AT HOME.—Mrs. A. A. Pomeroy, 12 Brighton Road, will be at home next Wednesday afternoon and evening. 406

EXCELLENT SERMON.—Rev. Dr. Harley of King's College, Windsor, preached an able sermon in St. Peter's Cathedral last evening, basing his remarks upon the text "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free." He leaves today on return to King's.

NEW ADOPTIONS OF PRISONERS OF WAR.—During the past week Red Point institute has adopted two prisoners, St. Eleanor's Anglican Sunday School one, the Misses McNeill, Boston, Mass. one, total to date 223. Several amounts have been received toward Christmas cheer for the prisoners, these will be acknowledged later.

NOTICE.—Many of the straw and Panama hats left at the Boston Shoe Shining Parlors early in the spring have not yet been called for. The proprietors will not hold themselves responsible for the safety of these hats from this date so all parties concerned should govern themselves accordingly. 399-10-1M31.

A BIG ENTERTAINMENT.—In producing "Intolerance" at the Prince Edward Theatre Wednesday and Thursday D. W. Griffith tells four separate, complete and human stories no one relates to the other yet all alike in purpose, that of showing us convincingly the evils of Intolerance. Babylon, Judea, Old Paris and an American City of the present are the scenes of the stories. A full symphony orchestra and choir is a feature of the entertainment. 398.

A KINDLY ACT.—The Ladies Club has kindly given the use of their room in the Bank of Commerce Building to the War Workers where they will carry on their Red Cross Work.

APPRECIATION.—The Ladies of St. Dunstan's Cathedral wish to extend their sincere thanks to all those who helped in any way to make the serving of meals in the Pro-Cathedral during Exhibition week so successful. A neat sum was realized which will be applied to remodeling and renovating the interior of the Pro-Cathedral for a parish hall. The committee also wish to announce the winners of the "guess" cake and cake on lottery who were Rev. J. B. McIntyre, Tracadie and A. R. McDonald, City, respectively. 397

A MEETING OF THE WAR WORKERS will be held in their new rooms, The Ladies Club, Bank of Commerce Building this evening at 7.30. 396.

THE BIGGEST EVENT YET.—"Intolerance" at the Prince Edward Theatre Wednesday and Thursday with a full symphony orchestra and choir. 398.

NEW CURATE.—Rev. Edwin Jukes, B. A. the newly appointed assistant priest at St. Peter's Cathedral entered upon his duties in that church yesterday. He officiated at the 11 o'clock choral celebration of the Holy Communion and also took a leading part in the Evening Service, making an excellent impression. Rev. Mr. Jukes is a recent graduate of King's College Windsor, and comes from the north part of England.

"GYM" CLASSES TO START.—The Y. M. C. A. classes in physical culture start tonight under the direction of Wallace E. Scantlebury, who was instructor last year and since has been attending classes in the Y. M. C. A. Summer Training School in Boston this year. The Junior classes start today at 3.30, the intermediate this afternoon at 4.30, the senior class tonight at 7.45, and the students class tomorrow at 4 o'clock.

ENGINEER AT PUMPING STATION.—During the past few days several rumors have been current regarding the appointment of an engineer at the main pumping station, in place of the late John McDonald. The Guardian is authorized to state that for the present there will be no new appointment. Mr. Thos. White, the fireman and assistant to Mr. McDonald, will have charge of the pumping station temporarily and probably permanently. He has had over 14 years experience and is a most capable man. A general oversight of the work both at the main and the supplementary pumping stations will be kept by Mr. A. W. E. Douse, engineer of the central station at the Government Pond.

SCHOOL CHILDREN TO VISIT FARM.—Today is to be "Children's day" at the Experimental Farm. In the forenoon the children of the primary classes will be taken over the farm under the direction of Professor Clark and shown the various plots and products. They will also be organized for games and sports under Professor McLarty. In the afternoon the senior students will proceed to the farm and be shown how to pot bulbs and how to save dahlias, gladioli, etc. for winter. It is expected about 1,500 children will attend with their teachers but the invitation is extended to their parents and others interested as well, so that there should be a great time at the farm providing the weather is favorable.

BOB MAC WINS AGAIN.—On the Sackville (N. B.) speedway last Wednesday Bob Mac, 2.13, the famous Island bred pacer, repeated his usual trick of capturing the free-for-all in straight heats. He beat out LaCopia, Lolla Burns and Troas. The time was 2.15 3/4, 2.16, 2.15.

POLICE COURT.—Before Stipendiary Martin on Saturday William Loubey was fined $100 with the option of 3 months free board for an infraction of the Prohibition Act. A trunk was given the usual $10 or 30 days.

THIS IS PERFECTION OIL HEATER WEEK
OCT. 1ST TO 6TH

LOOK this week for the Perfection Oil Heater display in your dealer's window.

Furniture, hardware and department stores from British Columbia to Newfoundland are co-operating this week to demonstrate the economy, convenience and comfort of Perfection Oil Heaters.

A Perfection costs little to buy and little to use. Gives 8 hours of generous warmth on a gallon of ROYALITE COAL OIL. Cheaper than coal or wood even when these are cheap.

Starts heating at the touch of a match. Brings warmth to any part of the house. Chases chills from cold corners.

Look for the display. Examine the heater. Compare the cost.
