And the Pastor spoke on "Saved from sin." The organists Miss G. Muttart, of Souris and Mrs H. McDonald of Bridgetown are to be congratulated for the manner in which they carried out their duties. -CARDIGAN HEAD.-The semi-annual Examination and Xmas tree of the Cardigan Head School was held in the school Friday afternoon, Dec. 21. There was a large attendance of visitors which showed the deep interest taken in the school during the last term. The teacher was assisted in examining the pupils by Miss Minchin, teacher of Martinvale School and D. J. Shaw and showed a marked improvement owing to the great interest taken in school matters by the teacher, Miss McLeod. Following the examination a well prepared programme was rendered by the pupils, consisting of drills and recitations. Stirling McLeod capably acted as Santa Claus and gladdened the hearts of the kiddies by the jovial manner in which he presented the numerous gifts. Candy and nuts were then served by the teacher and the entertainment was brought to a close by singing God Save the King.

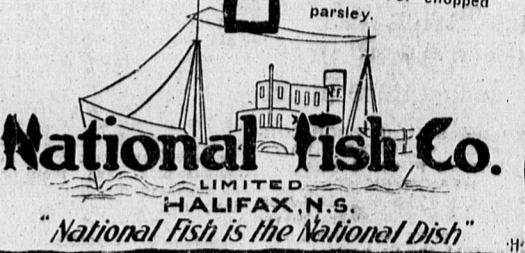

-CHRISTMAS TREE AND EXAMINATION.-The half yearly examination and Christmas tree of Martinvale school was held in the school room Friday morning, Dec. 21. There was a large attendance of pupils and visitors. The teacher, Miss Minchin, was assisted in examining the pupils by Miss McLeod, teacher of Cardigan Head and showed by their ready answers that they had spent a very profitable half year owing to the untiring efforts of Miss Minchin who has capably conducted this school for the last year and a half. After the examination a well-rendered programme was given by the pupils. It consisted of four songs by the school; quartette Silent Night; drill and song, Merry Christmas; and recitations. After the programme the presents of the well-laden Xmas tree were distributed. Lunch and candy were served by the ladies of the district and teacher in a very capable manner. The examination closed by the singing of the National Anthem.

-A MEMORABLE AFFAIR.-A very beautiful and impressive Christmas service was presented to a large congregation by the Sunday School of the Church of Christ at Montague on Sunday evening December 23rd. The decorations were very fine especially a scene "The Shepherds on the Plains" painted for the occasion by Mrs MacLaren. This splendid scene showing as it did the Shepherds with their flocks, the little town of Bethlehem and "The Star" formed an ideal setting for the whole programme. The manner in which the children carried out the service reflects great credit both on themselves and on those who trained them, namely Mrs. Armstrong and Miss MacPhee. All parts of the program given below were well rendered. The Star of Hope" Tableau was worthy of special mention, begun with all the church lights out, excepting that revealing the Star, the effect was both pleasing and impressive, and the lesson clear and plain for both young and old. The beautiful decorations were the results of the untiring efforts of Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. MacLaren and Russell Kaye. Such a service as this helps to make the Christmas Season and its meaning more real and more impressive for both young and old. Below is given the programme. Welcome. "Dorothy Crow. Welcome. Stewart Vickers. Song. "Welcome Day of Days." Scripture Reading. Wilfred Mac-bruises and sprafns. The presence Donald. Prayer. Rev C. E. Armstrong. Solo. "This Night" by Miss

-The Family Physician.-The good doctor is always worth his fee. But it is not always possible to get a doctor just when you want him. In such cases, common sense suggests the use of reliable home remedies, such as Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, which is wonderfully effective in easing inflammation, pains and healing cuts, scratches, bruises and sprafns. The presence of this remedy in the family medicine chest saves many a fee.
