PRINCE STREET SCHOOL - A committee from the City School Board visited Prince Street School yesterday morning with a view of finding if possible, suitable space for an additional classroom to take care of a portion of the large number of Grade I pupils attending the school. After a careful survey it was decided that it was impossible to get the necessary space, and the board's attention is now directed to be procured the only thing to do is to have a certain number of Grade I pupils attend school in the afternoon instead of in the morning. It is recognized that this will not be a fully satisfactory arrangement, but there is no other possible way out of the difficulty. However some arrangements will have to be made so as to prevent the same children attending afternoon sessions for the whole school term - the various Grade I classes will be divided for the afternoon sessions. While the committee was in the school the fire alarm was given, when the pupils were quickly evacuated in good order.

SHOW REPEATED AT YORK - The program at York went over big again last evening before another large and enthusiastic audience which filled the hall to capacity. Highlights of the evening, besides the familiar old songs played and sung by the artists, were the sailor numbers by Harry Vesey; "Buffalo Gals" sung by Norman Brown, George and Gladys Andrews, a very beautiful setting and arrangement for girls voices of Brahms ever popular "Lullaby". Tonights presentation will wind up the program for this week and after a few days rest will resume on Monday of next week for two more nights.

DELIGHTFUL DANCE - Last Thursday evening the newly decorated Clover Club was a lovely setting for a Cabaret Dance sponsored by the Junior League of the Charlottetown Hospital. The popularity of this novel entertainment was acclaimed by the many couples who were present. Mrs. J. F. Connolly, president of the League and Miss Hilda Jenkins, convenor at the dance met the guests as they arrived and ushered them to their tables. The high light of the evening was the floor show. Each number of the show received a wonderful applause which brought the artists back for encores. The show was introduced by the Master of ceremonies Mr. Frank Casey. Jimmie McTague was the first performer. He gave an excellent imitation of Larry Parks imitating Al Johnson in the songs, "I'm Sitting on Top of the World" and "Mammy." Then a quartette of charming young ladies Misses Bethanie MacLeod, Marie Jenkins, Donalds MacLeod and Shirley Dalziel, gave a lovely rendition of "It's Magic" and "I Love Somebody." The next number was a beautiful ballroom waltz by Miss Lorraine Van Marston and Mr. Barry Bugden. For an encore these talented dancers gave a clever imitation of what could happen during a dance rehearsal. Miss Maureen Brown then brought the show to a perfect ending by her delightful solos, "The Desert Song" and "One Alone." After the floor show a buffet supper was served in the upper rooms of the Clover Club, where autumn flowers were arranged as decorations. Lighted tapers and bouquets of marigold were used as the table centre piece. During the evening to give an added touch to the Cabaret atmosphere two of the Junior League members, Mrs. J. O. Hornby and Mrs. J. Y. Boudrias acted as cigarette girls. The music for the dance was supplied by Ding Connolly and his Orchestra.

DAWSON - CUTCLIFFE WEDDING - On Saturday, October 9th at 7 p. m. a very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Harold Cutcliffe, Cape Traverse, when their oldest daughter, Gladys Eleanor was united in marriage to Paul Ramsay, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Dawson, Albany. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Donald Nicholson, uncle of the bride. The bride looked charming in a dress of Royal blue crepe with navy accessories, and was attended by Miss Doris Dawson, sister of the groom, who wore a dress of grey crepe with black accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses. Mr. Gordon Cutcliffe, brother of the bride capably performed the duties of groomsman the bride's mother wore a dress of black crepe and a corsage of red carnations. The groom's mother wore a dress of rose pink and a corsage of pink carnations. Miss Joyce Nicholson played the wedding music and sang very beautifully "O Perfect Love". Following the ceremony the guests were taken to a beautifully decorated dining room by Mrs. Peter Nicholson where the table was set with a beautifully decorated wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom. A delicious supper was served to over fifty guests. The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Donald Nicholson and responded to by the groom. Those serving included Miss Louise Gillis, Eleanor Lord and Beatrice Cutcliffe. Tea was poured by Mrs. Edwin Crossman and Mrs. Robert Trenholm. The bride and groom enjoyed a motor trip through Nova Scotia where they visited Mrs. Jack Donovan, Pictou. For travelling the bride chose a grey pin-stripe suit with navy accessories. They have the best wishes of their many friends and relatives for a happy wedded life.
