CHARLOTTETOWN AND QUEEN'S COUNTY

It pays to buy in this Province.

W. A. McLaren, C. E., arrived in Moncton this morning from Edmonton, en route to his home in P. E. Island.—Moncton Exe.

Schooner Lady Hill, Capt. Kaise arrived from Grand River, P. E. I. yesterday, with 2,600 bushels potatoes and 200 bushels turnips.—Halifax Exe.

F. S. Chandler, representing, Aul Bros, City, was among the passengers returning on the Northumberland last evening after a business trip to the mainland.

The friends of Ernest Beer, City who underwent an operation in the E. Island Hospital on Saturday for appendicitis, will be glad to know that it was entirely successful and that the patient is doing remarkably well.

The Mission Band concert and Christmas tree of the Methodist Church at Pleasant Valley will be held on Thursday evening, 21st. Admission 10c. If the evening should be stormy it will be held on the following Thursday.

Mrs. Edward Chandler, City, has received a telegram from Tacoma Washington, announcing the death of her brother, Charles A. Sayre of that city. Mr. Sayre visited Charlottetown the latter part of October.

The gentlemen have been well looked after this year by H.H. Brown a will be seen by his ad on page nine today. His superior stock will be found replete with every need and as is well known his prices are always as low as good goods will allow. A visit to the store is suggested.

Another of Charlottetown's brightest young people is about to accept the call to larger fields of opportunity. Miss Kitty Norton, daughter of Mrs. R. E. Norton, Prince St., for several years in the employ of Fryman & Co., has accepted a position in the office of the Secretary of State for Canada, and leaves for Ottawa early in the New Year to enter upon her new duties.—Exe.

Govt Tweedie of New Brunswick, accompanied by his son T. L. Tweedie, came to the city yesterday morning from Murray Harbor and registered at the Victoria Hotel. While in Murray Harbor, Lieut. Gov. Tweedie visited his sister, Mrs. A. P. Prowse. Shortly after arriving in this city his Honor paid an informal visit to the Government House and left for Summerside on return to his home in the afternoon.

The Signaling and Wireless class will meet tonight, Tuesday at 7.15 p. m. This will be the last class before the holidays, and all members are requested to attend. Business of an important nature will be discussed. The class is open to all. The class of twenty three and the attendance committee will be expected to make a full report of any assistance. Rapid progress has been made since the formation of this class. There are now three stations belonging to members of the association and two more are under construction.

Rev. J. E. Purdie was last night installed rector of the parish of Campbellton by the Bishop of Fredericton. Rev. Mr. Purdie was well known in St. John, where he labored in St. Luke's Church, going to Campbellton a few months ago to succeed Rev. R. J. Coleman in Christ church. He has proved an acceptable addition to the ministerial ranks and has made many friends both in and outside his congregation. Last night's meeting was well attended, the bishop preaching a most eloquent sermon.—Moncton Exe. Mr. Purdie is a native of this city.

"How many boxes of chocolates have you in the store?" asked a pretty young school girl of one of the clerks in Johnson & Johnson's Drug Store the other day. The clerk was of a mathematical turn of mind and said: "If you were to place all the boxes of Neilson's, Moir's and Ivanhoe chocolates in this store and to end on top of one another, it would make a pile as high as the steeple of the Roman Catholic Cathedral and then you would have enough left to make another pile as high as the top of the tower of the City Building." Samuel Lowe, the well-known contractor, happened to be passing at the time and was called in to verify the correctness of the statement. It turned out that the clerk had forgotten to count in some of the elegant baskets of chocolates, which gave him the height of himself and two feet two inches to spare.

A visit to our store will give many suggestions for Xmas gifts. Our stock in chocolates, perfumes, smokers' goods, walking canes, and Ebony goods is large and well assorted—it is a pleasure to show goods, call and inspect them. E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, Sunnyside.

LETTER OF CONDOLENCE.

The following letter of condolence has been sent to Rev. Edward Bell, City.

Dear Sir and Brother:—I am directed by the quarterly board of the First Methodist Church to convey to you the sympathy of the board in your illness and enforced retirement and also to thank you for the good work done by you as superintendent of Kensington Hall Sabbath School.

The board sincerely hopes that you may soon be able to take charge of this important work that has succeeded so well under your previous management.

Yours very sincerely,
Henry Smith,
Recording Steward, First Methodist Church.
