On Thursday June 13th in the Opera House, The Charlottetown Philharmonic Society will render that most beautiful Cantata, "The Wreck of the Hesperus" with fine orchestral accompaniment. The music loving people of the city may expect a rare treat as the society have secured the best musical talent of our town. See program in few days. Popular prices, 25 and 35. Advance reserve 35c tickets will be offered for sale and we bespeak for our Philharmonic a bumper house on the 13th. 4 21.

TO-MORROW Messrs. James Paton & Co will hold their midsummer show, when all that is suburban dress goods and millinery will be exhibited. The fine store will never look better, and certainly never continued a handsomer stock. The decorations will be carried out on a lavish scale and in its new garb the store will come in for a great deal of admiration. A woman likes nice things shown in a nice way and is always quick to see and appreciate accordingly. It will be remembered that some months ago when the life imprisoned in the frozen earth broke forth into the sunlight and the first shoots of grass peered above the barren soil, the firm symbolized the era by attiring their store in the most beautiful of trained nature and manufacture. In doing so they imparted to Easter a deeper and possibly a holier significance. It has been said that the gayest bonnets are those of Easter. While the phrase may be correct yet the season is being ushered in when the fashionable youth dons his lightest pair of trousers and defies pneumonia in a spring overcoat—even though it is so short that it looks as if it had been built on the installment plan. Realizing that we are in the initial hours of another season, viz: summer, the firm have decided to have a midsummer show as above enumerated. Great things are looked for and as in the past the present attempt will doubtless excel all previous efforts.

OBITUARY.—A little after mid-night on Sabbath May 26th, Mamie, the eldest daughter of Mr. John Johnstone of Long River passed away. This is now the third loved one that has been borne forth from that home within the last eighteen months; first a son was taken, then the mother, and now has been taken—the hope of the home—the only one left in any way fitted to take the mother's place. In circumstances like these how forcibly we feel the exclamation of the Apostle: "How unsearchable all his judgments, and his ways fast finding out." But we do not dwell on this: God's good children never question their Father's way; they trust and comfort themselves in the memory that His afflicting hand is to them an evidence of His love. In the loss of one, who was beginning to take the place of an affectionate mother, we feel that God only can enter into the experience of the sorrowing father and his family. We long to speak a word of comfort; but feel that He who, in love, has made the world alone can bind it up; and it is our earnest prayer that as He binds it up He may pour in the Balm of His own sweet comfort. In the day-school, in the Sabbath school, in the Mission Band and most of all in her own home, the gentleness of her manner and the sweetness of her disposition, like the scent of an opening rose, wafted unconsciously out to cheer and help all around her. To us it seemed that a life of usefulness was just begun; but her work was done, and when it was God said "Arise my fair one and come away" Toward the last she suffered a good deal; and no doubt that call was a blessed gain. Yes it is true, we shall see her here no more; but the last lingering look of that dear white face as it lay in the narrow bed shall remain in the memory of many until they see it in the Happy Land, animated with the glory of Christ.

SORE ALL OVER.

Back Sore, Head Sore, Hand Sore—The Terrible Experience of Mrs. Rousseau of Ottawa.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 3.—(Special).—The following written statement, made and signed by Mrs. J. William Rousseau, of 10 Flora Street, this city, shows what some women can go through, and yet live:—

"I have been ailing for three years. My back was dreadfully sore. My head ached all the time. My hands were swollen and very painful.

"I cannot tell the pains I endured. No words can describe my torture.

"I used Dodd's Kidney Pills—three boxes altogether—and I am well.

"They did more for me than anything else in the world, and I recommend them to every suffering woman."

Dodd's Kidney Pills have wrought some miraculous cures in and around Ottawa, but none more satisfactory, than in the case of Mrs. Rousseau.

FIRE PROOF SAFES

The man who locked the stable after his horse has been stolen must have been a very near relation to the merchant who puts off buying a Fire proof safe until after his store is burned down and his account books destroyed. There was a time when high grade fire proof safes cost a lot of money. That was in the days when manufacturers believed in small sales and big profits. Today a guaranteed fire proof safe of small dimensions, can be bought as low as $35.00.
