

Dining "corner". Make it easy for yourself! Eat right in the kitchen . . . in front of a cool "herb garden" window. Use a "dining table" that drops down out of the way between meals . . . And then — most important of all — put down a sparkling bright Gold Seal Congoleum rug! Its smooth surface is easy to clean with the swish of a damp cloth. And durable! Why, its wear-layer of heat-toughened paint and baked enamel is actually equal in thickness to 8 coats of best floor paint applied by hand. But — when you buy your Congoleum rug — look for the familiar Gold Seal. Without it — remember! — it isn't Congoleum. You'll be surprised how much quality you can buy for so little money.

Gold Seal Congoleum Rugs . . . product of Congoleum Canada Limited, Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. Reggie Adams met with an accident recently. While driving through Unionvale in trying to avoid some children on the road their car turned over with the result that Mrs. Adams received some bruises and a severe shaking up.

Potato digging which was in full swing in the vicinity was stopped on Wednesday by the severe rain storm.—How.

60th Anniversary

The following article is taken from a local paper of Whittier, California. The Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Linkletter mentioned, are formerly of Summerside. Mr. Linkletter was in charge of construction of the Capitol Theatre and the rink. Mr. Brewer Linkletter of Kensington is a brother and Mrs. Henry Clark Linkletter is a sister.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Linkletter of 143 1/2 South Friends Ave. will celebrate their sixtieth wedding anniversary tomorrow. Both are natives of Prince Edward Island, Canada. Their seven children were born in the East and three of the four who survive still live on the East Coast. Mr. and Mrs. Linkletter visited this area many years ago and could not forget its charm, so in 1926 they came to stay.

Many has bind them to Whittier. Their daughter, Mrs. Thomas Lee, and two grandchildren, Phyllis Patten and John Lee, live here, as does their niece, Mrs. Olive Pearson, and they have a wealth of friends here.

Mr. Linkletter is a retired carpenter. He worked at his trade in Whittier in association with his brother, the late J. H. Linkletter, the contractor who built many of the large public buildings of this community.

The two brothers first came to Los Angeles when Mr. C. P. Linkletter was 19 years of age. He recalls that the City of The Angels was then not so large as Whittier is now. He and his brother lived at Fourth on Broadway, then Fort St., and the neighbors kept pigs and chickens, and weeds were head high. Lots in the vicinity could be bought for $500 or $600.

The next year Mr. Linkletter returned to Prince Edward Island and he and Mrs. Linkletter were married and established their home there. In 1915 she visited relatives in Whittier and liked this community so much she persuaded her family to join her. They purchased a ranch in the new North Whittier Heights area and lived there a year. Then like so many newcomers, they grew homesick and returned to their old home. Some of their children born in Canada, some across the line in Portland, Me. Now, their son Louis lives in Quebec, their son Clifford lives in Massachusetts, and one daughter, Mrs. Thomas Patten, and her son live in Boston.

Mr. Linkletter is active and still likes to drive a nail. He is a bit of a philosopher too. It gives him satisfaction to observe that Whittier has kept the friendliness and restful homey feeling established by its Quaker founders and is unique and different from the restless metropolitan communities of this postwar period.

Mrs. Linkletter is not strong physically but she is mentally alert and still finds life good. She says life has grown better year by year and she has found marriage and home a satisfying career.

Mr. and Mrs. Linkletter expect to spend a quiet day at home tomorrow with maybe a few visits from friends. Already they are receiving greeting cards and gifts from friends far and near.

Mr. Ralph Hardy, who is employed in Summerside spent the week end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hardy, Rosebank.

Dr. Keeping, who is vaccinating and re-vaccinating the school children, pre-school children and teachers for Smallpox, went to the following schools on Thursday: Plusville, Rosebank, Bloomfield Corner, Cascumpec and Mill River East. A large number of children and a few teachers were vaccinated.

On Saturday, September 27th, a number of friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hardy, Rosebank, to enjoy the evening which was spent in singing and dancing. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. Jacob Hardy, assisted by Mrs. George Hardy, Lorna Hardy and Doris Hardy. Music for the occasion was supplied by Alton Hardy and Ralph Hardy, accompanied on the guitar and organ by Lorna Hardy, Lorraine Corcoran and Zeta Corcoran.

A pretty wedding took place at St. Anthony's Church, Bloomfield, Wednesday morning, September 24th, when Reverend Father Robin united in marriage, Miss Agnes Leona, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gallant, to Emmanuel son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Gallant of Plusville. The bride looked charming in a floor length gown of white sheer nylon with sweetheart neckline and long sleeves. She carried a white prayer book and rosary and wore a corsage of gladioli. The bride's attendant, Miss Mildred Gallant, was dressed in a floor gown of pink taffeta with sweetheart neckline and cap sleeves. She carried a white prayer book and wore a corsage of gladioli. Mr. Louis Gallant acted as best man. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. An afternoon of fun and music was enjoyed by all present.—Plus.
