

Britain's Arming.

[New York Times.] The question which Mr. Henry Norman put in these columns on Sunday must have agitated many readers of newspapers both before and after it was but. Why should Great Britain arm and mobilize over the question of Fashoda when it was evident that the dozen or so of Frenchmen at Fashoda would have to be abandoned, even after it became known that they were abandoned? Mr. Norman's explanation, which is good so far as it goes, was that the real question was not of Fashoda, but of the Bahr-el-Ghazel, where it seems that France has established a really effective occupation in defiance of British interests and of direct British warnings.

But we are inclined to think that there is more than that in the arming of England. Without doubt all this preparation for war is as popular in England as were our own preparations last Spring, when we had been stung by the destruction of the 'Maime,' and when the question was of driving Spain out of Cuba. England has been nagged by France for a long time, and England is weary. The old theory of the hereditary enmity of Englishmen and Frenchmen lapsed in the middle of the century when they fought Russia together. It has since remained lapsed in England, but it has revived in France. That a given course of policy would annoy France has never been able to make it popular in England. But that it would annoy England has sufficed to make it popular in France. It is true that the French enmity for England is not the only French hatred. The French hate Italy and they hate Germany. In fact, the foreign policy of France may not unfairly be described as a bundle of hatreds and 'one fear, or one trembling hope,' that of the Russian Alliance.

Consider that ever since 1881, when France declined the joint protectorate over Egypt, and left England to undertake that work alone, England has had nothing but nagging from France. Even now when it is so abundantly demonstrated that the British occupation of Egypt is the best thing that ever happened to Egypt, the nagging continues. The tripartite interference with Japan, the occupation of Siam, the occupation of Madagascar all have been successively made texts for the same sermon on the decline of England. On each occasion England has been isolated, beaten, or humiliated, as the case might be. Is it any wonder that Englishmen should rejoice when a concrete quarrel presents itself which seems to open a way to the regulation of all outstanding questions, that England should perceive with joy a point at which the forbearance of Lord Salisbury ceased, and should enthusiastically agree to him to that point? Our own little war has its lesson, which has undoubtedly been pondered. We have just been engaged in pronouncing the verdict of civilization upon failure, in stripping from poor Spain the last remnants of that colonial empire upon which once the sun never set, but which she has forfeited by misuses and non-uses. There cannot be much question that a like result would follow a war between France and England, that the British navy would not find the French navy comparatively more formidable than has been expected.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

It is Wednesday, Nov. 16th, and we are bound for Eldon, Belfast, in response to an invitation from four different Christian Endeavor Societies to organize a Christian Endeavor Union. We are now on board the good steamer Jacques Cartier—the Rev. G. M. Campbell and I. The day is fine and the way is pleasant. There is quite a swell on, but no white caps, and nothing to disturb the equilibrium of a moderately good sailor. Two hours have passed and we have touched the wharf at Eldon, where carriages are waiting to convey us to the village. Time passes quickly, and we are now in the church, which is filled to the door before the time to open the meeting. At 7.30 o'clock, the Rev. J. C. Spurr took the chair and opened the meeting by announcing the rousing chorus "Move Forward." Miss Edith Moore presided at the organ which was surrounded by a band of good singers. After scripture reading and prayer the chairman gave a most earnest address which was full of good advice and encouragement; and showed his entire sympathy with the great Christian Endeavor movement. The united choir gave several special selections. These together with congregational singing and a vocal solo by the President of the Provincial C. E. Union made up the musical part of a good programme. Rev. G. M. Campbell, pastor of the First Methodist church, Charlottetown, and President of the Maritime C. E. Union, then arose and addressed the meeting for about forty-five minutes. His address was full of earnestness, pathos, eloquence and oratory. His illustrations were vivid and applied with such telling effect that his address of three-quarters of an hour seemed but for a few minutes. At the close of this most interesting meeting a Belfast C. E. society was organized with the following staff of officers: President—A. J. W. Myers. Vice-President for Point Prim—Mrs. John N. Gillis. Vice-President for Wood Island—Mrs. L. R. Munn. Vice-President for Melville—Miss Hannah McLeod. Vice-President for Eldon—Miss Edith A. Moore. Cor. Secretary—Miss Mina Fraser. Recording Secretary—Miss Mary A. McDonald. Treasurer—Miss Lila McLeod.

HEART PAINS

The Heart and Nerves are Often Affected and Cause Prostration of the Entire System.

A Kingston Lady Testifies to Her Experience in the Use of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

People who suffer from any disease or disorder of the heart nervous system, such as Palpitation, Skip Beats, Smothering or Sinking Sensations, Sleeplessness, Weakness, Pain in the Head, etc., cannot afford to waste time trying various remedies, which have nothing more to back up their claims than the bold assertions of their proprietors.

These diseases are too serious to permit of your experimenting with untried remedies. When you buy Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, you know you have behind them the testimony of thousands of Canadians who have been cured by their use. One of these is Mrs. A. W. Irish, 92 Queen Street, Kingston, Ont., who writes as follows: "I have suffered for some years with a smothering sensation caused by heart disease. The severity of the pains in my heart caused me much suffering. I was also very nervous, and my whole system was run down and debilitated. "Hearing of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills being a specific for these troubles, I thought I would try them, and therefore got a box at McLeod's Drug Store. "They afforded me great relief, having toned up my system and removed the distressing symptoms from which I suffered. I can heartily recommend these wonderful pills to all sufferers from heart trouble."

S. S. LESSON

NOVEMBER 20. MANASSEH'S SIN AND REPENTANCE. 2 Chron. 33. 9-16. GOLDEN TEXT. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.—1 John 1. 9

OUTLINE. 1. Manasseh the Sinner, v. 9-11. 2. Manasseh the Penitent, v. 12-13. 3. Manasseh the Reformer, v. 14-16.

Time.—Manasseh ascended the throne about 698. His reign was the longest in the annals of Judah and the most calamitous. He deliberately set himself to undo his father's reformation. Place.—Jerusalem and Babylon.

QUESTION FOR HOME STUDY. 1. Manasseh the Sinner, v. 9-11. At what age did Manasseh become king? How long did he reign? Name some evil acts of his reign. Whom did he lead into sin? To whose rebuke were the people deaf? What judgment was sent on the king? Who was the king of Assyria? Manasseh the Penitent, v. 12, 13. What evidence of penitence did the king give? What gracious answer was given to his prayer? Of what did the king become assured? What ground had he before for doubt? What encouraged promise is there now to the penitent? Golden Text. 3. Manasseh the Reformed, v. 14-16. What work of defence did he carry on? What evils did he banish from the city? In what work of restoration did he engage? What command did he give to the people?

TEACHINGS OF THE LESSON. 1. "One sinner destroyeth much good." A ruler leads his people astray. A single vicious pupil can mar the life of a school. A drop of iodine will colour six thousand times its volume of pure water; but no amount of water can restore the purity? 2. Penitence and prayer open the door of pardon. Penitence prepares the way for prayer; and prayer grips the hand of Omnipotence. 3. "Learn to do well." Set up the altar. Offer daily thank-offerings. Engage in good works. Serve the Lord actively, earnestly, constantly.

Mrs. Wright of Norval Ont. Experienced Intense Suffering from Eczema in Her Feet.

Raw From Her Toes to Her Knees

Dr. Chase Makes a Wonderful Cure.

Mrs. Knight, 17 Hanover place, Toronto, makes the following statement:—

My mother, Mrs. Wright, who lives at Norval, near Doncaster, suffered a summer and winter with Eczema in her feet. She could not walk, and very seldom got any sleep. It became so bad that she was perfectly raw from the toes to the knees. After trying every available remedy without receiving any benefit, and almost hopeless of relief, she was advised to try Dr. Chase's Ointment. She has altogether used 8 boxes since commencing, but with the happiest results, for she is now completely cured. There is but one scar on one of her feet, a memento of her fearful suffering condition. Any person desiring further testimony in this case is at liberty to communicate with Mrs. Wright at her address, Norval P. O.

Mrs. Knight says after such a grand success, is it any wonder we recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment?

W. H. De Long, Civil Engineer, ex-Warden, and County Councillor, New Germany, Lunenburg Co., N. S., Oct. 21st, 1897, says:—"I had itching piles for thirty years, and have tried various kinds of pile cures, but none gave me permanent relief until I used Dr. Chase's Ointment. I have recommended it to others with the same result."

TWIN TORTURERS!

Lumbago and Rheumatism made Harmless by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Lumbago and Rheumatism cause endless pain and suffering. Every man and woman who runs chances of getting wet, or catching cold, is liable to suffer from one or both. Our hospitals are full of sufferers from these diseases; none are more painful. Every nerve is on fire; every joint is a centre of agony; every muscle an area of torture. To move hand or foot makes the victim shriek with agony. Rheumatism makes more cripples than all the railroad accidents that ever happened. Twisted, misshapen caricatures of humanity, who cannot walk without misery, are to be seen every day. The kidneys are to blame. If they are healthy you needn't fear Rheumatism or Lumbago. Dodd's Kidney Pills keep the kidneys healthy and cure Rheumatism and Lumbago. Dodd's Kidney Pills ALWAYS CURE.
