CARTER & CO., Limited,
(Seedsmen to the People of P. E. Island)

St. Vincent Academy and is one of the finest violinists in the Provinces. As a musician her services have been in constant demand, and have always been freely given to aid entertainments gotten up for charitable and praiseworthy objects. She has figured in nearly all the big musical productions given in Halifax, and will have the congratulations of hosts of friends. Mr. Afleck, too, enjoys the regard of all who knew him.
The bride who was given away by her brother, Louis Gastonguay, looked really lovely in a going-away gown of striped cream broadcloth, with hat to correspond, trimmed with white carnations. Her bouquet was a lovely arrangement of white carnations. She was attended by Miss Emma Courtney as bridesmaid, the latter looking particularly charming in a gown of pale blue cloth, tailor-made, worn with hat to correspond, her bouquet being of pink carnations.
Norman L. Gibbon was the groom's best man.
Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Afleck left for the wedding trip, receiving a particularly enthusiastic "send off" by the party of friends gathered at worth street station.
The itinerary will include Montreal, Toronto, Quebec and other Canadian cities, and upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Afleck will receive at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Taylor, 26 1/2 Quinpool road.
Certainly no bride and groom were ever followed by more hearty good wishes, which the bride's friends of the Academy of Mount St. Vincent share. Since her graduation at the Mount she has been the head of its admirable musical department, and regret is generally expressed there at the loss of the young teacher who was as efficient as she was beloved.
The collection of wedding gifts—remarkable for extent and beauty—was a very conclusive proof of the popularity of both bride and groom. It included a beautiful mahogany china cabinet from the conductors of the P. S. and D. service, I. C. R., and a cheque from the brother of the bride, A. O. Gastonguay.
The groom's gift to the bride was a gold wrist watch and to the bridesmaid a gold bracelet set with pearls.
Among those present at the wedding was R. T. Miller, deputy post office inspector of Quebec, brother-in-law of the bride, who arrived in the city on Monday.

P. E. I. HOSPITAL GRADUATION EXERCISES

Owing to a most important inadvertence the following notice was omitted from yesterday's issue and as the event was one largely looked forward to, The Guardian greatly regrets its non appearance. There was a good audience in Prince of Wales College on Tuesday evening on the occasion of the graduation from the P. E. Island Hospital of the Misses England, Elliott, and Dyer as nurses. A short but varied program was well carried out. Solos were sung by Misses Hazel Bremner and Adele Palmer, Messrs. Mitchell and Hooper, Robins and Calder. Miss Harrison gave one of her fine readings, and Prof. Watt's orchestra supplied excellent instrumental music. Every number of the program was encored. Percy Pope read the address to the nurses and little Miss Rogers (a daughter of Councillor Rogers) presented each of the fair graduates with a bouquet. His Honor the Lieut. Governor presided.

The Government steamer, Lady Sybil, has been chartered for the occasion, and splendid accommodation for about 350 will be provided. The Choral Club will give an entertainment in the Capital City of the Island, and with other attractions, the trip should be a memorable one to those who will take this opportunity of visiting our next door provincial neighbors.—New Glasgow Standard.

How To Tell Bronchitis
Always Recognized By Dry Hacking Cough and Rough Breathing

Any doctor will tell you that only by a remedy carried by air direct to the affected parts can bronchitis be cured. The very reason why Catarrhazone cures is because it contains a healing medicine lighter than air, which is breathed through the bronchial tubes and lungs, carrying soothing balsams and essences as it goes. No wonder after 20 years of awful suffering, Capt. James Dunlop, of Kingston, commander of the R. & O. str. "Bohemian" was cured thoroughly by Catarrhazone. "I suffered twenty years, and although I took treatment all that time permanent relief was not obtained till I used Catarrhazone, which is the best known cure for Bronchitis on the face of the globe, pleasant to use, quick to relieve, and sure to cure." A truly wonderful treatment for Catarrh, Asthma, Throat Trouble and Bronchitis is Catarrhazone—thousands it has cured say so.
Get a large $1.00 outfit of Catarrhazone; it contains a beautifully polished hard rubber inhaler and medication to last two months. Smaller sizes, 25c. and 50c. at all reliable dealers, or The Catarrhazone Company, Kingston, Ont.

Scraps

An Up-To-Date Tragedy.
"Twas in the garden, the moon looked down
And zephyrs soft did blow
Silent they sat, he held her hand,
I told 'tis often so.
And then, emboldened by her smile,
He whispered low, in haste,
"If you'll tell me just where it is My arm shall twine your waist."
Then did she frown, and call him down,
And I am told, she "turned him down."
And 'twas not fair, for how could he
Know where her waist was, for you see
She wore an Empire gown.
—H. C. Bennett In "Success Magazine."
"But pleasures are like poppies spread
You seize the flower, its bloom is shed
Or like the snowflake on the river,
A moment white—then melts forever."
Burns.

A FAMILY AFFAIR.

(From Success Magazine.)
"Cordelia," ordered the wacher, "throw that gum in the waste-basket."
The pupil's face grew scarlet but she did not stir.
If you do not put that gum in the waste-basket immediately I'll tell you put of the room," said the teacher, gravely.
The girl walked reluctantly to the desk. "I can't, teacher," she confessed. "It's ma's gum and she'll lick me if I come home without it."
"We should make the same use of a book as a bee does of a flower. She steals the sweets from it, but does not injure it."
