ROOSEVELT'S LIONS FOR THE ZOO

WASHINGTON, July 29—The latest official designation of Col. Roosevelt's hunting trip in Africa is "The Smithsonian African Expedition, under the direction of Mr. Theodore Roosevelt." The Smithsonian Institution announced that through this expedition a collection of rare animals is soon to be added to those now in the National Zoological park near Washington. The announcement is in part as follows:—

"In a letter recently received at the institution from Lieut.-Col. Edgar A. Mearns of the expedition it is stated that the collection includes 11 large mammals and three large birds all in fine condition and for the most part well broken to captivity as follows:—A male and female lion, 2 years old; a male and two female lions, 12 months old; a female leopard, a pet of Mrs. McMillan; two cheetahs; a warthog, 2 years old; one Thompson's and one Grant't gazelle, well grown; a large eagle of unusual species; a small vulture and a large buleo. Specimens of none of these except lions and leopard, are at present contained in the park.

RUSSIAN WOMEN HANG BELLE OF THE VILLAGE

LONDON, July 28.—Details of the lynching of a young and beautiful woman by a crowd of jealous members of her own sex are to hand from St Petersburg.

The affair took place last week in the village of Voleckhi. The victim had incurred the hatred of the other women in the village by her flirtations with the men of the neighborhood, both married and single, and feelings reached a climax when it became known that on her account one of the young men of the village had broken his promise to marry another girl.

On coming to the church the other day the women, both old and young, threw themselves upon the flirt, and in spite of her cries for mercy tore all her clothes off. Then dragged her through the village by the hair of her head, beating and stoning her mercilessly.

At first the men laughed, but when they saw how savagely the girl was being maltreated they attempted to rescue her. The infuriated woman, however, drove them off, and then drove their unhappy victim, who was by now a mass of wounds, to a large tree just outside the village, where they hanged her to one of the branches and then lighted a fire to the brushwood under her. When the police arrived on the scene they found the victim of the women's fury lying dead under the tree, blakened to a cinder.

CONDITIONS OF THE BIBLE STUDY CONTEST

1. Persons may join the club at any time during the year, but must, of course answer the 50 questions to qualify for the prizes. It is however desirable that the questions be answered as the lessons are studied.

2. Each contestant, or his or her family, must be a subscriber to The Guardian, during the continuance of the contest, in order to qualify for membership in the International Newspaper Bible Study Club and this Local Club.

3. Each contestant in this Local Club, must answer each of the written questions, for 52 consecutive weeks, commencing for Sunday Aug. 23rd, 1908, and the answers must all be in the possession of The Guardian within two weeks of the close of this period, which allows two weeks grace after the close of the contest.

4. Each question must be answered separately, and the paper written on one side only. No answer must exceed two hundred words in length and may be less. It will be a convenience if students will write their answers on letter paper, about 8½ inches.

5. Each answer must have the name and address of the writer at the bottom of the answer, so it can be identified, given a number registered and the name cut off so the examiner may know it by number only.

6. Students should be careful to understand the question before answering. To do this, the lesson text must be read and especially the verse, or verses, upon which the question is based.

7. The answers from this Local Club must be delivered to this office, and they will be collected at warded to headquarters for independent examination by competent examiners. The prizes will then be awarded according to the highest number of marks, won by members of The International Newspaper Bible Study Club, and prizes which may be awarded to members of this Local Club will be given out to-day

THE MORNING PAPER
Some Reasons Why it Makes the Best Advertising Medium.

A woman's curiosity to know about society, marriages, births, deaths, forces her to read it.

The Morning Paper is before her all day long, and it is when she is doing her household duties, arranging and improving the appearance of her home, that the missing and necessary articles of furniture, rugs, carpets, curtains or other necessities, show up the plainest, and there could be no more opportune time for a dealer to tell about the new designs, the new styles and the bargains offered, for the day or week.

In a majority of homes the newspaper it practically the bulk of the reading matter, and the long, all-day life from 5 a. m. to 10 p. m. of The Morning Paper gives not only the housewife but every member of the family an opportunity to read it.

The Morning Paper is read at the breakfast table, again at home at noon, on the trains, in the restaurants. It is read in doctor's offices, professional offices, clubs, hotels, cafes, barber shops. It is read by daylight everywhere you go by both employer and employee.

It is a known fact that throughout the world, possibly with a half-dozen exceptions, the papers with editorial influence and national reputation are Morning Papers.

With these facts in mind, the business man who is looking after the real money-spenders of the family to interest in his goods will consult his best interests by placing his announcements where the women will read them.

USBAND THAT WAS SUES MAN THAT IS

MEDIA, Pa., July 29.—Simon R. Kamp of Philadelphia, today filed a suit for alienation of effections against State Representative W. D. Jones of Ridley Park. He wants $10,000 damages for the loss of Mrs. Kamp's affections. Just as an incident in the case, the legislator and Mrs. Kamp were married in Ridley Park last Wednesday.

Jones and his bride are spending their honeymoon at Atlantic City. Kamp is also spending a few days at the seashore city trying to forget his woes. Evidently he feels very bitter over his domestic troubles, which resulted in a divorce, for in his bill of particulars he says that while she was still Mrs. Kamp the woman visited Atlantic City with Jones, and he uses such terms as "wickedly," "grossly," "unjustly."

Kamp says that things got so bad that he left home and refused to live with his wife. Mrs. Kamp was granted a divorce in Media last March. She said her husband deserted her, and he did not take the trouble to deny it or contest the suit.

Mrs. Kamp is said to be more than 50 years old, while Representative Jones is about 35 years old. He is a very good-looking man and a pleasant talker. The Kamps had four children, two of whom are married.

MISS BOOTH PREPARES TO FIGHT AGAINST SIN

NEW YORK, July 28—Miss Myrtle Booth, daughter of General and Mrs. Ballington Booth, of the Volunteers of America, and granddaughter of General Booth, head of the Salvation Army, is preparing to take up the fight against sin. She is now 15 years old.

She distinguished herself as an athlete at the first private school that she attended, and at the second the physical examination proved her the strongest girl in the institution. Just now, at Miss Knox's school, Briarcliffe Manor, New York, she is a member of the basketball team and the champion long-distance runner. She stands well in her studies, and is an excellent musician.

Miss Booth's parents decided not to influence their daughter in any manner in her choice of a career, but she has decided to give her services to either the work of the Volunteers in general or to that branch of their work in the prisons, which her mother, Maud Booth, has so wonderfully developed.

"As most people know," said Miss Booth recently, "mother has had greater success with missionary laborers among convicts than any other woman, and it may be that I shall assist her. My father, however, wants me to help him, the more so as my brother Charles, has just taken up my mother's work."

TERRIBLE TIMES IN SPAIN ARMY SUFFERS HEAVY LOSS.

MADRID, July 29.—Yesterday was a black chapter in Spain's history, for there was tragedy both at home and abroad. King Alfonso reached here in time to learn that part of his army at Melilla had been in a bloody battle with the Moors in which, though the final victory was with the Spaniards, cost the lives of a general, 20 other officers and 200 Spandiards killed and wounded.

The King learned too that the revolution, protest of the Moroccan war had reached a very serious state in Catalona. There is much bloodshed and artillery has been employed in the streets of Barcelona, to quell the outbreak.

The City is terror stricken.

The revolutionists are fighting desperately behind barricades.

The troops included mounted artillery and the defences of the rebels have been raked with shot. The King has issued a decree proclaiming martial law and the suspension of constitutional guarantees throughout Spain.

Orders have been given to the Governors of the Provinces to crush the revolution at any cost, without hesitation and without pity.

The poorer classes from which the regiments are drawn are especially bitter, complaining that a man who can pay $300 is exempt from service. It is the poor, therefore, who are forced to meet death.

Everything Depends Upon Your Heart.

If you wish to live long, if you wish to avoid sudden death—you must attend to your heart. You must see that it beats properly.

If your heart flutters or palpitates or skips beats—you are in danger of sudden death. If you suffer from shortness of breath or tenderness or pain in the left side—it is your heart that is going back on you.

If you ever feel dizzy or faint or have spots before your eyes, if you sleep poorly, if you have dreams at night, if you find it painful to sleep on the left side, if your feet and ankles are swollen it means that your heart is bad and needs immediate attention. Remember, IMMEDIATE attention! Delay is dangerous.

However, if you suffer from heart trouble it need not frighten you for we have the cure, not only the relief but CURE, it is

Grossman's Heart Tablets
