JOHN PATTEN, better known as Jerry from Kerry with the Fatten and Perry Co., was very sea-sick coming from Pictou to Charlottetown. One of the Company asked him: "Are you sick John?" He replied, "No, I'm only down from barking at a dog under this table," and to say it caused a roar is putting it mild, as he is noted as a comic story-teller and always quick-witted on or off the stage. Don't fail to see him at the Opera House to-night and to-morrow night. He will cure the blues. It is rumored that John West of Wetaskewin, is likely to be the Conservative candidate in the Strathcona federal electoral district at the coming general election. To THE POOR EDITOR.—A preacher at the end of one of his sermons said: "Let all in the house who are paying their debts stand up." Instantly every man, woman and child, with one exception rose. The preacher seated them and said: "Now every man not paying his debts stand up." The exception noted: A care-worn hungry looking individual, clothed in his last summer suit, slowly assumed the perpendicular position. "How is it my friend?" asked the minister. "That you do not meet this obligation?" "I run a newspaper," he meekly answered, "and the subscribers—and—" "Let us pray," exclaimed the minister.—Jor in, Mo. News Herald. The sympathy of the entire community will go out to Mark Wright on the death of his wife which occurred yesterday morning about half past nine o'clock. The deceased had been in failing health for some time and several days ago, she was seized with paralysis which hastened her demise. Mrs. Wright was a daughter of Mr. McKechnie, the first Superintendent of the P. E. I. Railway. In the church and home life the deceased was a truly Christian woman and a kind wife and mother. To the bereaved husband, five daughters, and a son. The Guardian joins in an expression of the sincere sympathy of many friends of the deceased. The Patten and Perry Jerry from Kerry Co. at the Opera House last night, delighted a large and enthusiastic audience which completely filled the building. The show is comedy from start to finish including some clever acting, singing and dancing. The most noticeable of the musical numbers was the single, double and triple tongue solos and quartet on tuba and alto. Mrs. Patten's girl character, Katie, was stunning and her appearance caused a murmur of admiration through the audience. Mrs. Fletcher is also a dainty soubrette. The acrobats are above the average. G. H. Perry is certainly a good versatile artist, and Mr. Patten as Jerry is always the cause of uproars of laughter on every appearance. The Company's Band and Orchestra are without doubt a treat to all lovers of good music. THE concert and dance given last night at the Drill Shed in aid of the 4th Regiment Band was a very enjoyable affair. The feature of the evening was the band concert by the 4th Regiment Band. It was equal to their best efforts and thoroughly enjoyed by everyone. Afterwards dancing was continued until a late hour and the uniforms of the officers with the bright dresses of the ladies made a pretty picture. The catering was done by F. B. Armour and the shooting competition resulted as follows:—1, A. S. Mahon; 2, Sgt. Youker, No. 1 C. A.; 3, Gun. Furze, No. 1 C. A.; 4, Capt. E. Stewart; 5, Gun. Hearts, No. 1 C. A.; 6, Major Weeks each making fourteen out of fifteen points. In the ladies competition Mrs. Brent Garnham was first with eleven points and Miss Ebel Stair second with nine. DESABLE JOTTING—Ice formed last night in places to the thickness of two inches and is steadily increasing and the sporting class in this section are in high spirits for they say as soon as the ice on DeSable River is equal to the occasion it will be the scene of many an interesting race. George MacKay, who has already won an enviable reputation as a violinist purposes going to Boston in the near future to attend one of its leading music studios. Mr. MacKay is a model young man of sterling character and amiable disposition and all heartily wish him success.—J. A. Shaw paid his customary weekly visit to friends here on Sunday and is the picture of health and strength.—Arthur and Mrs. Bruce preferring the quiet of the country to city life have recently occupied the commodious dwelling house vacated by James Currie some time ago. We extend them a cordial welcome. That the young people of DeSable are true lovers of song and music indicated by the strenuous effort they are at present making to organize a singing school. They have again engaged John McKay who was their instructor last winter. His rates of tuition are within the reach of all, and his ability as a teacher is widely known. Although the "good old summer time" is past, yet some flowers are very reluctant to leave us. J. O. McNevin, while strolling through his back fields recently, picked a little flower in full bloom. Mr. McNevin is justly proud of his find. Our kind and obliging blacksmith, Duncan Campbell whose craft is a craft that has long been held in repute by the people still attends to the understanding of the equine race with his usual promptitude. DeSable in the past five years has made rapid strides in progress and before many more we hope the powers that be will see fit to give us the railway we need so much.
