It is a pleasure to note the excellent make up of the Mother's Magazine, the August number of which is to hand. This publication is enlarging its scope each month, and is worthy of the highest approval.

The Annual Prize meeting of the Provincial Rifle Association takes place next week, commencing on Tuesday, August 14th at 8.30 o'clock. The time sheet is now ready at the office of the Secretary, Major Barrett, and entries can be made at any time now. The early entries receive the best selection of time.

CORRESPONDENTS should remember that to ensure early appearance of correspondence all matter sent in should be cut down as much as possible. Every attention is paid to correspondence but it is impossible to get everything in as written, especially when as of late many communications are being received each day.

A LATE issue of the Worcester Evening Post contains a well written article on The Canadian as a citizen. The writer is James B. Conson, a native of this Province, now circulation manager of the Post, and he deals comprehensively with his subject, showing what a large number of Canadians have attained high positions in various walks of life in the United States.

The Village Green correspondent writes quite a number of Charlottetown children are visiting here. Mrs. James Mitchell, Miss Susan Mitchell, and Miss Lona Gay have returned home after visiting friends at Covehead. James Mitchell and Peter Jackson have sold their valuable mares for a very handsome sum. Andrew Corrigan has returned to his old home. The people of Village Green are pleased to hear that Alphonsus Corrigan is recovering from a severe attack of illness.

Those who want work of any kind or are looking for help of any kind should send their names and addresses with all particulars or call at The Guardian Employment and Information Bureau, New Prowse Block, Charlottetown, Telephone 132A. Those who do not desire to advertise will please send 25 cents with their request, which amount will be returned to them on application if they do not get what they want.

SATURDAY'S Magazine Guardian will contain the first half of a historical article on the Brehaut family, members of which came to Murray Harbour from the Island of Guernsey in the year 1808. This year the anniversary of that event was celebrated by the descendants of these pioneers, and at the unveiling of a memorial to commemorate the event, this article was read. It is from the pen of James Hedley Brehaut, of Roxbury Mass., and is the result of much care, research, and time expended. It is a most exhaustive and interesting recital of the history of the writers family.

The train arrived last night at 8.50. YESTERDAY'S Guardian had 83 classified ads.

THE Northumberland arrived last night at 8.55.

REV. W. T. SUCKLING, left yesterday morning on a visit to his home in Truro.

THESS Aranmore arrived yesterday morning at four o'clock, from Montreal. She had a large number of passengers.

THE Polino sailed from this port Tuesday with the following cargo: 828 packages of produce and a deck load of cattle.

Mrs. KATIE BRIDGEN who has been visiting in the city, left last week to visit friends in Nova Scotia. Miss Jean Moore accompanied her.

Mrs. SYLVAN McCABE and infant, of Halifax, accompanied by Roy McCabe of San Francisco, California, arrived by the Pretoria, on her last trip.

JOSEPH MONAGHAN, Vice-Principal of Queen Square School, is visiting his sister, Rev. Sister St. Charles, Providence, R. I. He is the youngest brother of Rev. Dr. Monaghan, Miscouche.

The third instalment of entrance money for the stake races to be held on the Charlottetown Driving Park in October next, fall due and must be paid on Wednesday next, the 15th inst., when also the horses must be named.

The noticeable improvements effected by the newly laid granolithic sidewalks, especially on Queen street, is most commendable, and the subject for congratulations. Efforts are also being made to improve the crossings, etc. All that is now necessary to make the streets fairly beyond reproach is to have the loose stones raked off.

WORD and Works, that excellent monthly published by the Rev. R. Hicks, St. Louis, Mo., is full of good reading for those who take an interest in the sun, moon, stars, and all subjects of a sidereal nature. The forecast of the weather for August contains no alarming features, though the heat of the past few days was predicted and more warm weather is foretold. Astronomy is not the only topic discussed. Medicine and health is learnedly discussed, and the home is treated in an original manner.

The Pretoria, called at 8.15 yesterday morning with the following passengers: W. Ziegenfuss, M. S. Huttenstine, H. B. Poliwka, and wife, Annie Jenney, G. H. Ely, G. H. Thompson, H. Polk, M. S. John Ryan, Rev. P. J. Gillis, Mgr. Richard, Mrs. D. J. McMillan.

The Rose Valley correspondent of The Guardian writes: Hay is considered an excellent crop. It is pleasing to see so many of our old friends visiting their homes. Misses Margaret E. and Lottie E. McKenzie, were visiting in Fernwood, the guests of George and Mrs. McFarlane. Among those who have gone on the harvest excursion are D. H. McKenzie and Frank Nicholson, and their many friends will be sorry to learn of their departure. The garden party which took place a few evenings ago at the home of Kenneth Gilts was a grand success, and much praise is due the young men of Bradalbane for their good attendance. Donald Kennedy of Bradalbane, and Fred W. McKenzie of Shamrock, are visiting Rose Valley, the guests of Murdoch H. McKenzie. Mrs. William Anderson who has been visiting her parents, Robert and Mrs. Todd, will leave in a day or two for her home in Moncton, N. B.
