

THE KING'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Offices in Montague, Capt. W. A. Johnstone, Agent, and in Souris, A. J. McDonald, Agent.

The latest news, first of all.

There departed this life at Marie, on July 29, 1910, Harriet L. McEwen, beloved wife of Thomas Webster, aged 73. Besides a sorrowing husband she leaves to mourn a brother and sister, one son and two daughters, and many friends who deeply feel the loss of one who was beloved by all who knew her.

The Montague Rifle Association intend holding their annual prize meet on Saturday, September 3rd beginning at 1 p.m. sharp. All members are requested to be present.

KEPT THEIR MARRIAGE SECRET FOR 11 YEARS.

BRISTOL, Pa., Sept. 1.—Although Miss Mary Yonker of West Bristol township, and Charles Patterson, son of Deputy Factory Inspector Dr. James Patterson, were married in Trenton eleven years ago, they have just made that fact known to their friends.

Blackhand was two weeks ago sentenced to serve a year in jail for horse stealing at Duck Lake. While waiting for a train the Indian went under guard to a lavatory, escorted by Constable Lavolette. Nearby was a fence and taking a running start Blackhand scaled it and got away.

SIoux CHIEF IN POLICE NET.

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask., Sept. 1.—Joseph Blackhand, a Sioux desperado, is in the Victoria Hospital here with a mounted policeman assisting the nurses to care for him.
