VILLAGERS OBJECT TO STREET RAILWAY

YOUNGSTON, O., May 10—Pittsburgh capitalists have been securing options for a street railway to Poland from this city. It is alleged the line will be built from Haseton to the village made famous as the place where William McKinley passed his boyhood.

Poland is one of the ideal rural villages of this section of Ohio, and many of the residents oppose the construction of a street car line, as it is claimed it would destroy the quiet of the peaceful little place.

PHILADELPHIA, May 10—Accosted by tramps in a small strip of woods in Germantown yesterday morning, Thomas Jones, a 40-year-old man, was robbed of a particle of his clothing by the vagrants, who escaped. Jones, not knowing any of the immediate neighbors and living at a distance from the scene of the robbery, climbed into a tree to wait for some chance passerby. He remained in that tree, suffering greatly from cold, fatigue and hunger, besides being tortured by a swarm of bees, which had built a hive in a dead limb.

Individual outbursts were quickly organized when the Lasalle shortstop, by a snappy double play, prevented Platteville from breaking the existing tie, and a Chautauqua salute greeted the local centre fielder when he arrived at the plate after a home run had won the game.

INSURGENTS BOSS AMERICAN SENATE

WASHINGTON, May 11—The incapacity of the Republican party in the senate to control the caucus edict without the aid of the progressives was demonstrated in the senate today, when after seven ballots the senate failed to elect Senator Gallinger, of New Hampshire, as president pro tempore, to succeed Senator Frye, of Maine. Mr. Frye's recent resignation was based on poor health. Today's deadlock was due to the opposition of the progressive Republican senators, five of whom voted against and three of whom were paired against Mr. Gallinger.

HAREM SKIRT HOOTED, HOOP SLEEVE IS "IT"

PARIS, May 10—The latest Parisian fashion freak is the "hoop sleeve." The hoop is placed at the middle of the forearm, and its diameter is seven inches. The sleeve is drawn in at wrist and elbow.

The failure of the garment to appear at the fashionable race courses on Sunday aroused wide comment. A few women seeking to attract attention occasionally wear it at a roller rink or in a box at the theatre, but the mass of femininity avoid it, with the possible exception of a few of the wilder models, which it is impossible to distinguish from the conventional skirt. The harem skirt is not seen on the streets.

Kistingner admitted that he had carried off the missing food and was sentenced to 15 days in the County Jail. He told Judge Samuel P. Swinburne that he must have drunk too much champagne.

DOUBLE JUBILEE OF CARDINAL GIBBONS

NEW YORK, May 10—In the mode observed at Rome, six pages in uniform bearing lighted torches met His Eminence, Cardinal Gibbons, at the doors of the Catholic Club here tonight and escorted the prelate into a throne in the grand ball room, where he was welcomed by a large gathering of prominent Catholics. The occasion was the golden jubilee of His Eminence to the priesthood and the silver jubilee of his elevation to the cardinalate.

A coat of arms carved in basswood, five by four feet, and set in a gold frame, was presented to the cardinal by priests of the Paulist community at the reception. The shield was designed by William Laural Harris of the Paulist Fathers and is said to be the first of its kind attempted by an American. It is an elaborate reproduction of the design recently adopted by the cardinal as a prince of the church.

Archbishop Farley, Supreme Court Justice Victor J. Dowling and Frank S. Gannon, president of the club, delivered addresses of welcome to which the guest replied.

"No citizen should be a drone in the social bee hive," Cardinal Gibbons said in his response. "No man among you should be an indifferent spectator of the moral, political and economic questions which affect the welfare of the Commonwealth."

"As you are all protected in your life and property by the strong arm of the government so should you all unite in upholding the hands of those who are charged with the administration of the Commonwealth." The cardinal said that a zealous and enlightened laity is the glory of the Christian church, and the mentioned famous laymen who vindicated the cause of Christianity "by the eloquence of their writings, or by the luminous sanctity of their lives."
