COUNT BONI IS STILL A DANDY

Clothes Irreproachable But Show Signs of Wear—Social Position Critical And Political Future Destroyed by Intent of Court To Grant Divorce.

PARIS, Nov. 14.—Despite the obvious intention of the court to grant the Countess de Castellane a divorce, the Count is desperate in manner as ever. He is now living with his parents, and has signed, greatly during the recent months, Count Boni's social position is critical. Women are beginning to cut him now that he is penniless.

Heavy Lifting Kidney Strain

THIS TRACKMAN WAS LAD UP WITH KIDNEY DISEASE FOR TWO YEARS, AND CURED BY DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS.

Straining of the muscles of the back, and exposure to drafts or cold, wet weather, are among the most common causes of kidney disease, and for this reason men who work out of doors very frequently suffer from backache, urinary derangements, and other symptoms of kidney disease.

Railroad men have always been great admirers of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and thus apply to train hands as well as to sectionmen. In this letter a trackman tells how he was cured by this treatment after two years' suffering.

Mr. David Cook, Kestville, N. S. states: "For twenty-five years I was trackman on the railroad, and I think the heavy lifting affected my kidney. About two years ago I was completely laid up with lame back and kidney disease, and the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills quickly relieved the pain, built me up and cured me. I never used any medicine that worked so well as this one."

"I was troubled with bronchitis, and was cured by using Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. I have also had members of my family use it, with equally good results, and must say that both these preparations are excellent."

Another interesting case is that of a brakeman who was cured of biliousness and indigestion by this treatment.

Mr. Luke Lawson, Madam Junction N. B., writes: "I have suffered for years from bilious headache caused by indigestion. One day when on the train with Conductor Berryman I was suffering severely with pain in the head, and he recommended me to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Having some in his possession, he gave me several doses, which proved to my liking. I found Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to be the best remedy I have ever used, and can with confidence recommend them to all persons suffering from indigestion."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25 cents at box, at all dealers or Edmanison, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Sells More of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than of All Others Put Together.

The following letter from a locality where Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is well known shows by the unprecedented demand for it that the medicine sells on its own merit. Mr. T. B. George, a merchant at Mt. Eglin, Ontario, says: "I have had the local agency for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy ever since it was introduced into Canada, and I sell as much of it as I do of all other lines I have on my shelves put together. Of the many dozens sold under guarantee, I have not had one bottle returned. I can personally recommend this medicine as I have used it myself and given it to my children and always with the best results. For sale by all druggists."

citizens of the better sort have shunned him for years because of his foolishness. Others who were married have shunned him for the reasons which Maitre Cruppi disclosed.

Although he is clever, it will be difficult for him to earn a living. The Count's family will be obliged to support him, and from this a curious condition will arise. The Countess now pays the Count's father an annuity of 28,000 francs, and she manifests the intention to continue this annuity despite the outcome of her suit. If so, there will be provided the spectacle of the father, whom the son always helped financially with his wife's money, reverting the usual order and providing his son with money derived from the wife who has divorced him.

Bullywaddlers declares there will be no doubt, because the husband of the woman whom Cruppi expected fear to challenge Boni, since their own conduct, it is said, is no better than the Count's. The only person who could challenge the Count is Edmond Killy, who would seem to meet Boni, even in a duel.

Owing to the Count's financial straits, he may have to resign from the fashionable clubs of which he is now a member—the Tennis Club, Polo Club, Automobile Club, Horse Show Club, Yacht Club and Cercle Rue Royale.

The Count will be received wherever his parents go, but the American colony where he was formerly received for his wife's sake, will be closed to him. The nobility, too, will snub him for being found out.

No doubt the court will grant the Countess her divorce. Even though Maitre Bonnet throughout the trial has made no effort to refute her charges, the public is convinced that the Count is doubly guilty.

The Countess is living quietly, and now that the worst strain is over seems relieved. She looks less careworn, and her expression, while not cheerful, is peaceful. She spends her time with her children in her place on the Avenue Bois de Boulogne and drives daily with her children and Miss Helen Gould in a closed automobile, fearing the snapshooters. No queen could be more carefully guarded than is the Countess. She accepts no social invitations and sees only her most intimate friends, the Millington-Drakes.

ADVERTISING IS BROAD.

Advertising in itself means publicity and publicity is a very broad and comprehensive term. It does not mean simply a word whispered to a favored few. It is, rather, synonymous with a general, broadcast declaration, and the broader the scope of the announcement, the better the advertising. No occupier of space that directs attention along given and desired lines can be reasonably regarded as wasted; nor can any funds expended to this end be considered extravagance.—American Medical Journals

VERY MOTHER SHOULD KNOW.

Social Tragedy

Women Who Brave Death for Social Honors.

In the midst of one of the most brilliant social functions of the season, a noted society woman started suddenly from her chair with a scream of agony and fell insensible to the floor.

A few hours later the distinguished physician told her anxious husband that she was suffering from an acute case of nervous prostration brought on by female trouble, and hinted at an operation. Fortunately a friend advised her to try

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The result was that she escaped the surgeon's knife and to-day is a well woman.

The derangement of the delicate female organism sets every nerve in the body quivering with pain. Headaches, backaches, torturing bearing down pains and dragging sensations make women nervous and hysterical.

Mrs. T. E. Gillis, of Windsor, N. S., writes:

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—When I commenced to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was suffering with weakness and female trouble, headaches, backaches, and that worn-out, tired feeling. I have only taken the Vegetable Compound a few short weeks, and it has made me well, strong and robust. I believe that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is without equal for female troubles.

Mrs. Laura Emmons, President Loyal Home Workers, Walkerville, Ont., writes:

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I am enjoying such good health that I feel it a duty to write and thank you for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered for more than five years with functional troubles, causing an unpleasant discharge and weakness which no amount of medicine, diet or exercise seemed to correct. Your Vegetable Compound, however, reached the root of my trouble, cured me and made me strong, healthy and well. I want to say to every suffering woman, don't dally with medicines you know nothing about, but take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Pinkham's advice is free to all. Her address is Lynn, Mass.
