Cornwall

Miss Olive Livingstone who is working in Mr. Hazen Howard's store at Cornwall, spent Christmas at her home of her parents in Clyde River.

The Meadow Bank Christmas Concert was held in the school house. Instrumental music was furnished by Messrs. Vernon Drake, Melvin Hyde and Helen Scott. The program was delightful and much credit is to be extended to the teacher, Mr. Harry Miller.

Messrs. James Jewell and Liman Newson were recent visitors to Cornwall.

The people of Cornwall and vicinity regret very much to learn of the continued illness of Mr. John Donahue.

Miss Marjorie Lowther, school teacher at Lot 16 spent the holidays at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Lowther.

Mr. Johnnie Scott spent Christmas day at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Scott.

Miss Ruth Bain and Miss Bernice MacArthur spent a few days at a religious training course held in Charlottetown.

And now —rink— is the word that everyone is roaring around Cornwall these days. Mr. Allison MacPhail has been appointed care taker.

Mr. Daniel J. MacArthur, who moved from Lorne Vally some time ago has recently purchased the property formerly owned by the late Mr. Samuel Frizzel.

Miss Alice Howard, has been spending the past few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hughes, of York.

Among those leaving for Boston to spend their Christmas holidays among relatives and friends abroad were Messrs Stewart Drake, Herbert Scott and Charlie MacDonald.

On Thursday evening, December 23rd a large audience was entertained at a very thrilling Christmas Concert held in the Cornwall hall. The teacher, Mr. Daniel MacArthur acted as Chairman. After a few remarks made by the chairman a splendid program followed. The proceeds received from the entertainment amount to approximately $22. After the program concluded Santa Claus distributed candy among each and every one of the school children. The singing of the National Anthem concluded the evening entertainment. —C.

PRAYER WEEK SERVICES IN ZION CHURCH

Rev. J. A. Nicholson Addresses Large Congregation On "The Church And The Community."

The fourth in the series of week-of-prayer services was held in Zion Presbyterian Church with a large congregation present. The Minister of Zion, Rev. G. C. Webster extended a cordial welcome to the speaker, Rev. J. A. Nicholson of York, and all others present. Mr. Webster was assisted in the service by Rev. S. C. Cooper, Adjt. Lynch, Dr. M. Legate, Rev. A. E. MacKenzie and Rev. H. L. Denton.

Mr. Nicholson took as his text the words found in Mark 4, 39 & 40—"Master, carest Thou not that we Perish? And he arose and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm."

The speaker stated that there was a direct parallel between this example of the fear of the disciples in the boat, and the church in our own day. For today, the church is beset with trials and troubles and many of her members feel often like crying out: "Master, carest Thou not that we perish?" But Christ does care, and He still gives power to the church.

Mr. Nicholson indicated many of the contributions that the church has made through the centuries to communities and said that today men and women are looking to her for leadership and guidance. In this day the church must stand firm against the sins of the day. These sins, said Mr. Nicholson, are the sins of intemperance, of greed and selfishness; of the desecration of the Sabbath Day. The church must take her stand on these questions for the welfare of the community.

Miss Rena Wood presided at the organ in a capable manner, and the men's quartette, Messrs. H. Craswell, J. MacLeod, Arthur Farquharson and Wendall Phillips added much to the service by their fine rendering of "The Lord's My Shepherd."

Tonight the service is to be held in Trinity United Church beginning at 7.30 when Rev. Byron Manzer of North River will speak on the subject, "The Church and the Nation."

BRADALBANE RURAL W. I.

The members of the Bradalbane Rural W. I. met at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Graham for their December meeting with an attendance of eleven members and five visitors present. Two new members were added to the Roll. Meeting opened by singing "It A Good Time To Get Acquainted" followed by the "Creed" in unison. Roll call was responded to by paying membership fees. Minutes of the last regular meeting were read and adopted. School committee reported having visited school and purchasing a bell. The sick committee reported visiting the sick in the district and bringing them fruit. It was decided that the members make candy for a treat for the school children at Christmas. Mrs. Angus Gillis and Miss Christena MacPherson, had charge of the social period and three very interesting contests were given out a "Jumbled Name" contest won by Miss Christina MacPherson. A "Mission Contest" won by Mrs. Pomeroy Murray and a Pick puzzle won by Mrs. Colin Matheson and Miss Mary Graham.

A reading was given by Mrs. Angus Gillis, and also a reading by Mrs. J. J. MacLeod. New Committees appointed for next month. School —Miss Verna Matheson and Miss Mabel Gamester.

Sick —Mrs. Bismark Cousins and Mrs. Kenneth Graham.

Programme —Mrs. A. C. McDonald, Miss Mayme Snowie and Miss Annie McDonald.

Mrs. Angus Gillis kindly invited the members to her home for next meeting. Roll call to be answered by a New Year Resolution. Meeting closed by singing O'Canada, after which a dainty lunch was served by the hostess assisted by other members.

Immediately at the close of the meeting the President, Mrs. A. C. McDonald called upon Mrs. J. J. McLeod, who read an address of welcome to the hostess, Mrs. Graham who a short time ago came into our midst as a bride, while Mrs. Angus Gillis presented her on behalf of the members with a suitable gift. Although taken by surprise Mrs. Graham thanked the members of the society for there kindness.

The following is the address:

Bradalbane, P. E. I.

Dear Mrs. Graham:—We the members of the Bradalbane Rural Women's Institute gather here tonight to offer you congratulations, and welcome you to our midst. As yet a stranger amongst us we hope as the days go by to know you better as we know you have the talent to help us in our Institute and community. We ask you to please accept this litle gift as a remembrance from our Society.

Signed on behalf of the members of the Bradalbane Rural W. I.

Mr. C. E. Lauriat Brookline, Dies

The following reference to the death of Mr. C. E. Lauriat from the Boston Herald Dec. 29, will be read with regret by many who met Mr. Lauriat when he visited with Mrs. (Dr.) Julian Jaynes at her summer home in Keppoch.

Charles E. Lauriat, president of Charles E. Lauriat Company, booksellers, and nationally known as a collector of rare books and prints, died suddenly yesterday at the Wyman House, Cambridge.

Since the death of his father founder of the store, in 1920, he had directed the bookstore at 385 Washington street and made many trips abroad to search for rare first editions or old engravings.

With his father, he originated the "Lauriat's Book Review," a monthly catalogue reviewing the new books of the month. He also issued catalogues of rare volumes and each autumn published the "Remainders" catalogue, a list of rare books purchased from English and American booksellers.

Mr. Lauriat was widely known in the book marts of London and was aboard the Lusitania bound for England when it was torpedoed. He took command of a life raft after the disaster and rescued many of his fellow passengers.

Born in 1874 in Swampscott, son of the late Charles E. and Harriet Page Lauriat, he was educated at the Berkeley School, Mr. Hopkinson's School and several schools abroad. He began work in the book firm as a young man and soon was accompanying his father on the annual spring trip to London.

He was a life member of the New England Historical Genealogical Society, the Massachusetts Horticultural Society, and the Boston Society, and a member of the University Club the Grolier Club of New York city, and of the predential committee of the Arlington Street Church. He was a former member of the Boston Athletic Association.

LIVED IN BROOKLINE

Mr. Lauriat lived at 75 Longwood avenue, Brookline, was formerly a resident of Cambridge and maintained a summer home at Hull.

He is survived by his widow, the former Marion Bullerd; three sons George Bullard Lauriat, Charles E. Lauriat, III, and Nathaniel Page Lauriat; a daughter, Miss Patience Lauriat, and two sisters, Mrs. D. E. Manson of Brookline and Mrs. Alfred C. Lane of Cambridge.
