Mrs. Percy Macdonald, Mary Brown, Mrs. Robert Bruce; Mrs. Crisp and her son Tommy, Mrs. Charles Stewart and Master Clinton Stewart. Each part was well rendered. Special mention must be made of the choruses and recitation by Mrs. Fred E. Robertson, monologues by Mr. William Macdonald and Master Warren Young. A duet by Clara and Stewart MacGregor. The plea were auctioned by Mr. J. A. Fraser for which a large sum was realized. The accompanists for the musical numbers were Misses Marion Kennedy and Clara MacGregor. The proceeds goes towards the erection of a Community Hall.

Southern Kings And Queens

If the bear did not return to his den on Candlemas day, because he didn't see his shadow, he will regret it full sorely, he will regret to lose faith in his judgment which no doubt he always thought sound and he will question the truth of a time-honored proverb.

The ship of state will soon go into dry dock for repairs. An effort will be made to scrape the barnacles from her bottom, steps will be taken to stop the leaks, to give her a coat or two of paint and to overhaul her generally with a view, if possible, to make her sea-worthy.

Mr. Norman C. Stewart, High Bank reports traffic conditions in his neighborhood to be fully as bad as might be expected.

Located here and there throughout the whole extent of the Province are many former students of Mr. L. B. Miller and therefore the Mayoralty election was watched with as much interest in nearly all the rural districts as it was in the city of Charlottetown. His election to the Mayoralty was therefore more widely popular than that of any other candidate past or present.

A curious situation. There are two school districts, not stating where, lying one north of the other and each abutting on the boundary of the other. A public highway traverses those districts from North to South. Road breaking must be done on that road. When the roadbreakers of the southern district arrive at a certain point on the road they stop and say "that is our northern boundary, and we will go no farther." The road breakers of the northern district work south to a certain point about 6 chains from the alleged boundary of the southern district, and one step farther they will not go on the ground that this is their boundary. That stretch of 6 chains is not touched by either district. The road is part of a mail route and the courier is frequently obliged to make a passage for himself through the drifts. In summer or any other season the same attitude is usually maintained. Steps are or have been taken to straighten out this tangle by recourse to law.

Rub It On At Bed-Time

For Deep Chest Colds

All colds, should be treated with vapors, for vapors alone carry the medication DIRECTLY to the air passages and lungs. Vicks is a "vapor" treatment in salve form. For deep chest colds you first apply hot wet towels over throat and chest to open the pores, then massage briskly with Vicks for 5 minutes, spread on thickly and cover with a flannel cloth.

Vicks not only penetrates like a poultice or plaster, but the ingredients, vaporized by the body heat, are inhaled all night long. This double action usually checks the most stubborn cold overnight.

BRINGING UP FATHER—

OUR BUTLER HAS BEEN LEFT $5000 BY AN UNCLE AN' HE WANTS ME TO TEACH HIM HOW TO PLAY POKER.

A few years ago a mineral rod and a dream were responsible for a quest for gold at Little Sands that is not yet forgotten. The rod showed a fixed and unalterable determination to point to one particular spot and no other. Impressed by these encouraging signs the dreamer of the dream and the welder of the rod decided something should be done about it and as the work would be too quick for only two men they agreed to let a few chosen friends in on the ground floor. In due course this was done and in the most secret manner operations were commenced. Things went smoothly enough for a time. They sank the shaft to a reasonable depth for the time they were at it, but they lacked sufficient timber for it and one night when one of the miners was at work at the bottom the slides suddenly caved in. He was immediately buried with debris to his breast and his arms were pinned to his sides; struggling only made matters worse. His comrades looked on helplessly to relieve him in his plight. Whenever they tried to reach him more sand ran into the centre of the shaft and buried him deeper. They quickly decided to reveal their secret and call upon a neighbor experienced in mining to assist them. He at once smashed in the head of a puncheon and brought it to the imprisoned miner placed it over him and as no more sand could get near him he was soon rescued, but it was a close call. He was buried up to his chin and could scarcely breathe owing to the pressure of sand. The mining operations were at once abandoned and never resumed. So ended one ambitious mining project in our fair isle.—S.

WORLD'S POULTRY CONGRESS CANADA 1927

"A few of us from this part of the world are figuring on driving to Ottawa for the Congress". This is a statement taken from a letter received by the World's Poultry Congress Secretary from a poultry breeder in Oregon

His Excellency the Governor General Baron Byng of Vimy has consented to act as the chief patron to the World's Poultry Congress. Associated with His Excellency as patrons are the Lieutenant-Governors of the Provinces, the Prime Minister and Ministers of Finance, Railways and Canals, Customs and Excise, and the Interior, the Leaders of the Opposition, the Premiers of the Provinces, the Canadian High Commissioner to Great Britain and the Presidents of the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Railways.

Probably the best known international figure in poultry husbandry is Mr. Edward Brown, F. L. S., of London, England. He is known to every European poultry enthusiast and is no stranger on this side of the Atlantic. Mr. Brown is President of the International Association of Poultry Breeders and will be President of the World's Poultry Congress in 1927. In the summer of 1925 Mr. Brown visited Canada and assisted in preliminary organization, and it is anticipated that he will be able to visit Canada again next May, when he will address as many of the Provincial Congress Committees as time will permit.

This World Poultry Congress promises to be the largest international gathering which has taken place in Canada. Before the invitations were issued some twenty countries had already signified their intention of being officially represented. Invitations have been issued to practically all foreign countries and all sections of the British Empire, and His Excellency the Governor General at Baron Byng of Vimy. The general director of the Congress is F. C. Eilford, Dominion Poultry Husbandman, and the Secretary, Ernest Rhoades, Experimental Farm, Ottawa. All correspondence regarding the Congress should be addressed to the Congress secretary.

A strong World's Poultry Congress has been named by the United States National Poultry Council, under the chairmanship of Dr. M. A. Jull, Poultry Husbandman, United States Department of Animal Industry, Washington. The other members of the committee are Professors J. E. Rice, Poultry Department, Agricultural College, N. Y.; Wm. F. Kirkpatrick, Poultry Department, Agricultural College, Storrs, Conn.; G. A. Lunn, Poultry Department, Agricultural College, Corvallis, Oregon; F. Heuser, Poultry Department, Agricultural College, Ithaca, N. Y.; Dr. E. A. Mearns, Poultry Department, Agricultural College, Raleigh, N. C.; Professor V. A. Lippincott, Poultry Department, Agricultural College, Berkeley, Calif.; Professor A. G. Phillips, Poultry Department, Agricultural College, Lafayette, La.; Professor J. E. Ivey, Poultry Department, Agricultural College, Auburn, Ala.; Mr. E. C. Potts, Marketing Agent, Poultry Products, Bureau of Agricultural Economics, Department of Agriculture, Washington, Mr. Robert Slocum, Marketing Dairy & Poultry Products, Bureau of Agricultural Economics, Department of Agriculture, Washington, Mr. Harry R. Lewis, President, National Poultry Council, Danville, R. I., and Professor H. S. Burn, Co. Hanf-Metzger, Inc., 30 Madison Ave., N. Y. City.

Miller's Worm Powders are pleasant medicine for wormed children, and they will take without objection. When directed are followed it will not injure the most delicate child, as they contain nothing of an injurious nature in their composition. They will simply rid a child of worms and restore the health of the little sufferer whose vitality has become impaired by the attacks of these internal pests.

HORSEMEN!

There is no better friend to the stable than Minard's Splendid for sprains, swelling, stiffness.
