and my life was one of constant misery. During those years I was treated by different doctors, but did not get any help. One day a friend urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and proved his faith in them by presenting me with a box. It was more to please him than from any belief that they would be of service to me that I began taking the Pills. Before the box was finished, however, they seemed to be helping me; the pains in my back and legs grew less intense and the bloating in my stomach, caused by the indigestion disappeared. I continued taking the Pills until I had used over a dozen boxes, when I found myself fully restored to my former health. I am now able to do heavy farm work, and for the past year have not lost a day, or had the least symptom of my former troubles, and I attribute it entirely to the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all medicine dealers or may be had by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

The death occurred on Jan. 16th at the home of his uncle, John Pollard of Alberry Plains, of Leo Acorn, son of the late Benj. Acorn, at the early age of 21 years. Mr. Acorn was a bright and interesting boy and will be greatly missed by all who knew him. Besides a large circle of friends and relatives two brothers and two sisters are left to mourn.

"One less on earth,
Its pain, its sorrow and its toil to share;
One less the pilgrim's daily cross to bear,
One more the crown of the blessed to wear
At home in Heaven."

—There passed away at Melcin, Michigan, on the 14th November last, William J. O'Malley, in his 41st year, of typhoid fever, leaving a disconsolate widow and five children to mourn a kind and loving father and husband, besides five brothers and two sisters who were by his bedside when the end came. The deceased was a son-in-law to James Corcoran, of Piusville. His widow has the sympathy of her many friends in P.E. Island.

A letter of condolence has been forwarded to Mrs Golding Howard Cornwall, which reads as follows: The members of the Quarterly Official Board of the Cornwall circuit met in special session at Kingston, on Wednesday, Jan 4th., 1911. Dear friend we of the Cornwall circuit met in special unanimously wish to extend to you in your recent sorrow and bereavement our deepest and heart felt sympathy. We pray for you that in your trial you may be sustained and guided by the all wise and loving Father of mankind, who knows and understands our cares and troubles even better than we do ourselves, "God moves in a mysterious way His wonders to perform" and we cannot understand the ways of Providence, but we know that His ways are best, "For as the heavens are higher than the earth so are His ways higher than our ways and His thoughts than our thoughts." We thank God for the life that he gave and which he has now taken to himself. We miss the face and and wise counsels of your late husband yet we rejoice to known that our loss is his gain and while here he may assist us no longer in the flesh, yet he is a higher and nobler service even in the eternal sphere. For twenty-five years did he fill the office of Recording Steward faithfully as well, as many other important offices in the gift of the church. We valued highly his ability and clear sightedness as he endeavored to guide us through the many difficulties with which we found ourselves now and then surrounded. We feel the loss keenly and cannot fill the breach which death has made in our midst and thus we realize that we can but dimly understand the loss which you have sustained. Again we pray for you and your family that by divine grace you may be enabled to rest upon the precious promises of our father God. May the trial be sanctified to your spiritual welfare and may it but make spiritual and eternal things more real, may bring heaven nearer to earth, and may God and Christ and all the blessings and comforts of religion be to you bright and living realities.

Signed on behalf of the Quarterly Official Board, Rev. Hugh Miller, J. Pope Crosby, John Pethick.

A very pleasant event took place at the home of Neil McKinnon, Clyde River, on Thursday evening, when a committee of five waited on Mr. McKinnon and presented him with an address, a beautiful Morris chair and a well filled purse. The meeting was called to order by appointing William Scott to the chair. Mr. Scott, in a few well chosen words, explained the object of the meeting. He then called on W. F. Fraser, who read the address. He next called on Daniel McDonald, who presented the chair, leading Mr. McKinnon and seating him therein. He next called on Colin Fraser, who presented Mr. McKinnon with a well filled purse. Mr. McKinnon was wholly taken by surprise at the unexpected kindness of the donors, and in a few well chosen words and feeling remarks thanked the committee for their kind expressions of good-will and also for the beautiful chair and purse, but what he valued most of all was the kindly words of good-will, hoping that he might retain their confidence in the future.

Neil McKinnon:

Dear Sir:—We, a few of your friends and well-wishers, desire to take this opportunity of expressing our heartfelt appreciation of your heroic efforts, and at the risk of your own life, in breaking in a window and entering into the burning, seething building and carrying out the lifeless form of the late lamented Paul McPhail, and the unsuccessful efforts you made in trying to remove the burning form of his aged sister, the late Catherine McPhail. And now, dear sir, please accept this chair and purse as a tangible expression of our respect and good will for you, in the same spirit that it is given, while we remain your friends and well-wishers: Daniel M. Donald, Colin Fraser, Archibald McDonald, Robert McPhail, W. F. Fraser, committee.

TUESDAY.

...The death occurred at Allisary, near Mount Stewart, on Saturday, of John McDonald, brother of His Lordship Bishop McDonald of Charlottetown. He was 73 years of age and unmarried. He was a quiet and unassuming gentleman, held in high esteem by all his acquaintances. He had been in failing health for some time. Besides his brother he leaves one sister, Mrs. McPhee, Georgetown. The funeral took place yesterday morning to St. Andrew's Church, being held at the same time as that of the late Donald Morrison, father of Very Rev. Dr. Morrison, Vernon River.

The death was announced yesterday of Mrs. Donald Matthews which took place at Albany on Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Matthews, who was an estimable lady in every sense of the word, was eighty-three years of age and even at that ripe age retained all her faculties to a remarkable degree. She was a faithful and consistent member of the Presbyterian Church and in her life she exemplified all the true Christian graces of a good woman. The majority of her latter years were spent between the home of her son at Albany and with her son, J. Ewen Matthews, City Councillor. The Guardian extends sympathy with the bereaved. It is regrettable that Mrs. Matthew's son at Albany is also ill at his home.

At the Supreme Court yesterday morning, before Mr. Justice Fitzgerald and a jury, the case of Alex. McFadyen, vs Angus Cameron, executor, etc., an action for wages, was taken up. The summing up of course on both sides and the judges charge to the jury were concluded late in the afternoon, and the jury after a deliberation of about fifty minutes returned a verdict for plaintiff for $35.00. J. J. Johnson, K. C., for plaintiff, C. Gavin Duffy for defendant. Court then adjourned until this morning at ten thirty.

Local fur dealers, furriers and trappers will be interested in the following Paris despatch of recent date:—Pleasant news for wealthy women is contained in a report from the French Consul at St. Petersburg to the effect that the hunting returns for the last few months in Siberia promise a reduction in the prices of furs. Common foxes, ermines, martens and white foxes are abundant. Squirrels are scarcer than in 1909. Ermine, which was quoted at the beginning of the winter at 2.75 rubles ($1.38), has fallen to 2.25 rubles ($1.13), compared with 2.90 ($1.45), and 3 rubles ($1.50), for the same articles in 1909. Marten was quoted at 13 rubles ($6.50), as compared with 19 ($9.50), the previous year, and white fox at 15 rubles ($7.50), as against 25 and 30 rubles ($12.50 to $15), in 1909.

On Wednesday, December 28th, at 7 p. m., the wedding took place of Miss Clara Bonnell, daughter of Capt. M. H. Bonnell, Hopefield, to John D. Livingstone, High Bank. The ceremony was performed at the manse, Murray River, by the Rev. A. J. McNeill. After the ceremony the happy couple drove to the home of the bride's parents. Only the nearest relatives and the most intimate friends being present. The house was handsomely and appropriately decorated for the occasion. The dining room was exquisitely trimmed, completing the harmonious blending of colors and carrying out a very appropriate color scheme, and centred was a table laden with a sumptuous repast. The bride wore a most becoming suit of grey panama cloth with hat to match, and was attended by Miss Christina Livingstone, while Duncan Livingstone acted as groomsman. The presents bore evidence of the popularity of the contracting parties, being numerous and expensive. Included among the gifts was a cheque from the bride's parents. The young couple drove to their home in High Bank,—accompanied by the good wishes of their host of friends.

Consul Frank Deedmeyer, Charlottetown, writing to the Consular Trade Report says: Hides and skins to the declared value of $34,600 were exported in the year 1909 from Prince Edward Island to the United States. Owing to the lower prices prevailing during the summer and fall of this year, these exports have fallen off about 50 percent. Prices paid at Charlottetown and Summerside in November 1909, were: Unassorted beef hides, 12½ cents per pound; calfskins, $1.20 per skin; sheep pelts, 30 to 70 cents per pelt. Present prices are: Unassorted beef hides, 10 cents; calfskins, $1.10; and sheep pelts, 40 cents to $1. Most of the beef cattle raised in this Province for the market is slaughtered in Newfoundland and Nova Scotia. Live-stock returns collected by the Dominion Government in 1909 gave these results: Horses, 2,132,489; milch cows, 2,849,306; other cattle, 4,384,779; sheep, 2,705,390. In the fiscal year ended March 31, 1909, Canada exported raw skins and hides to the value of $4,029,676, and of this total there went to the United States $3,844,843 worth. In the last fiscal year these exports to the United States amounted to $5,847,775. Canada exported raw hides and skins in the fiscal year ended March 31, 1909, to the value of $5,049,830 and from the United States to the value of $1,443,971. In the last fiscal year these imports from the United States were $1,769,420.

AS GOOD AS HAVING A DOCTOR IN THE HOUSE

That is what thousands of mothers say of Baby's Own Tablets. These Tablets promptly and surely cure all the minor ills of babyhood and childhood, and what is more they are absolutely safe—they have never been known to harm the youngest baby—they never will harm anyone—they are good for babies of all ages. Concerning them Mrs. Wm. Higgins, Karn, Ont., writes:—"I shall never be without Baby's Own Tablets in the house as long as my children are small. They are a wonderful medicine and are as good as having a doctor in the house. I gave them to my little boy for colic and they quickly cured him. I am always glad to recommend them to other mothers." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

The death of Mrs Tobias Murray, Emyvale, which occurred very suddenly on New Year's Day, came as a severe shock to relatives and friends. Mrs Murray, with her family had watched the New Year in, when she, the beloved wife and mother, was stricken with heart failure and before her spiritual adviser could reach her side, had passed away, leaving to mourn their loss, a husband, eight children, a mother, one brother and one sister. The deceased lady was a model Christian mother and neighbor and was only forty years of age. The funeral took place on Jany 3rd to St. Ann's Church, Lot 65, Rev Father Curran singing the funeral mass.

The telephone cable connecting this Province with the mainland which was laid down several months ago and which had been giving splendid satisfaction lately has broken. On Friday morning it was found that communication was suddenly cut off. It is thought that drift ice, becoming grounded near one of the shore ends of the line severed it. At any rate the break has not yet been located and it is doubtful if anything can be done before spring.

—A farmers' meeting was held in Tryon Hall on Jan. 16th at 3 p. m. Pres. Cameron was chairman and considering the state of the weather a fair number of farmers and others were present. The chairman introduced Prof. Ross who said in reference to the absence of R. Robertson, of Nappan Experimental Farm, who was to have addressed the meeting, that he had started for P. E. Island but had been recalled. The Professor spoke first on dairying, then touched on fruit growing and gave a fine address on the rotation of crops, ending with a short talk on the growing and selling of good seed grain. A lively discussion followed on the different points touched by the speaker. Special reference was made in regard to the practice of certain of our P. E. Island farmers selling produce of a very inferior quality, and the following resolution was passed unanimously:—Whereas it has been brought to our notice through the press, of the selling of a quantity of oats to a Summerside dealer, that was totally unfit for feed, and whereas this practice, if persisted in, will eventually ruin our markets in the other provinces:—therefore resolved, that it is the opinion of this meeting that the name of the person who sold the lot of oats in question should be published in the press.

Yesterday afternoon there were quite a large number of skaters on the Hillsboro Bay which, in spots, afforded ample opportunity for those in search of this popular form of recreation to thoroughly enjoy themselves.

The track made by the Earl Grey in coming into and leaving this port made the ice around the Marine wharf and other wharves east of it decidedly unsafe and besides so roughened the surface that skating near it was poor.

A. Ellsworth, City, was among the skaters who was out for an afternoon's exercise and had been skating around Connolly's wharf. Finding this spot not very good he decided to go towards the Hillsboro Bridge and accordingly started out, moving in the direction of the Earl Grey's track.

Coming to the track itself he noticed the dark and unsafe appearance of the ice. He decided to take a quick jump and glide across this spot with the momentum of his stride. He did this and his plans miscarried. The ice gave away and he went in to the neck and, grasping the broken edge in time, prevented himself from going under with the current.

About three hundred yards behind him was John McKinnon, of the Rogers Hardware Co., with a couple of friends. Mr. Ellsworth called out and Mr. McKinnon came to his assistance By the aid of the latter's hockey stick he regained the surface of the strong ice and then fished out one of his boots which he had been carrying on his shoulder. The other was out of his reach.

Without McKinnon's assistance Mr Ellsworth would, doubtless, have experienced much difficulty in getting out as each attempt made to haul himself over the edge of the weak ice resulted in it breaking under his weight. Another factor in the happy termination of what might not have been otherwise than a fatal accident was Mr. Ellsworth's presence of mind, which, though he was in a decidedly dangerous position, never forsake him. Mr. McKinnon's prompt response to Mr. Ellsworth's call and the invaluable aid rendered are commendable. The latter will now receive the hearty congratulations of his many friends on his narrow escape.

The ice in the harbor is as yet none too safe outside of the bushes track and in the track of the Earl Grey it is positively dangerous. It was reported last night that a team had broken through, while being driven over this danger zone.

Another skater got in up to the hips yesterday afternoon off the Marine Wharf but did not experience any great difficulty in recovering the stronger ice.

A stronger warning than the result which might have attended Mr. Ellsworth's accident should not be necessary to those who in future skate on the harbor ice.

Perfection won! What? The match race with "Fleet," a well known race horse in the eastern section of this Province, and now the property of Harry Douse, St. Avard's.

Yesterday afternoon was a gala day on East River, when hundreds of citizens turned out to witness the match race between "Perfection" and "Fleet."

The race took place on the East River ice, a few yards west of the Hillsboro Bridge.

The race started near the north side of the river and finished at a mark near Southport wharf.

"Perfection" is without doubt one of the handsomest carriage stallions in this Province and he never showed off to better advantage. He won the race in easy style in three straight heats and his speed surprised everybody. The action of his muscles and joints worked like machinery and he certainly looked more like a painting than a living animal made up in harness. His driver, P. S. Brown, handled him to the best of advantage, allowing him to lag a safe distance behind until a few yards to the finish, when he "let him out" and easily came in a winner in every heat.

This was "Perfection's" first race in this Province and few people knew speed was in him. He has always been admired for his unexcelled build, action and style, and was believed to be only a perfect driving stallion. Besides having the above qualities, he has now shown the public to have speed. Yesterday's race has proven this. It is only fair to remark that "Perfection" was eleven weeks in his stall before he was given any workouts.

The race was over a three-quarter mile course, and for a purse of $50,-00. It is also stated that the purse was the smallest part of the money he won — there being many very large wagers on the result.

The officials were:—Starter—Roy Mason, Southport; Patrol Judges — Joseph Crabbe and John Cameron; Finish judges—David White, York Point; Francis Hughes and Charles Snow, city.

NOTES.

One of the handsomest, fastest and best gated trotting horses on the ice was the 3 year old colt, "Baron Wood," driven by W. S. McKie. This beautiful young horse is by "Oakley Baron." Henry Hooper, city, was "Fleet's" driver.

Nearly all the city speeders were out in full force and the brushes between heats were most exciting. Charles Chandler's pacer appeared to be "cock of the ice" and was greatly admired. Others there with their flyers were:—R. H. Sterns, with Ed. C.;" John Cameron, with Betsey Cameron, W. S. McKie, with "Baron Wood;" Hooper Horne, Byron Brown, Francis Hughes, Roy Mason, John White and scores of others.

Regrets were expressed on the absence of Ronnie Steele, with "Lena Wood," and John Henderson, with "Meadowvale." Business certainly came the latter's way yesterday and he followed the good old motto, "Business before Pleasure."

The ice was in good condition and it is hoped that this race is but the forerunner of many to follow. A subscription list was started yesterday to establish a fund to conduct a series of ice races, and it is hoped the movers will meet with ready response from lovers of this sport.

To the parents of the late sister Nicholson.

It is with heartfelt sympathy that we, the members of Union Division, express our sorrow at the loss of your daughter Lydia, our sister whose early death is deeply mourned by you and all connected by the ties of nature. As members of our Order we learned to appreciate her sterling qualities and the loss of such a member is keenly felt by us. We are brought face to face with death every moment, but God's ways are not our ways.

We turn away therefore from earthly wisdom to those great and enduring promises given us by Him who came to comfort the sorrowing.

We do so remembering that our late sister's faith in God was well founded; and may God thus lead us on until in that better day there shall be a reunion when sorrow and pain shall be no more. Submitted in L. P. & F. Com.—Sis. M. McLeod, P. Howard, E. C. McKay, D. J. Matheson, D. N. McKay.

DOCTORS TELL HOW "CUTICURA" CURED SKIN DISEASES

One says, "I have Great Faith in Cuticura Remedies." Another, "They Always Bring Results."

"I wish to let you know of a couple of recent cures which I have made by the use of the Cuticura Remedies. Last August, Mr. —— of this city came to my office, troubled with a severe skin eruption. At first I could not understand the nature of the case. I finally traced it to his occupation, as he was a painter and decorator. It was dermatitis in its worst form. It started with a slight eruption and would attack parts of his body—thighs, elbows chest, back and abdomen—and would terminate in little pustules. The itching and burning was dreadful and he would almost tear his skin apart, trying to get relief. I recommended all the various treatments I could think of and he spent about fifteen dollars on prescriptions but nothing seemed to help him.

"In the meantime my wife who was continually suffering with a slight skin trouble and who had been trying different prescriptions and methods with my assistance, told me she was going to get some of the Cuticura Remedies. But I did not know much about Cuticura at that time I was doubtful whether it would help her. Her skin would thicken, break and bleed, especially on the fingers, wrists and arms. I could do nothing to relieve her permanently. When she first applied the warm baths of Cuticura Soap and applications of Cuticura Ointment she saw a decided improvement and in a few days she was completely cured.

"I lost no time in recommending the Cuticura Remedies to Mr. ——, and this was two months ago. I told him to wash with warm baths of the Cuticura Soap and to apply the Cuticura Ointment generously. Believe me, from the very first day's use of the Cuticura Remedies he was greatly relieved and to-day he is completely cured through their use. I have great faith in the Cuticura Remedies and shall always have a good word for them now that I am convinced of their wonderful merits." (Signed) B. L. Whitehead, M.D., 108 Dartmouth St., Boston Mass., July 22, 1910.

As though in confirmation of this most convincing statement, G. M. Fisher, M.D. Big Pool, Md., writes: "My face was afflicted with eczema in the year 1897. I used the Cuticura Remedies and was entirely cured. I am a practicing physician and very often prescribe Cuticura Remedies in cases of eczema, and they have cured where other formulas have failed. I am not in the habit of endorsing patent medicines, but when I find remedies possessing true merit, such as the Cuticura Remedies do, I am broad-minded enough to proclaim their virtues to the world. I have been practicing medicine for twenty years, and must say I find your Remedies A No 1. I still find the Cuticura Remedies as good as ever. They always bring results."

Cuticura Remedies are sold by druggists everywhere. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston, Mass. Mailed free, on request, latest 32-page Cuticura Book on the speedy treatment of skin diseases.

WEDNESDAY

A large circle of friends will hear with deep regret of the death of William Chandler, an old and highly respected citizen of this city which occurred very suddenly about eleven o'clock yesterday forenoon, he having been smitten with an attack of paralysis about half an hour previously. Deceased was for many years steward on the S.S. St. Lawrence, plying between this Province and the mainland, and was well and favorably known by all. Besides his widow, he leaves to mourn two sons, George of the P. E. I. R., and Fred, traveller for Auld Bros., and two daughters, Mrs. F. H. Seller and Mrs. J. R. Copp of St. John, who have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

The death occurred at his sister's residence, Mrs Peter Nicholson, of Clyde, of John Dan McLennan a son of Murdoch McLennan, Hartsville, in the 13rd year of his age. The deceased formerly lived at Quincy, Mass., where he was engaged in dressing and polishing marble monuments which work had injurious effects upon his health. He then came home and purchased a large farm in Rose Valley, but owing to failing health he sold it recently and moved to Clyde, where he would have the tender care of a loving sister. There he passed away on Sabbath 15 of Jan. His wife predeceased him a little over a year ago and three orphans are now left to mourn the watchful care of loving parents.

The sad news of the death of Miss Annie Johnson, city, which occurred last evening will be learned with genuine regret throughout the city. Miss Johnson passed away last evening after a comparatively brief illness. The deceased was a daughter of the late Dr. Richard Johnson, city, and a sister of R. M. Johnson, druggist, city, and Arthur Johnson, Toronto. The late Miss Johnson was a prominent member of the First Methodist Church and took an active part in all departments in which woman's work was necessary. She labored faithfully for her Master and His Church and in her death the latter has lost one in whose place it will be difficult to substitute one whose work will be marked with that degree of wholeheartedness which was so evident in the deceased. With her friends and acquaintances she was one especially esteemed and by the members of the family was greatly beloved. The hosts of friends of the deceased and her relatives will join with The Guardian in tendering heartfelt sympathy.

Perhaps one of the most earnest Y. M. C. A. workers in the State of Indiana is Dr. E. P. Moore, South Bend, a son of Theo. and Mrs. Moore, city. The Y. M. C. A. is very active in South Bend and Dr. Moore is connected with practically every upward and onward step the institution there takes in advancing its work. Recently he was elected one of a committee of five who will attend a meeting of the National Committee of 97 in charge of the proposed men and religion movement which is taking such a hold on religious institutions in the sister nation. This committee meets in Chicago. A movement to establish a fund toward the support of secretaries in foreign fields found a strong supporter in Dr. Moore, who was one of the first of ten men who gave $100 each to the fund. He was instrumental in completing the stated sum fixed for the fund, $1,200, and, intellectually, Dr. Moore is of inestimable value to the Y. M. C. A. of South Bend. A First Aid course of eight lectures, to be delivered weekly, finds Dr. Moore's name on the initial lecture with more to follow. It is just such an energetic worker as Dr. Moore is who places this institution in a position to render most effectual service and makes it possible for it to attain the realism of its aims and objects.

Angus Matheson has disposed of his pure bred Leicester ram to M. Gillis, Junction Road.

The death occurred suddenly in the P. E. I. Hospital last evening of C. W. Kielly, Stanley Bridge.

The deceased entered the Hospital but a few hours before his death, suffering from anaemia. He was a comparatively young man and when in his customary good health was energetic and active. He was inspector of schools for Queen's County, having served in that capacity for a number of years past. He was a capable official, was well qualified educationally for the important position he held and which he so efficiently filled.

He leaves to mourn a widow, three sons and three daughters, besides a number of other immediate relatives. To these The Guardian tenders its sincere sympathy.

The funeral of the late Benjamin Rogers took place yesterday afternoon at two-thirty.

The attendance was very large and bore fitting testimony to the respect in which a deceased citizen had been held.

The procession, headed by the Masonic Fraternity, of which the deceased was a prominent member (and also a Shriner), was an impressive one and the ceremony at the grave was conducted by Rev's T. F. Fullerton and Wm. Harrison, the former conducting the beautiful ritualistic ceremony of the Masons.

The following are some of the floral tributes.

Mrs. Rogers, pillow.
Mrs. Hunt, wreath.
George Rogers, star.
Ben and Mrs. Rogers, crescent.

$3.50 Recipe Cures Weak Kidneys, Free

Relieves Urinary and Kidney Troubles Backache, Straining, Swelling, etc.

Stops Pain in the Bladder, Kidneys and Back.

Wouldn't it be nice within a week or so to begin to say goodbye forever to the scalding, dribbling, straining, or too frequent passage of urine; the forehead and the back-of-the-head aches; the stitches and pains in the back; the growing muscle weakness; spots before the eyes; yellow skin; sluggish bowels; swollen eyelids or ankles; leg cramps; unnatural short breath; sleeplessness and despondency?

I have a recipe for these troubles that you can depend on, and if you want to make a quick recovery, you ought to to write and get a copy of it. Many a doctor would charge you $3.50 just for writing this prescription, but I have it and will be glad to send it to you entirely free. Just drop me a line like this: Dr A. E. Robinson, K1821 Luck Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send it by return mail in a plain envelope. As you will see when you get it, this recipe contains only pure, harmless remedies, but it has great healing and pain-conquering power.

It will quickly show its power once you use it, so I think you had better see what it is without delay. I will send you a copy free—you can use it and cure yourself at home.
