FATAL ENDING TO OLD FEUD IN FOOTBALL GAME

BRANTFORD, Ont., Aug. 27—The community of Hatchley, this county, is greatly wrought up over the death of J. Savage of this village and the serious injury of a man named Robinson. Both men figured in a football match at a picnic at Morriswoods on Friday last between Harley and Hatchley. There was an old time feud between the players and Savage was severely kicked by one of the Harley team, succumbing to his injuries later. NO SHELVE OF LORDS QUESTION

LONDON, Aug. 27—Sir Edward Grey, speaking at Berwick, said the settlement of the lords' question was a matter of life or death to the Liberal party. There was no need to fear the conference was going to shelve or burk the question. There was a conviction on both sides that something must be done. The Morning Post says that neither a lowering of the tariff against the United States or raising it against Britain is likely to happen, thanks to the stalwart imperialism of Canada, but the free trade press and its friends here are avowedly working for this denouement. No tariff reformers could desire a better battleground.

The victims are from Hungary, into which country the disease spread from Russia.
