THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

The latest news, first of all.

Alexander MacNevin and bride left yesterday morning for their future home in Winnipeg.

S. A. McLeod, F. W. Hyndman and R. G. Wallace, City, were registered at the Halifax Hotel, Halifax, Saturday.

All readers when writing to advertisers in this or any other issue of this paper, are requested to mention The Guardian.

The Rogers Hardware Co., Ltd., are prepared to supply ammunition for the spring shooting. Their ad. will appear tomorrow.

The Wesleyan says:—We regret to learn that Arthur Penna, son of Rev. W. Penna, of Milltown, N. B., is a patient in the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal. Mr. Penna has many friends in this Province.

A very successful banquet was held by the male members of the Methodist congregation of Glace Bay recently in Victoria Hall, one hundred and ten guests being present. Amongst those taking part in the addresses was C. B. Warren, formerly of this city.

Special services were held in J. Wesley Smith Memorial Church, Charlottetown, during the past two weeks. The pastor was assisted by the Rev. J. Appleby, who is well known in this Province. Considerable interest attended the services.

No one should miss seeing the fine picture, "Two Amastides," at Wood-land tonight, the story of a girl who, although engaged to a young man, returns his ring and marries another who she thinks is more fortunate. See the story of the ring and how a child, with a letter to Santa Claus, brings them together again.

The Comfort of the Telephone is the title of a very interesting telephone ad. The ad. is suggestive of the comfort and pleasures that can be derived from the telephone. The protection it offers and the assurance of an instantaneous relief in emergencies. The telephone is necessary in every home and the price is so comparatively small that every home can realize the pleasures of a phone—some people find it advantageous to have the phone on every floor. It saves time, labor and energy.

In the City Police Court yesterday morning two Assyrians appeared charged with lighting on the streets. Their names are Joseph Bisela and Thomas Zegala. The row started in front of the Bastin Block on Hillsboro Street on Sunday afternoon and five or six different parties took part. The second conflict was held on Great George Street in front of J. Sumarah's store Sunday evening and was postponed until yesterday morning about ten o'clock when the parties arrested in settling their differences. A pocket knife was the most dangerous weapon used, however, and with it, it is claimed, an injury would be inflicted on Zegala's hand by Bisela who had just previously received a crushing blow on the hip with a small longer. One of the combatants was pushed through one of Sumarah's windows. They were taken in charge by officers Wager and Taylor after having been engaged in a battle royal for a short time and Zegala was admitted to a twenty dollar bail bond while Bisela was kept in charge. They will appear this morning.

Persons sending advertising to The Guardian will confer a favor on the management if they will state whether they want it in the Morning Daily or Rural Daily, how long, how frequently they wish it inserted in each, and whether as a business local, display ad, or classified ad, leaving in mind that if for the latter it can run but for consecutive insertions. All ordinary amounts under one dollar are accepted on a cash in advance basis and ten per cent discount given, except to those having a regular advertising account.

At the residence of John A. and Mrs. Ferguson, Craggin Farm, Marsfield, at eight o'clock Wednesday evening, March 28th, the marriage took place of their eldest daughter, Miss Janie, to Alexander MacNevin, of Winnipeg, Man., formerly of Bonshaw, P. E. I. The wedding was very quiet, only immediate relatives and friends being present at the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. John Hawley. The bride, who was unattended, looked charming in a princess gown of cream sublime, with ribbon and net trimmings, and was the recipient of many beautiful and costly presents, among which was a handsome gold watch, the gift of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. MacNevin left yesterday for Winnipeg, where they will reside. The best wishes of all their friends go with them.

NEW WONDERLAND

Originators of the Big Shows Imitated but Not Equaled Two Xmastides

Christmas stories appeal to everyone at most any season of the year and this is a pretty love story—interesting from the time the girl backs to the engagement ring to the poor lover, until the time he places it on her finger again (in the guise of Santa Claus). See how the child brings them together again.

Annual Celebration of School Children at Newark, N. J.

A film of interest and charm, depicting the annual exercises of 4000 children representing a variety of dances, drills, marches, etc. A scene of animation and grace, splendidly photographed, and should be seen by every teacher and scholar in our public schools.

A Sticky Proposition

A comedy which contains a laugh to every foot. A regular "Buster Brown" picture.

Into the Shadow

An excellent picture. A child eats poisonous berries, is carried home unconscious given up by the doctors, but they still faithfully work over him, and bring back life.

Auto Races

This picture was taken on the finest and latest auto race courses in the world. Nearly all the world's records were beaten at this meet. An interesting race picture.

I. O. F. regular meeting of Court Avondale tonight at 8 o'clock, Tuesday, 29th.

There will be home made candy of the very choicest at St James Hall on Thursday.

The Star Steam Laundry advertises that they will clean and press men's pants. See ad. on page four.

The rumor that Rev. Principal Gordon would retire from the head of Queen's University was unfounded.—Wesleyan.

The plans for the Prince Street School Concert will be open tomorrow (Wednesday) morning at 10 o'clock. Those holding coupons for reserve seats should change them at once for tickets.

The Wesleyan contains the following, which will be of interest in this Province:—Invitations, second year, Rev. R. W. Weddall, Woodstock; third year, Rev. G. Orman, Vernon River; fourth year, Rev. W. Nightingale, Maitland.

Rev. R. M. Fenton will hold service in Westmoreland schoolhouse on Thursday evening and on Sunday next at Long Creek at 11 a. m., with celebration of Holy Communion, and in St. John's Church, Crapaud, at seven p. m.

Among the outward passengers from this city yesterday were: Guy Scott, to New Glasgow, N. S.; Wm. Cudmore, to Regina, L. E. and Mrs. Prowse, to Ottawa; Miss McVicar, to Pictou; Miss Henderson and Thompson, to Pictou; Frank Duchemin, to Glace Bay.

Rev. R. A. Haslam, a native of Springfield, P. E. I., who has been laboring for a number of years as a missionary in India, will give an illustrated address on the work in that far off field in St. John's Church, Crapaud, on Wednesday evening at 7.30 p.m.

The S. S. Lady Sybil is being put into first class shape for the opening of the season. For the last month or so there have been over twenty men, skilled labor mostly, working on the steamer. This means the distribution of the little sum in Pictou. William McEure, the Sybil's owner, is a citizen whom the town could ill afford to lose.—Pictou Advertiser.

Rev. Dr. Heartz, well known here, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. T. N. Campbell, sailed from Charlottetown on the Dahome recently for Bermuda. Dr. Heartz has gone at the request of the President of the Conference to spend a few weeks in assisting the brethren on the islands in supplying the appointments made vacant by the lamented death of Rev. William Purvis, of St. Georges.

Don't forget the Kermesse. Every man, woman and child in Charlottetown must remember that word. You will hear it mentioned often during the next two months, and press it in deeply on your memory. 3-29d11.

Lens Grinding Department

When you have your eyes tested here you can depend upon one thing, that is, your glasses will be ground to suit your individual requirements—it will not be a haphazard selection from a ready made set of glasses. We won't sell you glasses that will not suit your eyes, such glasses would prove more injurious than beneficial. They have got to suit you and you alone. With our Retinoscopy system and lens grinding facilities you can depend upon our optical work to be unexcelled. It will be to your advantage to call today.
