LETTER OF SYMPATHY.

The following is a letter received a few days ago by Mrs. Peter Curtis, New Zealand, King's County, whose son died on active service in France on April 4th:

France, April 9, 1917.
 Mrs. Peter Curtis,
 New Zealand,
 King's Co.,
 P. E. I.

Dear Madam:— I am writing to express the sympathy of the Battery on account of your son Gr. George Curtis' death, of which you will have been informed by the War Office before this. Gr. Curtis was a favorite among us and about the best man at his particular work that we have had in the Battery. When he took sick it was at first thought that he had an attack of appendicitis. Dr. Mathewson sent him to the hospital and the papers from the hospital show that he died of Tuberculosis Peritonitis. He went to the Hospital on the 9th of March and died at 5.30 p. m. on April 4th, 1917.

I feel so sorry for you Mrs. Curtis and again I assure you that you have the sympathy of all the boys in your great loss. I hope it will be a small comfort to you to know that your son was a good soldier, a particular fine Gunner and he did his duty to the end. (Signed) D. J. MAXWELL, Lieut. 5th Canadian Siege Battery.

GUARDIAN AGENT.— Give all new subscriptions, renewals, advertising, etc., to the Guardian representative in your district. HAROLD R. GORDON is the Guardian agent for Georgetown and vicinity.

LOBSTERS SCARCE. Mr. Hugh Yoston, foreman of Rattray's lobster factory at Cable Head West, who paid a visit to his home in Georgetown last week, reports lobster fishing extremely poor along that coast of the North Side so far; fewer fish having been taken during the month of May this year than in any year since the beginning of the industry. A great many herring were destroyed during the recent gale which adds to the difficulties of the fishermen in procuring bait. Very little farming has yet been done along the North Side from Cable Head eastward. There appears to be excellent prospects for codfishing, the fish having made their appearance much earlier this year than usual.—&

RECRUITS FROM CABLE HEAD.— Cable Head district has certainly done its part in furnishing volunteers for the war. These include Messrs Dan A. and Joseph J. Simons, sons of Mr. John K. Simons, both of whom are seriously wounded. H. H. Garret, son of Mr. Caleb Garret, also severely wounded; two sons of Mr. Levi McLaren, one of whom has made the supreme sacrifice, Edgar and William McLaren, sons of Mr. Milton McLaren. Interesting letters from the former of whom recently appeared in the Guardian and John A. and Fabian J. Macdonald, sons of Captain John D. Macdonald. Mr. Dan A. Simons, who previous to enlisting held a good position in the Civil Service at Ottawa was wounded and made prisoner at the battle of Langemarck, and after spending some time in a German prison he was transferred to Switzerland, where he is now interned. His brother, Corporal Joseph J. Simons has been twice wounded, the last time severely. The young men of Cable Head are doing their share in defence of their country.—&

MARVELOUS ESCAPE ON FIELD OF BATTLE

The following letter was received by Mrs. Wilma Taylor, City, from her son George, who was wounded recently.

May 4, 1917
 Dear Mother:— I must drop you a few lines to let you know that I am still alive. I don't know whether the Germans can kill me or not; they have done their best to, I think I had a close call this time as a shell hit right in on top of three of us, one fellow had his two legs broken and his fingers blown off. The other fellow had one leg broken and was badly knocked about. A large piece of shell went through my right leg and a piece through my thigh and it would take ten minutes to count the snuff bits and splinters in my other leg and arm. I had an operation at the dressing station up the line when they cleaned me up a bit. I was wounded the 23rd of April, 6 days ago. We made an advance that morning. It was open fighting where we were. We had a shovel with us all the time as we had so far to drive them back and then dig ourselves in. The Hun put up a stiff fight that morning as they were the best soldiers they had left in Germany, and they were sent up to try and keep us back so they fought like tigers, but it was no use they were driven back. As soon as night came they made a fierce counter attack on us, which lasted about half an hour, that's the time when I got hit.

SPRING MEDICINE

Hood's Sarsaparilla, the Great Blood Purifier, is the Best.
 Spring sickness comes in some degree to every man, woman and child in our climate. It is that run-down condition of the system that results from impure, impoverished, devitalized blood. It is marked by loss of appetite and that tired feeling, and in many cases by some form of eruption. The best way to treat spring sickness is to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. This old reliable family medicine purifies, enriches and revitalizes the blood. It is an all-the-year-round alternative and tonic, and is absolutely the best Spring medicine. Get your blood in good condition at once—now. Delay may be dangerous. Ask your druggist for Hood's Sarsaparilla, and insist on having it, for nothing else can take its place.

STANLEY BROS.
 THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE.

The "drive" started Easter Monday when we took Vimy Ridge. That's an experience I'll never forget. The Hun must have thought that it was hell to lose as dawn broke that morning. It was a terrible and wonderful sight with the thunder and roar of so many guns and Fritz shooting up. S. O. S. and flares as fast as they could. As far as eye could see waves upon waves of men, with fixed bayonets were coming behind a curtain of fire. We suffered some that trip as the weather was terrible. We were in eight days, and I had one drink of hot tea in all that time. My feet were the worst, wet and cold and boots on so long caused them to swell. When we were relieved we were certainly a weary and muddy looking bunch of boys that limped back to camp. Our battalion did splendid work that trip, and was mentioned twice in despatches. They acted good with us for six days we did nothing but sleep and clean ourselves up. That was all the rest I had since Easter up till now, one in from each side. Mother I just must close now for a while. Don't worry about any of us. I remain Your Loving Son

Commodore Ledyard

Has sired more race horses than all the other stallions standing for service in the province combined. At every race meeting of note in the three provinces Commodore is always represented by at least 2 or 3 of his get.
 The history of all great sires including George Wilkes, Electioneer, Bingen, Peter the Great, and Moko has established the fact that a stallion sires more speed during the period between his 15th and 20th years than he does in all the time before that period.
 Commodore Ledyard is 16 years of age this spring. He never was really kept before in the condition that a horse should be kept to make a successful sire and than he has in any other two years of his stud career. He stands for service at his owner's stables at Montague. Anyone interested can obtain his card with tabulated pedigree on application.
