Remember the Meister Gies Singers in Marzet Hall Oct. 5th

There were 400 barrels oysters among the shipments by the Northumberland Wednesday.

The Showman's tent on the Market Square was raised last night by a lot of boys, and pulled down.

This is the last evening of the six o'clock closing system in the business houses of Summerside. Beginning on Monday the 7 o'clock system will recommence and continue until Jan. 1st.

The death occurred at Emerald on Wednesday of Mrs. Green, wife of Peter Green, aged about 59 years leaving besides a husband three sons and one daughter. Deceased had been ill about a year. The remains will be interred at Freetown this forenoon.

SEIZE AMERICAN STEAMER.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 27.—The American steamer Alert, of Bellingham, and two large scows, one of them loaded with salmon and $1,000 worth of nets, have been seized by the Ruth, a Dominion government fisheries protection steamer. The value of the property seized is about $15,000. The authorities all agree that the American boat was poaching on fisheries 125 miles from the American boundary.

and consequently when you purchase an article here, you can be sure it is genuine, and if not satisfactory you can have it exchanged or your money back.

From time immemorial furs have been dear to the feminine heart, and in these days, there seems to be more of a demand for them than ever before. Fur coats, fur muffs and all varieties and styles possible of neckwear and trimmings of fur are in favor.

Last year our fur sales were enormous, and we hope this season to not only maintain—but enhance the enviable reputation always held by this popular store for fur goods of all kinds.

Our neck furs and sets eclipse in quality and style anything we have ever before shown, and we are still sole selling agents for the famous Coristine Jacket than which there is none better made.

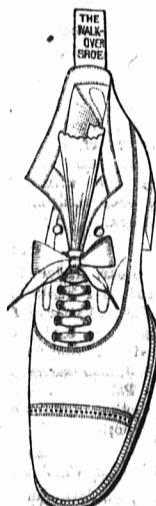

In men's furs, we have a magnificent assortment of coats, caps, collars and mitts, while our new sleigh robes are beauties.

You will do well to come here for furs of all kinds, the quality of our stock cannot be beaten, as ours are the best, and we won't allow anyone to undersell us.
