Mr. Johnson was a former resident of Summerside where he conducted a bakery business.

Last week Malpeque Presbyterian congregation made the splendid offering on one day of $467.75 for missions. Rev. S. D. McPhee preached an able missionary sermon, and Rev. A. D. McKenzie and Rev. A. D. Sterling rendered valuable assistance. This offering was purely voluntary, each one bringing his or her gift to the committee. Taken along with W. F. M. Miss Eva Harris of Sinclair and Stewart's Ltd., Summerside, returned last evening after an extended trip to the different millinery openings. She was accompanied on her return with Miss Blanche Payne one of the leading milliners of Ontario, who comes to take charge of Sinclair & Stewart's Ltd., millinery department.

Mr. Kilby tonight will perform the most difficult feats of all that of getting out of a special straight jacket which covers him from head to foot. Mr. Kilby can only perform this once in the same evening as it is too trying and exhausting. All who have seen the Kilbys pronounce them to be marvellous. Straps, ropes and locks seem to be as nothing to them. Tonight they will allow themselves to be tied with 50 feet of rope, any one can bring a rope if so desired. This is the last appearance of the Kilbys in Summerside and no one should miss seeing their best and most wonderful performance tonight.

On the evening of Monday, March 9th, a large number of friends assembled at the home of Peter Boyce, Mill Branch, Richibucto, N. B., to celebrate the ninety-eighth birthday of Peter Campbell, who was a resident of Malpeque over eighty years ago, but of recent years has made his home with Mr. Boyce. Although Mr. Campbell has reached his advanced age, yet with his axe on his shoulder he can be seen daily wending his way to the wood. When his friends assembled on Monday evening, Mr. Campbell was completely taken by surprise. Shortly after the company arrived, Rev. R. H. Stavart a native of Prince Edward Island read the address to Mr. Campbell and J. M. Ford presented him with a beautiful plush covered arm chair. So much taken back was the old gentleman that it was some little time before he realized that the chair was for him. In a very few words he then thanked his friends for their kindness in remembering him with such a beautiful and useful gift. A remarkable fact about this gathering was that there were five generations of Mr. Campbell's blood relations. Besides Mr. Campbell who represented one generation, there were two of his nieces, Miss Annie Campbell of Harcourt and Mrs. James Call of Ford's Mills, both of whom represented another younger generation. The next generation down was represented by John Call of Ford's Mills, son of Mrs. James Call. Mrs. Anthony Agnew of Moncton, who is a granddaughter of Mrs. James Call, represented the fourth generation down, while Mrs. Agnew's little son Everett, was the representative of the fifth generation. It is very seldom that the representatives of five generations can be found assembled together.

First Exhibit of New Wash Dress Goods For 1908

VISIONS of summer daintiness and loveliness are already opening up to view in our wash goods section, where is now displayed the handsomest stock of tub materials of all kinds, which it has yet been our good fortune to offer you.

We deem this an opportune time to call your particular attention to them, as it is most desirable to make an early choice and have the goods made up before the busy house cleaning season begins. Samstresses too, at this time are not so rushed, as they will be later, and now that the styles for the coming summer are definitely forecasted, it is well to be forehanded in this matter, and thus have everything in readiness to enjoy the good old summer time when it shall actually have arrived.

No ladies' wardrobe is quite complete without a few dainty and serviceable wash costumes, and what with the excellent variety we now show, it will not be difficult to make a suitable choice.

In the materials for plain tailored and shirtwaist suits, we have an elegant variety to select from in white and colored linens, piques, mercerized gingham, Kingcot gingham, English drill prints and many other weaves, while in the finer and sheer materials we have Persian mulls, Zephyrs, dimities, lawas, Swiss muslins, rainsook, organadies, book muslins, coinsopt muslins, Persian lawas and costume muslins of all kinds, dainty enough to delight the heart of matron or maid.

As quality must be considered in connection with price in these goods, and as per our ink description is altogether inadequate, we will give only a few ideas as to colors and prices.

- Finest Persian mulls in white, sky, pink and champagne at ..... 30c a yd
- Dainty Swiss muslins in many qualities at from ..... 8c to 28c yd
- New and beautiful plaid Zephyrs at ..... 20 and 25c yd
- Very pretty check Zephyrs at ..... 15c and 20c yd
- Fashionable new stripe Zephyrs at ..... 15 and 20c yd

- Indigo drill prints, splendid patterns, unmatchable wear at ..... 14 to 22c yd
- Thousands of yds of beautiful English prints in all good colors and patterns at from ..... 8 to 18c yd

You cannot fail to be pleased with the variety and quality, while our prices are, as usual the lowest for like quality. The public are cordially invited to call and inspect.
