

By Far the Largest Daily Circulation in this Province.

THE CHARLOTTETOWN GUARDIAN

MORNING Daily Catches All Early Morning Mails.

MORNING DAILY FOUNDED 1891 WEEKLY (NOW RURAL DAILY) 1887

CHARLOTTETOWN, PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND, CANADA, MONDAY, JULY 5, 1909.

20c A MONTH BY MAIL IN ADVANCE $2.00 PER YEAR BY MAIL IN ADVANCE

SAD DROWNING ON SATURDAY

SUMMERSIDE, July 3.—(Special by Phone)—About noon on Saturday Alexander C. Gallant and his brother of Egmont, Bay, were in a boat when it suddenly swamped and went down. Alexander was carried some distance from the boat and having heavy boots and oiled clothes on, was unable to reach the boat and sank. His brother caught the mast and was rescued in an exhausted condition. There were only about seven feet of water at the spot. The body was found a few hours after the accident took place. Mr. Gallant was forty four years of age and leaves a widow and seven children.

TERCENTENARY CELEBRATED AT BURLINGTON, SATURDAY

BURLINGTON, July 4.—(Special)—The elaborate celebration which New York, Vermont and Canada planned for the observance of the discovery of Lake Champlain was formerly begun Saturday with special religious observance of unusual impressiveness. The story of Champlain's coming to this section, the importance of his exploration to religion and history were all related in churches by descendants of the French who accompanied the intrepid explorer, and by descendants of the American pioneers and Indians with whom they fought. The program for the ensuing week includes a number of elaborate spectacular items.

MUCH INDIGNATION WAS AROUSED

WINNIPEG, July 4.—(Special)—Great indignation has been aroused by a false interview with Gen. Otter, telegraphed from Winnipeg to American papers. In it Otter is made to say that the United States could not beat Canada in twenty-five years, that it would be another Philippine war in which Canada would win, that Kitchener would meet with greater success as a departmental store manager than in his present position as a soldier, and that he had more excited certain American towns than he appeared. Otter absolutely denies every connected with it.

SIDNEY PATTESON FOR ACADIA COLLEGE

WOLFVILLE, July 4.—(Special)—Prof. Sidney Patteson of the Colorado state university will become professor of English literature, at Acadia.

ALASKA-YUKON-PACIFIC EXPOSITION ATTENDANCE

SEATTLE, July 3.—The Attendance for the first month of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition, according to an official statement given last night, amounted to 267,971. President J. E. Chiberg stated that the net profits for the month amounted to $80,000. The number of complimentary admissions is considered small, being placed by fair officials at 27 per cent.

DIVORCE COURT OPENS TUESDAY

FREDERICTON, July 4.—(Special)—Judge McKeown, recently appointed to the New Brunswick bench, will open a divorce court on Tuesday, with the largest docket ever entered in the history of the court. Five cases are to be tried this term and two others may be entered. Two are defended.

CALLED TO RESCUE FALLEN AERONAUT

BOSTON, July 4.—(Special)—The fire department was called out to rescue an aeronaut who had fallen with his balloon on the business blocks of Washington street and was hanging over an alleyway between seven and five storey blocks at the corner of Washington and Milk Streets.

NEW MILLION DOLLAR FIELD IS DEDICATED

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 3.—Forbes Field, the new million-dollar home of the Pittsburgh Baseball Club, and the largest and finest amusement stadium in the world, was dedicated today with appropriate ceremonies. A total of 30,388 paid admissions passed through the turnstiles to witness the game between Chicago and the home team. This is a world's record for paid admissions for a ball game.

SHOCK FELT IN CALIFORNIA

DOWNIEVILLE, Cal., July 3.—For over a week earthquake shocks have been felt here every night and the residents of this part of Zierra country are getting uneasy, as they fear an eruption of Mount Fillmore, which seems the center of the disturbance. Miners, fearing cave-ins, are refusing to work underground.

WELSH MINERS THREATEN TO STRIKE

LONDON, July 3.—The country threatened with another serious crisis. The new mines eight miles from Cardiff, which are to be worked by the British and American soldiers, has led to a dispute between the mine owners and the miners which is expected to result in a lockout of all Welsh miners. A conference of the Miners' Federation of Great Britain was held in London last night and a resolution was adopted promising to support the Welsh miners, and, if no settlement of the dispute is reached, to call a national strike of all the miners in the Kingdom.

SYDNEY PATTERSON INHERITS $1,000,000

CHICAGO, July 3.—If Leonard Loeffler, six years old, has fallen heir to a fortune of $1,000,000 his mother will be sorry. It has been reported among the relatives of the late William Loeffler that his will, which will be probated this week, bequeaths his entire fortune, amounting to $1,000,000, to his grandson, Leonard, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Loeffler, and this intimation moved Mrs. Loeffler, to express the hope that her son might not inherit riches.

DOUBLE DROWNING NEAR MONTREAL

MONTREAL, July 3.—Mrs. Devenish wife of Fred Devenish, of the editorial staff of the Montreal Witness, and Jack Cain, were drowned this afternoon by the upsetting of a dingy in which they were enjoying a sail.

CHOICES DOMINION DAY TO END LIFE

TORONTO, July 3.—Albert Frost, a young unmarried man, chose Dominion day to end his life by jumping from Rosdale bridge to the ground, a distance of one hundred and twenty-five feet. He was instantly killed.

DIVORCES WIFE WHO DRANK AND SMOKED

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 3.—George M. Burns, manager of the Railway Steel Springs Company, has just received a decree of divorce. It was his second suit. The defendant was Clara M. Burns, of Detroit, who contested the first suit, which was dismissed last November.

STOPS RUNAWAY AUTO FOR GIRL

SAN RAFAEL, Cal., July 3.—Miss Caroline Burtis, the 17-year-old daughter of a wealthy resident of Huntington, N. Y., toally owes her life to Harold Gibson, a youth of this city. The two young people were automobile driving near this city yesterday when a part of the brake gear was lost.

THE NAMES OF DEAD AND INJURED

YARMOOUTH, July 2.—The names of the dead and injured by the gasoline explosion at the railway station at Shag Harbor have been learned. The dead boys, who were about 10 and 12 years old, are—Bernard Kendrick and Frank Crosby. The injured—Sydney Nickerson, Harold Crowell, Wilfred Smith, Arnold Garron, Hopkins. The injured boys are reported to be doing well. Dr. Banks, coroner, held an inquest and the jury rendered a verdict that the boys' death was caused by the explosion of some unknown inflammable material in a tank, which they say should not have been allowed to stand so long on the platform.

SYDNEY BOYS GET SIX MONTHS

SYDNEY, July 2.—In the supreme court two young boys, McCauley and Young, were each sentenced to six months in jail. The two lads are between fourteen and seventeen years of age. It was adjudged that on March 1st, 1909, the boys, disguised, awaited the coming of the Jew named Brown, as the man was passing with a team they jumped from the woods onto the highway and each leveled a pistol at the head of their quarry. The two western highwaymen demand "Hands up," at the same time each firing a shot from the revolver over the Jew's head to acquaint him of the fact that the arms were really loaded. The Jew was scared out of his wits and instantly obeyed the summons.

CHAIR IN AVIATION FOR PARIS SCHOOL

PARIS, July 3.—Henry Deutch has given the University of Paris $100,000 and an annual subvention of $3,000 for the establishment of an aerotechnic institute to facilitate and systematize technical research with a view to perfecting apparatus for locomotion.

REVIVED BY ELECTRICITY

WORCESTER, Mass., June 2.—Afterside had been officially declared dead at 2.19 o'clock yesterday afternoon and his body had been placed on a truck to be removed to the morgue from a cot in the City Hospital, Joseph Remillard, aged 40, of this city, was restored to life by use of electricity, and he is reported to be improving, although his name is still on the dangerous list.

HARVARD HONORS DR. C. W. ELIOT

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., July 3.—Former President Charles W. Eliot, of Harvard University, has been elected president emeritus of the institution, according to an announcement made tonight. The honor was bestowed on Dr. Eliot yesterday by the Harvard corporation at the regular meeting. It was stated tonight that there is a stipend connected with the honorary office, based on a percentage of his salary, but the amount was not made public. Since his retirement as president on May 19, Dr. Eliot has had no official connection with the university. The election of Dr. Eliot as preacher emeritus is the first of the kind in the history of the university.

KILLING FOLLOWS PRACTICAL JOKE

ATLANTA, July 3.—Because of a practical joke E. G. Williams of the fidelity and Casualty Company of New York is dead, Charles Beardsley, suffering from dangerous wound and Donald M. Bain, one of the most prominent insurance men in Atlanta is under arrest on a charge of murder. The tragedy occurred in an office in the Prudential Building shortly before 7 o'clock this afternoon. Williams, who had a desk in Bain's office, had been out of town. When he returned this afternoon he found a placard on his desk saying he had been sent to the insane asylum at Millidgeville.

FACE CHARGE OF POLYGAMY

BOSTON, July 3.—Charged with polygamy, John A. Eisnor, a prosperous contractor and builder of West Newton, formerly Lunenburg Co., N. S., was arrested today and held in $500 for the grand jury. The police presented a certificate in court showing that Eisnor and Alice C. Wenzel, aged 30, a native of New Brunswick, were married in 1898 in West Newton by Rev. E. H. Burt. Another document indicated a marriage on June 19, last of Eisnor and Forrest M. Archibald, aged 35, in Boston, by Father W. Van Allen, rector of St. Basil's (Episcopal). The first Mrs. Eisnor has been living in Nova Scotia some time.

AT OLD HARVARD

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., July 2.—At the commencement exercises of Harvard University held last week the largest number of Canadian graduates in the history of the University received degrees from the various departments. Very few of the Canadians are not graduates, most of them studying in the Graduate or Professional Schools, entering with degrees from Canadian universities. In the Graduate Schools six Canadians received the Ph.D. degree, the highest given by the University. Never before have so many been given to Canadian in one year.

OTTAWA CHINESE CLASSES

OTTAWA, July 3.—Every Anglican church in this city will replace the women's Sunday school teachers of the local Chinese students with the young men teachers. The change will come into effect next fall, when the Chinese classes reopen for the winter. The decision was reached last night at the quarterly meeting of the local assembly of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, which body has jurisdiction over the Chinese work of every Anglican church in the city. Representatives were present from all the Anglican churches.

UNITED STATES FINANCES

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 3.—The excess of Government disbursements over receipts for the fiscal year to date is $93,173,000. This sum is likely to be reduced by tomorrow's transactions to approximately $92,500,000. The customs receipts for the year will fall but little short of $200,000,000, and the internal revenue receipts will be about $245,000,000. The gain in custom receipts over last year will be about $15,000,000, with a loss of about $2,000,000 in internal revenue. The surplus for June probably will reach $5,000,000.

MINARD'S LIMBMENT USED BY PHYSICIANS

Minard's Limbment used by Physicians FAIR AND COOL. TORONTO, July 5.—(Special)—Moderate to fresh westerly to northwesterly winds mostly fair and comparatively cool. The length of today will be fifteen hours and twenty minutes.

FACE CHARGE OF POLYGAMY

BOSTON, July 3.—Charged with polygamy, John A. Eisnor, a prosperous contractor and builder of West Newton, formerly Lunenburg Co., N. S., was arrested today and held in $500 for the grand jury. The police presented a certificate in court showing that Eisnor and Alice C. Wenzel, aged 30, a native of New Brunswick, were married in 1898 in West Newton by Rev. E. H. Burt. Another document indicated a marriage on June 19, last of Eisnor and Forrest M. Archibald, aged 35, in Boston, by Father W. Van Allen, rector of St. Basil's (Episcopal). The first Mrs. Eisnor has been living in Nova Scotia some time.

FACE CHARGE OF POLYGAMY

BOSTON, July 3.—Charged with polygamy, John A. Eisnor, a prosperous contractor and builder of West Newton, formerly Lunenburg Co., N. S., was arrested today and held in $500 for the grand jury. The police presented a certificate in court showing that Eisnor and Alice C. Wenzel, aged 30, a native of New Brunswick, were married in 1898 in West Newton by Rev. E. H. Burt. Another document indicated a marriage on June 19, last of Eisnor and Forrest M. Archibald, aged 35, in Boston, by Father W. Van Allen, rector of St. Basil's (Episcopal). The first Mrs. Eisnor has been living in Nova Scotia some time.

FACE CHARGE OF POLYGAMY

BOSTON, July 3.—Charged with polygamy, John A. Eisnor, a prosperous contractor and builder of West Newton, formerly Lunenburg Co., N. S., was arrested today and held in $500 for the grand jury. The police presented a certificate in court showing that Eisnor and Alice C. Wenzel, aged 30, a native of New Brunswick, were married in 1898 in West Newton by Rev. E. H. Burt. Another document indicated a marriage on June 19, last of Eisnor and Forrest M. Archibald, aged 35, in Boston, by Father W. Van Allen, rector of St. Basil's (Episcopal). The first Mrs. Eisnor has been living in Nova Scotia some time.

FACE CHARGE OF POLYGAMY

BOSTON, July 3.—Charged with polygamy, John A. Eisnor, a prosperous contractor and builder of West Newton, formerly Lunenburg Co., N. S., was arrested today and held in $500 for the grand jury. The police presented a certificate in court showing that Eisnor and Alice C. Wenzel, aged 30, a native of New Brunswick, were married in 1898 in West Newton by Rev. E. H. Burt. Another document indicated a marriage on June 19, last of Eisnor and Forrest M. Archibald, aged 35, in Boston, by Father W. Van Allen, rector of St. Basil's (Episcopal). The first Mrs. Eisnor has been living in Nova Scotia some time.

UNITED STATES FINANCES

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 3.—The excess of Government disbursements over receipts for the fiscal year to date is $93,173,000. This sum is likely to be reduced by tomorrow's transactions to approximately $92,500,000. The customs receipts for the year will fall but little short of $200,000,000, and the internal revenue receipts will be about $245,000,000. The gain in custom receipts over last year will be about $15,000,000, with a loss of about $2,000,000 in internal revenue. The surplus for June probably will reach $5,000,000.

UNITED STATES FINANCES

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 3.—The excess of Government disbursements over receipts for the fiscal year to date is $93,173,000. This sum is likely to be reduced by tomorrow's transactions to approximately $92,500,000. The customs receipts for the year will fall but little short of $200,000,000, and the internal revenue receipts will be about $245,000,000. The gain in custom receipts over last year will be about $15,000,000, with a loss of about $2,000,000 in internal revenue. The surplus for June probably will reach $5,000,000.

UNITED STATES FINANCES

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 3.—The excess of Government disbursements over receipts for the fiscal year to date is $93,173,000. This sum is likely to be reduced by tomorrow's transactions to approximately $92,500,000. The customs receipts for the year will fall but little short of $200,000,000, and the internal revenue receipts will be about $245,000,000. The gain in custom receipts over last year will be about $15,000,000, with a loss of about $2,000,000 in internal revenue. The surplus for June probably will reach $5,000,000.

UNITED STATES FINANCES

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 3.—The excess of Government disbursements over receipts for the fiscal year to date is $93,173,000. This sum is likely to be reduced by tomorrow's transactions to approximately $92,500,000. The customs receipts for the year will fall but little short of $200,000,000, and the internal revenue receipts will be about $245,000,000. The gain in custom receipts over last year will be about $15,000,000, with a loss of about $2,000,000 in internal revenue. The surplus for June probably will reach $5,000,000.

UNITED STATES FINANCES

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 3.—The excess of Government disbursements over receipts for the fiscal year to date is $93,173,000. This sum is likely to be reduced by tomorrow's transactions to approximately $92,500,000. The customs receipts for the year will fall but little short of $200,000,000, and the internal revenue receipts will be about $245,000,000. The gain in custom receipts over last year will be about $15,000,000, with a loss of about $2,000,000 in internal revenue. The surplus for June probably will reach $5,000,000.

UNITED STATES FINANCES

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 3.—The excess of Government disbursements over receipts for the fiscal year to date is $93,173,000. This sum is likely to be reduced by tomorrow's transactions to approximately $92,500,000. The customs receipts for the year will fall but little short of $200,000,000, and the internal revenue receipts will be about $245,000,000. The gain in custom receipts over last year will be about $15,000,000, with a loss of about $2,000,000 in internal revenue. The surplus for June probably will reach $5,000,000.

UNITED STATES FINANCES

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 3.—The excess of Government disbursements over receipts for the fiscal year to date is $93,173,000. This sum is likely to be reduced by tomorrow's transactions to approximately $92,500,000. The customs receipts for the year will fall but little short of $200,000,000, and the internal revenue receipts will be about $245,000,000. The gain in custom receipts over last year will be about $15,000,000, with a loss of about $2,000,000 in internal revenue. The surplus for June probably will reach $5,000,000.

UNITED STATES FINANCES

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 3.—The excess of Government disbursements over receipts for the fiscal year to date is $93,173,000. This sum is likely to be reduced by tomorrow's transactions to approximately $92,500,000. The customs receipts for the year will fall but little short of $200,000,000, and the internal revenue receipts will be about $245,000,000. The gain in custom receipts over last year will be about $15,000,000, with a loss of about $2,000,000 in internal revenue. The surplus for June probably will reach $5,000,000.

UNITED STATES FINANCES

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 3.—The excess of Government disbursements over receipts for the fiscal year to date is $93,173,000. This sum is likely to be reduced by tomorrow's transactions to approximately $92,500,000. The customs receipts for the year will fall but little short of $200,000,000, and the internal revenue receipts will be about $245,000,000. The gain in custom receipts over last year will be about $15,000,000, with a loss of about $2,000,000 in internal revenue. The surplus for June probably will reach $5,000,000.

UNITED STATES FINANCES

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 3.—The excess of Government disbursements over receipts for the fiscal year to date is $93,173,000. This sum is likely to be reduced by tomorrow's transactions to approximately $92,500,000. The customs receipts for the year will fall but little short of $200,000,000, and the internal revenue receipts will be about $245,000,000. The gain in custom receipts over last year will be about $15,000,000, with a loss of about $2,000,000 in internal revenue. The surplus for June probably will reach $5,000,000.

UNITED STATES FINANCES

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 3.—The excess of Government disbursements over receipts for the fiscal year to date is $93,173,000. This sum is likely to be reduced by tomorrow's transactions to approximately $92,500,000. The customs receipts for the year will fall but little short of $200,000,000, and the internal revenue receipts will be about $245,000,000. The gain in custom receipts over last year will be about $15,000,000, with a loss of about $2,000,000 in internal revenue. The surplus for June probably will reach $5,000,000.

UNITED STATES FINANCES

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 3.—The excess of Government disbursements over receipts for the fiscal year to date is $93,173,000. This sum is likely to be reduced by tomorrow's transactions to approximately $92,500,000. The customs receipts for the year will fall but little short of $200,000,000, and the internal revenue receipts will be about $245,000,000. The gain in custom receipts over last year will be about $15,000,000, with a loss of about $2,000,000 in internal revenue. The surplus for June probably will reach $5,000,000.

UNITED STATES FINANCES

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 3.—The excess of Government disbursements over receipts for the fiscal year to date is $93,173,000. This sum is likely to be reduced by tomorrow's transactions to approximately $92,500,000. The customs receipts for the year will fall but little short of $200,000,000, and the internal revenue receipts will be about $245,000,000. The gain in custom receipts over last year will be about $15,000,000, with a loss of about $2,000,000 in internal revenue. The surplus for June probably will reach $5,000,000.

UNITED STATES FINANCES

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 3.—The excess of Government disbursements over receipts for the fiscal year to date is $93,173,000. This sum is likely to be reduced by tomorrow's transactions to approximately $92,500,000. The customs receipts for the year will fall but little short of $200,000,000, and the internal revenue receipts will be about $245,000,000. The gain in custom receipts over last year will be about $15,000,000, with a loss of about $2,000,000 in internal revenue. The surplus for June probably will reach $5,000,000.

UNITED STATES FINANCES

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 3.—The excess of Government disbursements over receipts for the fiscal year to date is $93,173,000. This sum is likely to be reduced by tomorrow's transactions to approximately $92,500,000. The customs receipts for the year will fall but little short of $200,000,000, and the internal revenue receipts will be about $245,000,000. The gain in custom receipts over last year will be about $15,000,000, with a loss of about $2,000,000 in internal revenue. The surplus for June probably will reach $5,000,000.

UNITED STATES FINANCES

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 3.—The excess of Government disbursements over receipts for the fiscal year to date is $93,173,000. This sum is likely to be reduced by tomorrow's transactions to approximately $92,500,000. The customs receipts for the year will fall but little short of $200,000,000, and the internal revenue receipts will be about $245,000,000. The gain in custom receipts over last year will be about $15,000,000, with a loss of about $2,000,000 in internal revenue. The surplus for June probably will reach $5,000,000.

UNITED STATES FINANCES

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 3.—The excess of Government disbursements over receipts for the fiscal year to date is $93,173,000. This sum is likely to be reduced by tomorrow's transactions to approximately $92,500,000. The customs receipts for the year will fall but little short of $200,000,000, and the internal revenue receipts will be about $245,000,000. The gain in custom receipts over last year will be about $15,000,000, with a loss of about $2,000,000 in internal revenue. The surplus for June probably will reach $5,000,000.

UNITED STATES FINANCES

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 3.—The excess of Government disbursements over receipts for the fiscal year to date is $93,173,000. This sum is likely to be reduced by tomorrow's transactions to approximately $92,500,000. The customs receipts for the year will fall but little short of $200,000,000, and the internal revenue receipts will be about $245,000,000. The gain in custom receipts over last year will be about $15,000,000, with a loss of about $2,000,000 in internal revenue. The surplus for June probably will reach $5,000,000.

UNITED STATES FINANCES

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 3.—The excess of Government disbursements over receipts for the fiscal year to date is $93,173,000. This sum is likely to be reduced by tomorrow's transactions to approximately $92,500,000. The customs receipts for the year will fall but little short of $200,000,000, and the internal revenue receipts will be about $245,000,000. The gain in custom receipts over last year will be about $15,000,000, with a loss of about $2,000,000 in internal revenue. The surplus for June probably will reach $5,000,000.

UNITED STATES FINANCES

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 3.—The excess of Government disbursements over receipts for the fiscal year to date is $93,173,000. This sum is likely to be reduced by tomorrow's transactions to approximately $92,500,000. The customs receipts for the year will fall but little short of $200,000,000, and the internal revenue receipts will be about $245,000,000. The gain in custom receipts over last year will be about $15,000,000, with a loss of about $2,000,000 in internal revenue. The surplus for June probably will reach $5,000,000.

UNITED STATES FINANCES

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 3.—The excess of Government disbursements over receipts for the fiscal year to date is $93,173,000. This sum is likely to be reduced by tomorrow's transactions to approximately $92,500,000. The customs receipts for the year will fall but little short of $200,000,000, and the internal revenue receipts will be about $245,000,000. The gain in custom receipts over last year will be about $15,000,000, with a loss of about $2,000,000 in internal revenue. The surplus for June probably will reach $5,000,000.