Well Known Chef Recommends Pastry Flour

The following letter received by Mr. Geo. S. Robson, manager of Charlottetown Milling Co., Ltd., speaks for itself:

The Charlottetown Milling Co, Ltd
Charlottetown, P. E. I.
Gentlemen:—

Permit me to offer my congratulations on your very successful efforts to manufacture a first grade pastry flour.

It has been my privilege to use many well known brands of pastry flour in the course of my experience, but I am pleased to tell you that I never used any flour that gave me better results.

I find it takes a lot less shortening to make a crisp, flakey, nutritious crust, it is very easy to work and very light in color, and I feel that I can honestly recommend it to all users for biscuits and all other pastry.

Yours very cordially
GEO. T. CRAWFORD.

ASQUITH CRITICIZES POLICY OF BRITAIN.

LONDON, Oct. 10. —Former Premier Asquith, leader of the Independent Liberals, speaking at Dumfries, last night and referring to the Near Eastern crisis, said the official communication issued by Downing Street on September 16 sounded a double note of provocation and panic.

Mr. Asquith challenged the earliest publication of the communications passing between the government and General Harington, commander of the British forces in Turkey.

The freedom of the Straits, said Mr. Asquith, was of international importance, but not exclusively or mainly of British interest.

Breeders Meeting And Matinee Races

The Charlottetown Driving Park Association have very generously given their track free and the horsemen are putting on two Matinee Races for Wednesday, Oct. 18th, the proceeds are to be divided between the two orphanages. Owners desirous of giving their horses time records may do so at this meeting. The Matinee races will be real good ones. The class A trot, including as probable starters: Mary Pickford, Mack Todd, Princess Aubrey, Alice the Great, The Yank, James W. McKinney. The Pup, and possibly others while the pace will have Nellie D., Chief Aubrey, Commodore K., R. G. A., Prince, Judson Lad, and Winnie M. as contenders. Some dozen owners are expected to seize the opportunity to give standard records to their horses which is 2.30 or better for trotters and 2.25 or better for pacers. A time record is a proof of performance and makes a horse more valuable.

Among those who will probably have a wrestle with Father Time are Land League, Marjorie, Stella Todd, Baby Todd, McCallums Aubrey, Mickey B., Teddy, etc., all trotters and the likely pacers are Zua Baughman, Dover's Mare, Chief Aubrey, Commodore K., R. G. A., Nellie D. etc.

STABBING AFFRAY AT GRAND DOWNS NEAR NEWCASTLE.

NEWCASTLE, N. B., Oct. 10. — As a result of a stabbing affray that took place at Grand Downs, last evening, George Royal, aged about fifty, is in the Miramichi Hospital in a critical condition and Vincent Albert, aged thirty, is in the local jail charged with attempted murder, which charge may be amended to murder.

Both men are residents of Grand Downs, and from reports, Albert and his mother were driving down the road past Royals, and the latter was in the yard of his home. Albert called Royal and when he came over said; "What's all this talk about?" Royal replied that he made no talk whereupon Albert drew his jackknife and stabbed Royal in the back. The blade entered just below the right shoulder blade, and made a nasty wound about four or five inches long through which the lung protruded. Albert then got into the wagon and drove off.

Deputy Sheriff Doran was notified and left here accompanied by Dr. McGrath about ten o'clock last night and drove to the scene of the affair.

On arrival they found Royal suffering badly and bleeding profusely from the wound which was dressed, and he was rushed to the hospital.

Albert was arretsed at his own home.

The knife with which the stabbing is alleged to have been done is an ordinary pocket knife with a blade about four inches long.

Royal is well known in Newcastle, having resided here fo some years. He served overseas with the 132nd battalion.

Giants to Get $4,121,83 Each

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Deducting receipts for the second game of world's series, which was a tie, amounting to $120,554, which will be turned over to charity, the total receipts for four games amounted to $484,981.

Of this the players share is $247,409.71. The Giants and Yankess received 75 per cent. and the other 25 per cent, goes to clubs finishing second and third in each league.

Each player of the Giants will receive approximately $4,121.83 and each player of the Yankees $2,967.71.

Huggins to Lead Yankees Again if he so Desires

(Special to The Guardian.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.— Miller Huggins will manage the New York American League Club in 1923, if he cares to continue in the position which he has hel for the last few seosons.

This was the substance of a statement issued today by Colonel Jacob Ruppert, president of the Yankees, in refuting a report from the west that Eddie Collins, of the Chicago White Sox, was to manage the local American League Club next season.

"Huggins will manage the team in 1923 if he wants to," Colonel Rupert frankly said. "Of course," he added, "we'll have to come to a financial agreement, but that shouldn't be difficult. The Yankees never decrease a man's salary —they increase it. Pshaw! I don't see how these reports originate. "Any Club would like to have Eddie Collins. He's a great ball player, but"—and the colonel smiled broadly—"Miller Huggins can manage the Yankees if he wants to."

Colonel Ruppert was not so lirect in discussing the possibility of a general shake-up of the team which has lost two successive world's series to the New York Giants. "We have no deals pending," he said. "Mind you, we must strengthen the club to make a deal. That's what Huggins says and that's what I say."

"Do you contemplate trading Babe Ruth?" he was asked.

"We'll trade any man if we can strengthen the club," the colonel repeated.

"Where do you think the club needs to be strengthened?" was another query.

"Well, it's a good ball club, but if we can get a better man at any position than the one we now have at that position, we'll make a trade if we can," he replied.

Asked if he thought that Huggins' reported impaired health would prevent him from continuing at the helm, the colonel answered in the negative.

"I don't think so," he said. "Huggins isn't sick. He's a delicate man, you know, and he's run down. He needs a rest, that's all."

From well-informed quarters the report is persistently repeated that Ruth is to be given stiff discipline. He was almost a total failure in the world's series, at least at bat, though he did make a pretty sacrifice in yesterday's game that enabled a Yankee runner to score later. Not only for his work in the world's series but for the constant tub of hot water in which he steeped himself all this season is the Bambino to be punished; according to these reports.

Similar stories predict something dire for Bob Meusel, who was Ruth's partner in exile in the forepart of the season when they were kept out of the game for flouting the authority of Commissioner K.M. Landis. Some critics assert that Meusel was very indifferent throughout the world series.
