

DEAR ECONOMY

Some short sighted people practice a kind of economy that is not economical. They save a penny on Soap and lose a dollar on clothes. Sooner later they learn that the cheap common Soaps, rot clothing by burning thread with strong Alkalies, then they wish they had used which contains no impurities, nothing to injure the most delicate fabric, there is still greater economy in using "Welcome Soap"—

WELCOME SOAP

Because it lasts longer than Others.

STUDIES IN THE LIFE OF JESUS.

JESUS THE BREAD OF LIFE. GOLDEN TEXT.

Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life.—John 6. 35.

LESSON HELPS.

22, 23. "The day following"—Following the night of the walk on sea and the day of the feeding of five thousand, "The other side of the sea"—The writer's point of view is changed; and the "other side" here is the eastern side, the side where the miracle had been wrought. The meaning of the close of verse 22 and of verse 23 is simply this: On the evening of the miracle only one boat was in sight; but most of the people having come from the west of the lake, in the morning several boats crossed over them.

24. "They also took shipping"—not, probably, the whole five thousand, "Came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus"—They knew that he had not gone with his disciples in the one boat that had left; they would learn from the ferry-men of Tiberias that he was not there; so most naturally they went to Capernaum.

25. "Other side" in this verse means western side.

26. "Saw the miracles"—Better, "say the signs." Their miraculous meal of bread and fish was meant to be an emblem of the heavenly food which Christ could apply; but it had not awakened in their hearts no "hunger and thirst" in their righteousness, only a desire for another meal of bread and fish. (1) How many there are to-day who turn from the living God to "leaves and fishes!"

27. "Labour not"—Rather, work not. (2) We should live as being in the world, but not of it. "Meat"—Food. "Endureth unto everlasting life"—This food is not consumed, like physical food, but "endures" abides, and the life that it nourishes continues into eternity. (3) "passed away." "Sealed"—Or, as we would say, "indorsed." In the East men authenticate a document by appending a seal instead of a signature. God the Father by just such miracles as the feeding of the multitude had indorsed Jesus as the Messiah.

28. "Work the works of God"—If working for wages, labouring for the "meat which perisheth," is not the highest ideal, tell us how we shall work.

29. "Believe on him"—Identify yourselves in every way with the Messiah. (4) Faith in Christ is the great saying work.

30. "What sign"—The Jew was born a believer, just as the Greek was born a sceptic. The first demanded a supernatural wonder as naturally as the second asked for reason. (5) God gives both reasons and miracles in plenty to the devout soul, but gives neither to the curiosity seeker.

31. "Did eat manna"—"After all, they thought the feeding of the five thousand was less marvellous than the manna, and Moses was not the Messiah."

32. "Moses gave you not"—Christ will not allow himself to be unfavorably compared with Moses. "The true bread"—Spiritual bread; eternal truth, which was embodied in our Lord.

33. "Evermore give us this bread"—A superficial and unspiritual prayer. "These people were shallow; they did not comprehend the meaning of Christ's words, but if he had anything desirable to give they wanted it."—Abbot.

34. "Bread of life"—Bread that giveth life. "He that cometh"—That is, he that continually comes. "In one sense spiritual hunger and thirst are not ended when Christian experience begins."—Abbot.

35. "But the true Christain has no heart-ache or unsatisfied yearning."

36. "Believe not"—They sought a feeder for their stomachs, not a Saviour for their souls.

37. "In no wise cast out"—(7) Christ's promise to cast out none is the sinner's warrant.

40. "Seeth" Contemplaeth.
