Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills

Cure Rheumatism
 owe their singular effectiveness in curing Rheumatism, Lumbago and Sciatica to their power of stimulating and strengthening the kidneys. They enable these organs to thoroughly filter from the blood the uric acid (the product of waste matter) which gets into the joints and muscles and causes these painful diseases. Over half a century of constant use has proved conclusively that Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills strengthen weak kidneys and

A large and thoroughly appreciative audience listened last night in Hertz Memorial Hall to Dr. Andrew MacPhail in his lecture on the French Occupation of P. E. Island. As was expected the lecture was an intensely interesting one, descriptive of the privations and the struggles of the early French settlers. His Worship Mayor Lyons occupied the chair. A cordial vote of thanks, moved in felicitous terms by Mr. Justice Fitzgerald, seconded by Rev. Dr. Gauthier was tendered the lecturer and suitably acknowledged. Before the lecture some excellent piano selections, in duets, were given by Professor Thompson, and Miss Katie Stanley.

A very pleasing event took place at high noon yesterday at the residence of A. J. Jardine, Euston Street, Charlottetown, when his sister Amelia A., daughter of the late William Jardine, Head of Hillsboro, became the wife of William M. Gunn, son of the late Angus Gunn, of Head of Hillsboro. The ceremony was performed, in the presence of about twenty guests, including the immediate relatives and friends, by Rev. R. P. Murray, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Mt. Stewart. The bride, who was given away by her brother, A. J. Jardine, was unattended. She wore a beautiful costume of white marquisette, over muslin, with lace and pearl trimming. There was a large number of handsome and valuable wedding presents. The groom's gift to the bride was an amethyst and pearl pendant. The bride is a graduate of the Boothby Surgical Hospital and has been engaged in nursing for a number of years. After a dainty lunch, Mr. and Mrs. Gunn left by the afternoon train for Summerside, whence they leave this morning, enroute to Western Canada where they will make their home.
