LARGELY ATTENDED SERVICE.—The Feast of Christ the King was duly observed in St. Malachy's Church, Kinkora on Sunday, October 25th. Masses were celebrated at 7.30 and 10.00, during which the parishioners in large numbers, including all the children of the parish, received Holy Communion. The sermon was delivered by the pastor, Rev. M. J. Smith. The children of the Catholic Students' Mission Crusade walked in procession behind a banner of Christ the King. While they marched they sang hymns to Christ the King and the Little Flower, patroness of the Missions. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, given by the pastor, followed, during which the hymns were sung by the children.

SECTION A DEBATE—The weekly debate of Section A Debating Society of P.W.C. was held yesterday. The subject for debate was "Resolved that Spain will be a better country if the rebels win the present war." The speakers on the Pro. side were: Elizabeth Gallant, leader, Charles MacDonald, Elphée Ellis and Keir MacLeod. The Con. was upheld by Warren McGulrk, leader, supported by Marion Younker, Allan Nicholson and Nora Harper. The result of the vote was a victory for the Pro. side. The critic Mr. Keith Langille congratulated the speakers on their speeches and after some remarks from the Honorary President, the meeting adjourned. The subject for next week's debate is "Resolved that an African Hottentot has a better life than a Prince of Wales College student."

BURHOE-JENKINS.—A wedding of interest to many in different parts of the Province, took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Jenkins, of Vernon, on October 21st, at 5.30 P. M., when Mr. Kelsey Jardine Burhoe, of Charlottetown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Burhoe of Alexandria, was united in marriage to Miss Mabel Blossom Jenkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Franklyn Jenkins, late of Vernon River. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. S. Weir, in the presence of about twenty-five guests, all immediate relatives of the bride and groom. A sister of the bride, Mrs. Brown, had come from Boston to be present at the happy event. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Lawson Jenkins. She was dressed in a beautiful and becoming gown of dark red chiffon velvet, with silver slippers, and carried a lovely arm bouquet of Talisman Roses. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Weir, who also sang at the close of the ceremony, "Oh Perfect Love". The guests then sat down to a delectable wedding dinner which was followed by an easy sociable hour in the attractive living room of the Jenkins home. Mr. and Mrs. Burhoe are to reside in Charlottetown where Mr. Burhoe has for a number of years, been on the staff of the well known firm of Stanley, Shaw and Peardon. They were the recipients of a large number of useful and beautiful gifts and their many friends extend to them every good wish for a happy and prosperous married life.

SHOWER.—A very pleasant evening was spent a short time ago, when a jolly crowd of young folk, (mostly school mates of the bride), gathered at the home of

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Farquharson, Cross Roads, to tender a miscellaneous "shower" to their daughter Mildred whose marriage to Mr. James Bennett of Southport took place recently. As the wedding march was sweetly played by Mrs. Earl Ballem, the bride was escorted to the parlor, by Mrs. Bryer Jones and seated in a nicely decorated chair. Mr. Bryer Jones escorted the groom, then two ladies carried in a large heavily laden basket of gifts which were opened by Mrs. Austin Kennedy and the accompanying verses read by Miss Huntley, teacher of Cross Roads school, after which a large bouquet of lovely sweet peas, was presented to the bride by her little nephew master Ernest Pippey son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Pippey. Then Jim as he is familiarly called in a short speech thanked all for their nice gifts and good wishes, after which "bouncing" took place. Then they all heartily sang "For they are jolly good fellows". The rest of the evening passed quickly by social chat, dancing and waltzing, at an appropriate hour a bounteous lunch was served by a bevy of young ladies and lassies and at a late hour all departed for their respective homes after wishing Mr. and Mrs. Bennett many happy years of wedded bliss, health and prosperity. The young couple have taken up housekeeping in Southport Village.
